ed from Manitoba last Saturday and will make his home in Montana. Phil is visiting friends at his old home, being unable to work on account of the injuries he received in falling from a hay rack.

An interesting feature of the church services last evening was a solo by Miss Malone of Michigan who is now in Dupuyer visiting her brother John Malone.
Miss Malone has rare musical talent, and an exceptionally fine voice which have been trained under the direction of the best teachers in the east.

Geo. Hall has received the appointment of Stock Inspector for Northern Montana. His territory will be between Glasgow and Harlem. He has also been appointed Deputy Sheriff of Valley County without pay. His headquarters will be at Malta. It is believed that Geo. will make a good inspector and it is known that he can shoot about as good as any of 'em.—Chinook Opinion.

Rev. F. L. Buzzell, of Chateau has been in Dupuyer since Saturday and has been preaching every evening to large and attentive congregations. Rev.
Buzzell is logical in his argument and has the rare faculty of making his discourse interesting as well as instructive.
The series will close this evening and it is hoped that the people of Dupuyer may look forward to another visit from Choteau's pastor in the near future.

George D. Patterson, of Fort Benton, yesterday filed a petition to be declared a bankrupt. He placed his liabilities at $10,880.59 and his assets at $91.50, all except. His principal creditors are T.
C. Power & Bro., of Fort Benton, $4,508.
09; Northwestern National Bank of Great Fall, $2,208.50, and a balance due on the settlement of the partnership of George D. Patterson & Co., $3,163.30.— Independent.

As Mrs. George N. Campbell was engaged in her household duties yesterday afternoon a bullet came tearing through the window and missed her head by but a few inches. There are several circumstances that tend to prove that the shot was deliberately fired at the house and the sheriff will be called upon to investigate. There has been a great deal too much promiscuous shooting in this vicinity recently and many complaints on that account. When some injured citizen gathers the courage to make a formal charge, the law will be enforced.

Wm. Gray, the well known Highwood sheepman, is a rather irascible old gentleman and about 10 days ago one of his saddle horses, a gentle old cayuse, wise beyond his years and hardened in iniquity, absolutely declined to enter a corral for any elderly Scotchman, particularly when his pursuer was on foot.
Mr. Gray got his trusty shotgun and fired four loads of No. 7 shot into the buzzard head, costs for cruelty to animals. Mr. Gray triumphantly observed, however, that the crowbar now makes a run for the corral the moment some one opens the gate and yells at him.—Great Falls Tribune.

J. H. Boucher deputy game warden has just returned to Blackfoot after a ten day trip to Belly river investigating reports of Stoney Indians depleting the country of game in that vicinity. He found the Indians camped on Belly river about two miles north of the International boundary line. He saw three of them afoot who immediately took to the timber and made for the British side. The deputy trailed one of them afoot to within a half mile of the camp.
He reports the snow from three to seven feet deep in the high mountains and not even solid enough to bear a man on snowshoes. He went to Cardston to interview Inspector W. H. Erwin of the Northwest Mounted Police about taking prisoners arrested in United States territory, through Canadian territory back to the United States. Mr. Erwin replied, "At present it would be impossible to permit you to do so, but I will correspond with my superiors and see what can be done and let you know." The deputy seeing it was impossible to do any thing at present as prisoners can be got out only through Canadian territory at this season, and by only two trails in summer, one across a spur of Chief mountain on the west and the other over the main range into Flathead county via head of Belly river, he reported these facts to his chief and immediately sought other fields to operate in which promised better results.

To remove a troublesome corn or bunion: First soak the corn or bunion in warm water to soften it, then pare it down as closely as possible without drawing blood and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily; rubbing vigorously for five minutes at each application.
A corn plaster should be worn for a few days, to protect it from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lameness and rheumatism. Pain Balm is unequalled. For sale by Thos. B.
Magee.

Mrs. Nannie McLain, at Rest.

The community was shocked last Sunday morning upon learning of the death of Mrs. Nannie McLain, wife of Thomas McLain, of this place. It had been reported for a few days that she was not well, but no danger was apprehended until Saturday, when Dr. Wine was sent for. Her physician found her suffering from terrible pains in the head and did all in his power to relieve them.
He was called again during the early hours of Sunday morning but found his patient unable to respond to treatment and in spite of all that could be done she breathed her last within twenty minutes after his coming. Her death was probably caused by the rupture of a blood vessel in the brain during a violent period of pain, as she maintained her faculties to the last and displayed no other symptoms of disease. Mrs. McLain, was an earnest Christian, a dutiful wife and a loving mother, was beloved by all and will be long remembered as a true woman, bearing her burdens patiently and making her little world better by her presence. Her husband, lonely but for the presence of five young children who are hardly old enough to appreciate their loss, has the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community in his sad bereavement. Funeral services were held at the late residence of the deceased and the last sad rites were performed at the Dupuyer cemetery, Monday afternoon.

The Schley Inquiry.

Washington, Nov. 18.—According to information which has reached the navy department through channels in a manner controlled by the department, the verdict of the Schley court of inquiry will practically be a complete vindication of Admiral Schley.

Moreover, instead of a long discursive opinion covering all the complex details of the inquiry, the court will hand down a brief and terse verdict which it is said will not contain more than 500 words.

The three admirals comprising the court decided upon this form of verdict very soon after they began their session.
Appreciating the desire of the public, and everybody concerned, for a verdict that would be neither long nor involved they agreed at the outset that they would be exceedingly sparing of words.

Admirals Dewey, Benham and Ramsey, who comprise the court, have worked industriously. They have devoted long hours to the task of arranging the evidence so as to arrive at an intelligent understanding of its application to the charges preferred against Admiral Schley in the precept.

It is known they have made progress and will be ready within a comparatively short time to present their findings to the secretary of the navy.

School Notes.

The following pupils on account of sickness have been about the whole or part of the last two weeks. Pearl Humble, Della Humble, Frances Yule, Ada Wilcox, Vernie Davies, Albert Crose, Earl Heighton, Willie McLain, Maggie McLain and Henry Hagen. The 100 mark in spelling was finally reached by three pupils at the last 100 word test: Mary and Tommy Magee and Elsie Ryan. Other standings were: Pearl Heighton 97, John Arnold 96, Guy Wilcox 93, Maude Wilcox 98. On 200 words: Kyle Jones 92, Ad Wilcox 99, Maude Wilcox 99, Emmett Ryan 99. On 100 words: Pearl Heighton 94, Ada Wilcox 98, Emmett Ryan 99 1/2, Elsie Ryan 98.
