ANNOUNCEMENT

Much of our late Spring and early Summer Merchandise has been bought and some of it is commencing to arrive. Had weather conditions been normal, it would be none too early, but up to the present time a warm winter coat has been indispensable and as a consequence, suits and coats, bought for early sale, are still on our racks. Now, before more of our late Spring and early Summer Garments arrive, we are going to move out of the store, by Compelling Prices, all merchandise received in January, February and March. Think of the wonderful saving opportunity! The stock which will be included in this sale was carefully selected, with reference to both price and quality, and it means a big loss to us to put on this sacrifice sale at this time of year. Included in this sale will be articles from every department of the store. In many instances, only broken lots—in others full assortments. We need not here say anything about Emporium Merchandise. The quality is already known. This is why our sales always attract such large crowds. We have not the space to enumerate ALL of the bargains. Please carefully study this advertisement, and then come into the store and see for yourself. Remember—the sale lasts only one week.
