

It's Time!

Time to turn your thoughts to Haying and Harvesting machinery---and you should make a careful inspection before the rush of work begins. When your thoughts turn that way, turn your footsteps toward the Big Red Shed, where the Deere line is ready for inspection.

HALL'S HARDWARE

Bang ***** !!!

Come on pals, let's play a game of baseball pool at Bob's Smoke House. Catholic services in Cut Bank on Sunday, July 6th, at 8:30 and 10:30 o'clock, by Rev. Father Dunne.

County Surveyor Colin Ward was a visitor here Tuesday.

Chas. Ferris was at Ethridge and Shelby Tuesday in the interests of the Cut Bank Power Laundry.

Miss May and Verna Bolke spent the week end in Great Falls.

W. H. Humble and family are visiting a few days at the Richards home.

Supt. Smith of the Kalispell division in Cut Bank on Monday looking over the yards and shops at this point.

A. F. Richards, W. H. Humble and J. P. Johnson autoged to Sweetgrass Saturday on business.

WANTED— 160 and 320 acre relinquishments, improved and unimproved. Come in and see us Jones & Vandemark

Mrs. J. J. Hall sustained a painful cut on the hand one day this week, while in the act of opening a glass jar. Dr. Strain was compelled to take three stitches in the wound.

Robert Thompson, a well known Headlight homesteader, is seriously ill at his old home in Minnesota. Mr. Thompson is afflicted with cancer of the stomach and physicians have little hope for his recovery.

Miss Maude Barr and the Misses Gregg, of Marcus, Ia., were guests at the Coburn and Maltby homes several days of the week, en route to Glacier Park and other points of interest in the West.

Jas. Ritchie says the section around Park River, N. D., will only harvest half a crop at the very best and that crops in that section of No. Dakota over which he and Mrs. Ritchie traversed did not compare with the crops in this section.

A party came over from Dupuyer on Saturday in connection with a petty larceny case, which was transferred from Dupuyer to Judge Thomas's court. Atty. Bullock of Valier was in the party also Mr. Johnson, Mr. Kellogg and Mr. Wilson of Dupuyer.

E. E. Brindley, who came here from Big Springs, Texas, last week, has taken a great liking to this section. "All the people here have to do is to hold their heads and their homesteads, improve them and farm along scientific lines and prosperity and increased land values will be their reward."

Presbyterian Church: The Sabbath morning services will be omitted in this church; beginning with the first Sabbath in July, until the first of September, but services will be conducted here each Sunday evening.

Mrs. Carl Hawkins underwent a very serious operation at the Conrad hospital Tuesday of last week. Mrs. Hawkins has long been a sufferer with tubercular glands in the throat and an operation was advised by Dr. Power, in the hope of allaying her sufferings. Rev. Hawkins visited with the patient Monday of this week. He states that the operation brought relief but intertains the fear that it may not be permanent.

Will Benish, who returned from western North Dakota last week, declares that the one thing that surprised and pleased him when he arrived here was the remarkably fine appearance of the flax crop in this community, some of which is already in blossom. Flax in North Dakota is just peeping above the ground and will have to hustle to mature before the season when fall frosts may be expected.

Alphonse Bonnet informs the Pioneer Press that Ethridge will save a grain elevator, in all probability, before the new crop matures. A site has been chosen and it is expected that work will commence in a short time. The Ethridge Mercantile Co., of which Mr. Bonnet is a leading spirit, has now opened its doors for the patronage of the public, with Adam Cyr in charge. The Ethridge post office is also located in this building.

Kemper Noland, a New York city architect is a guest at the Barrington home this week.

G. C. Madison left Monday for Raymond, Canada, where he expects to acquire a parcel of Canadian real estate. Mr. Madison expects to be absent for several days.

Let your investments work while you take life a little easier. A lot in Jacobson's addition, purchased while the price is low, is sure to bring you good returns. Talk to McNamee.

The town fathers have awarded the contract to Oscar Montross for the grading of East Main, to the east end of the corporate limits. Oscar is pulling the grader with his big gas tractor and is doing the job in tip-top shape.

Ex. Senator William Cowgill, of Choteau, mingled with his numerous Cut Bank friends last Sunday evening. Mr. Cowgill recently resigned as postmaster in the county seat town and is devoting most of his time to ranch interests.

I. S. Martine and James Murty of Conrad were in Cut Bank Saturday evening looking after cream shipments from this place being very anxious to secure any that was being shipped for the Conrad Creamery.

A miscellaneous collection of ball players journeyed to Shelby Sunday and tried out their skill with the team of that place with indifferent results. The game was called at the end of the fifth inning on account of rain, the score standing Shelby 4, Cut Bank 0. A return game will be played here in the near future.

Mrs. Welch of Carlsbad, New Mexico is here visiting her son Wm. Welch, one of our prosperous farmers.

John Gill, for many years employed along this part of the G. N. Railway system and until a few months ago a passenger conductor on the Burlington between Whitefish and Great Falls, was killed in the Milwaukee yards at Vancouver, Wash. Thursday last. Gill severed his connection with the G. N. early in the spring and accepted the position of switch foreman for the Milwaukee at Vancouver. He was well known to Cut Bank citizens, especially the railway boys, and the news of his death was the occasion of keen regret. The remains were brought to Whitefish early this week and the funeral services were conducted by the Order of Railway Trainmen.
