THE CAR'S HEALTH.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 29.—The Official Messenger announces that since a severe attack of influenza, from which the czar suffered in January, his health has not been fully restored. This summer he has supervised, necessitating passing the winter in a warmer climate. Therefore the czar, acting under the advice of Prof. Seeschkin and Leyden, will make a temporary stay in Livadia shortly.

A Berlin specialist in brain and spinal diseases, announced to attend the czar at Spala, has announced that his condition is not such as to justify immediate anxiety.
