municipal expenses, and the manufacturing cost of their products as represented to a great extent by wages to employees, are not distributed in some distant community, but rather kept here where they are ultimately redistributed with local people. All employees are of course local residents and in many cases home owners. Their practice of reinvesting their surplus profits in the community has been of tremendous value in helping Butte to prosper in a way that only men and institutions of this sort make possible.

If you are not already a confirmed user of their products, a trial will convince you of their high quality. Ask for them at your garage or service station and support local industry.

MORTUARY TAKES SPECIAL CARE OF EVERY DETAIL

The Painstaking Care and Attention Which the Merrill Mortuary Employs in Leaving No Detail of Minutest Significance Uncared for Has Given It an Envious Reputation. Pat R. Gagner, Operator and Leasee.

The inescapable necessity of a funeral is bound to come to all. When it does come the minds of relatives and friends are distressed and many things that should be considered calmly are given hurried judgment or entirely overlooked.

In this respect there is so much that an experienced and capable funeral director can do to relieve you and so many responsibilities he can remove from your shoulders that it is highly desirable to make the acquaintance of a dependable firm before need arises.

Merrill Mortuary is such a firm, one which will assume full responsibility for every detail if desired. For those bereaved of loved ones this firm plays an important and delicate role, as they quietly relieve the grief stricken of all care and responsibility and perform their part with efficiency and tact. Their service, wherein competency, sympathy and
