Biggest time of the season at the Baseball Dance in the Belt K. P. hall. Saturday night, May 3rd.

C. L. Crane was a visitor in town yesterday from his ranch on the Little Belt ridge.

Mrs. Wm. Pilgeram was a visitor at the home of Mrs. Jos. Morris Tuesday. The Embroidery club met with Mrs.

Otto Polutnik last Wednesday. After an afternoon spent with fancy work a most delicious lunch was served by the hostess, consisting of chicken saled, hot rolls, pineapple cake with whipped cream, and coffee. All report a most enjoyable occasion. The next meeting of the club will be with Mrs. Frank Rush.

Miss Eleanor Peters came home from her school on Little Belt to visit her mother on Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCafferty of Raynesford were visiting relatives in Belt Sunday.

Miss Elin Kraftenberg of Arming-ton spent Sunday in Great Falls.

Mrs. W. P. Pilgeram and Mrs. Coleman of Arming-ton were visiting Mrs. Hockett Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Haney of Stockett stopped a few hours in Belt Sunday evening on their way home from a trip to Stanford.

Tony Rubino and George Brutofski passed their examinations and will be admitted to citizenship. They were pupils at the Americanization school which has been conducted in Belt for some time.

Andrew Kivi of Briggeman coulee was in town Tuesday getting material for spring work.

John Florek went back to Havre on Tuesday after a few days visit with his parents here.

Mr. Klies, of the firm of Johnson & Klies of Great Falls, was visiting Straight and Everson Tuesday.

Oscar Junkermeier and family were attending to business matters in Belt Tuesday.

Joe Sikora and Bill Vensel have been in the sick squad this week.

The Illinois Watch company offered a medal as a prize for the best essay on Lincoln written by any Belt pupil. These essays were judged by a committee of teachers who awarded the medal to Billie Stuffer. The medal has been on exhibition at Sundermeier's Jewelry store.

John Saul and Fred Saul were in town Tuesday.

The Ladies of the Altar society will give another of their popular card parties in the parish hall on Wednesday evening, April 30th. Lunch will be served. Tickets fifty cents.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Bemis drove out to the Bemis ranch on Monday to see if the crops were showing through the ground.

Forman Talbott and Roy Ashworth have been using a road scraper and wagons to good advantage the past week digging out the gutters and hauling away the refuse. A very noticeable improvement has been made in the business section.

Joe Kopriva was in town from Lower Belt on Monday.

John Yurko came out from Great Falls Sunday to spend Easter with his mother and Pauline.

Nels A. Nelson and son Roy were business visitors to Belt Monday.

Walfred Sheldon was in Monday on business. He says that they are now able to get into the fields but that stock feeding has interfered with the other farm work.

Hans Johnson and Chas. Weberg have been in the fields for several days.

Mrs. J. H. Gillette and daughter Helen made a business trip to Great Falls on Monday.

John Daniels and family of Great Falls drove out Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Siegling and family and A. F. Morris were in town on Monday from their homes in Arming-ton.

"Eb" Epperson, old time barber of this locality, visited Hughesville last week and this week made a trip to Utica.

W. C. Blomquist and Bert Funk attended the meeting of the baseball commissioners in Great Falls Saturday. Bert was captured by a reporter and before the pencil pusher got away Bert had filled him full of Belt dope and sent him away with many misgivings as to the fate of the other teams in the league.

The John Dolin ranch home on Arming-ton coulee burned last week. The fire came from a defective flue. The loss was partially covered by insurance.

The family of Oscar Samuelson moved last week from the Nels Roman house to the Browning house on Third Avenue South.

The family of C. A. Straight arrived in Belt yesterday to make their home.

SUMMONS.

In the District Court of the Eighth Judicial District of the State of Montana, in and for the County of Cascade.

Bertha M. Creek, Plaintiff,
—vs—
James A. Creek, Defendant.

The State of Montana Sends Greetings to the Above Named Defendants, and to Each of Them:

You are hereby summoned to answer the complaint in this action which is filed in the office of the Clerk of this Court, a copy of which is herewith served upon one of you in each County wherein any of you reside and to file your answer and serve a copy thereof upon the plaintiff's attorney within twenty days after the service of this Summons, exclusive of the day of service and in case of your failure to appear or answer, Judgment will be taken against you, by default, for the relief demanded in the complaint.

This action is brought for the purpose of obtaining a Decree of Divorce from the Defendant on the grounds and for the reason that for more than one year immediately preceding the commencement of this action, the Defendant, although having the ability to do so, has wilfully failed and refused to provide for this Plaintiff the common necessities of life; all of which more fully appears in the Complaint on file in this action.

Witness my hand and the Seal of said Court this 16th day of April, 1924.

ALEX REMNEAS,
Clerk.
