U. S. NET STARS WIN OLYMPIC

Helena Wins in Easy Victory, but Richards Is Forced to Limit to Win His Crown.

Columbus, France, July 20.—The two young American tennis stars, Miss Helen Wills and Vincent Richards, captured the Olympic singles crowns Sunday and clinched another brilliant international team triumph for the United States.

Miss Wills, playing with the calm and steady assurance which marked her victorious progress all week, decisively vanquished Mile. Vlasto in the women's final, 6-2, 6-2, but Richards was forced to battle through a hard five-set match under a broiling sun to take the measure of his young French rival, Henri Cochet, 6-4, 6-4, 5-7, 4-6, 6-2, for the men's title.

The double victory, marking the greatest international conquests that any young American has yet gained, gives the United States the third straight Olympic net championship and the points which make victory for the American team certain. It was the second crown for Miss Wills, who won with Mrs. Wightman in the final of the women's doubles yesterday.

The mixed doubles team, Mrs. Jessup and Richards, and Mrs. Wightman and R. Norris Williams, emerged victorious from the semi-finals Sunday afternoon and will stage an all-American battle for the title Monday, while Richards and Francis T. Hunter will seek the men's doubles honors against the French stars, Cochet and Brangon.

By Sunday's achievements, the United States now has 30 points, which, with the assurance of at least 20 more Monday is sufficient to eclipse that of any rival. France is nearest with 20 points and Great Britain with 15.

Miss Wills, whose victory was the first major triumph of any American woman net star on foreign soil since Miss May Sutton won the British championship 17 years ago, played with a consummate skill that overwhelmed her opponent. The American champion's playing from the base line throughout, out-manuevered, out-steadied and out-classed Mile. Vlasto from start to finish. The French girl's only weapon was a speedy forehand, and the occasions on which she used this shot effectively to prevent the rallies provided the only interesting features.

For the most part Miss Wills was content to keep the ball in play, letting her opponent virtually beat herself by recapitulating showing that Mile. Vlasto cannot see how points that Miss Wills had made 19 more errors. Miss Wills also was aided by a vastly superior service, while in the long range duel from the back court her forehead shots, equally severe backhand or forehand, kept the French girl on the run and usually ended in her netting the ball or driving it out.

After a rather tame first set in which Mile. Vlasto was wild and unsteady and an easy victim to the American's surer service, the French girl rallied and held Miss Wills even for the first four games of the second set. While Mile. Vlasto was applying the most pace and accuracy to her forehand returns which she had shown, Miss Wills developed a sudden streak of wildness, making eight successive outs and dropping the third and fourth games.

Situated at Overlook Farm of 120 acres, ten miles west of Omaha on the Dodge street road, it is frequently referred to as the "Paradise of Boys." A new $200,000 thoroughly modern five proof building is now completed and this, together with the farm buildings, work shops, etc., makes almost a complete city.

This is the beautiful way to think of Christ on the hot highway of time. We pause in it as in a shelter from the heat, and are refreshed. In proportion as we carry the spirit of it into all days do they also become Lord's Days, and yield us the same refreshment and peace as the Sabbath Day."—Robert E. Speer.

STATE 'U' GETS BEST ATHLETES

Missoula—Half a hundred of the pressure state's best high school athletes, stars on the gridiron, basketball court and track, will register at Montana state university next fall.

J. W. Stewart, director of athletics, says a trip during which he conferred with a majority of the graduates of last spring. Indications are that the Montana athletic squad will have more stars than the famous old generation of the past year, promising a bright future for the state university's athletic teams of years to come.

Big Sandy will send its two star football hurriers, Schilling and Shultz, both of whom made 127 feet at the interscholastic, as well as Moe and Laird, star football and basketball men. Hollister, Harlowtown's gridiron star, is coming. From Manhattan will come a quartet of track athletes, Kickbasch, Weaver, Lewis and Smith, the latter being a basketball star, too. Livingston will send basketball, basketball center, and Caruso, all-state gridiron guard, both being point-winning performers as well.

From Great Falls will come Lowry, Evans and Thibault, all of them football, basketball and track performers of note. Anaconda contributes Engstrom, star quarterback and forward, and Botschardt, one of the best basketball guards in western high school circles.

Their kickoff, the only all-around performer on the Butte squad to graduate, a forward on the state champion team, is to register here next fall. McKensie, a flash on the track and gridiron and a fine shot on the court, will register here, and with him James Fogarty, the big blonde end, and Keyes, star halfback and middle distance runner, all from Butte Central. Helena sends its three basketball stars, Rottier, Kain and Mares, the latter being a fine football prospect. Babcock of Miles City is a fast all-around performer who is coming.

Eight members of Billings high school's state football championship squad, Peters, all-state quarter, Hansen, Bill, Towner, Sweetman, Davis, Walker and Sweeney, are slated to report here next fall. Egan, Egan's accurate shooting center, and Alland, a fast track man, come from Roman's high school. Brittainham, best forward man end of the state, will be here from Kalkipell. Anderson and Ross, Thompson Falls distance runners and basketball lights, are coming. John Alfred Burns, individual champion at the 1924 interscholastic, will check his trunk from Jordan to Missoula. Miller, polevault winner, and Graham, are coming from Columbus.

Stevensville sends the giant Carpenter, twice all-state football man; Drew, a fast back and hurdler, and Hill, its wonderful sprinter. Hamilton will contribute Gordon, mile runner of unusual ability; Nelson, star hurdler and jumper; Mearns and Hayes, all members of three athletic teams.

STANDARD FEES FOR THRESHING ADVANCED

Fourteen Cents Per Bushel Will Be Charged When Crew Is Included.

The standard price for threshing in Cascade county this fall will be 14 cents a bushel when the complete crew is furnished, and seven cents when the crew is furnished by the farmer, according to a scale set Saturday afternoon at the annual meeting of the Cascade County Threshermen's association at the office of the A. H. Averill Machinery company in Great Falls.

The same scale will prevail this year in Teton and Fergus counties. Meetings of the same nature were held in these counties previous to the Great Falls meeting. The maximum charge which threshermen can make when they furnish their own crews will be 15 cents, and the minimum 12 1/2 cents. When the crew is furnished by the farmer, the maximum will be seven cents a bushel, and six cents will be the least.

In all cases it was decided that farmers must supply and deliver fuel for the machinery to the field.

RANCH EMPLOYE INJURED BY A RUNAWAY TEAM

Children Stay Frightened Horrors and Then Drive Three Miles for Assistance.

A girl six years old and her three-year-old brother stopped a team of runaway horses and drove them three miles to the ranch of their brother, Tony Skites, near Raynesford, to tell him of an accident which threw Edward Makarovich, a farm hand employed by Skites, under the wheels of the wagon, broke his leg and left him unconscious.

Skites rushed the injured man 40 miles to the Columbus hospital, where he was under medical care at 1:30 Sunday morning. Whether Makarovich was not known at the hospital Sunday morning, but his face was badly bruised and he was in great pain when he arrived at the hospital.

Accompanied by the children, Makarovich had left the Skites farm several hours before dark for a load of coal. The team became frightened after dusk at something which could not be explained by the children and started to run away. The driver was thrown off the wagon, one wheel passing over him before he could scramble free of the vehicle.

At the Columbus hospital it was reported that the little girl succeeded in stopping the team by sawing on the reins and then drove three miles to her brother's ranch to get help for the injured man.

CALL FOR BIDS ON GLACIER PARK ROAD—OPEN TILL 24th

Ninety-four thousand dollars will be spent this year in constructing additional units of the Logan Pass road through Glacier park. The Great Falls Commercial club was informed Monday with the receipt of specifications for the work. Bids have been called for by George E. Gaudin, chief engineer, and will be opened at Helena July 30.

Specifications call for construction of from seven to eight miles in two sections of work. The first division of the contract will be a road on the east side of the Continental divide from where the present highway ends at the head of St. Mary's lake, one and one-half miles east of Going-to-the-Sun chalet, to the chalet. This first, and the remainder of the apportionment will be used on the west side of the range.

The second section of work is known at the St. Cannon division. It is located in the McDonald creek valley and extends from the crossing of Avalanche creek to Logan creek, a distance of from five to six miles.

Construction is to begin 30 days after the successful bid has been accepted and the first section of the project is to be completed by July 30, 1925. Construction on the west side of the range is to be finished by June 1, 1925.

The contractor is required to give bonds to the amount of 50 per cent of the contract. Specifications call for complete construction by clearing, grubbing, drainage, grading and construction and possibly some gravel surfacing. The road of travel is to be from 16 to 20 feet wide, or more. The amount of funds available will depend entirely upon the unit price bid. The contract calls for the construction of 15 deck and girder bridges ranging from spans of eight to 36 feet. Both types of bridges will have 20 foot deck widths. It is estimated that there will be about 700 feet of guard rails needed.

The present road on the western side of the mountains runs from Belton to the head of Lake McDonald. There was some graveling and grading unfinished on this stretch prior to July 1. It also extends to Avalanche creek, where the beginning of the new western project is.
