What Is a BANK?

A modern bank is more than a depository for money; more than a place upon which to issue checks.

A modern bank is an institution of helpfulness to its depositors and clients. It is interested in seeing that they are prosperous and successful in their financial ventures.

Depositors who let us help them with advice born of long experience, can testify to the value of our service.

LET US SERVE YOU.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rice and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rice spent a few hours in Belt Saturday.

Mr. Van Dike and T. W. Noble made a short visit to Highwood Sunday.

Mrs. Cal Sharrard and daughter, Marjorie, visited Mrs. Lindstrom at Centerville over the week end.

The Embroidery club met with Mrs. Thos. Wright last Wednesday afternoon. All the members were present and enjoyed themselves to the utmost as with their guests they took part in the various attractions of the afternoon. Mrs. Penn, Mrs. Blomquist, Miss Carter and Miss Sifford were the club guests. Elaborate and original refreshments were served by the hostess. The club will meet next with Mrs. Dahl on April Fool's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Colgan made a business trip to Great Falls Monday.

Mr. Mackey of Raynesford was shopping in Belt yesterday.

Fred Mehmke and Mat Ulrich were in town from their respective ranches Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Vaskey were among those who attended the Nul-liner funeral.

George Larkin has been having a bad spell this week but is reported as improving.

Tom Colarchik of Raynesford while in town Wednesday called upon us and stated that he did not think that winter wheat in his section is badly damaged. He informed us that a new road will be built this summer to Geyser and that the Spionkop hill will be eliminated by the road going up Otter Creek through the Mike Bodner ranch, leaving the creek near the Bodner house and running on a section line to join the old road near the two small buttes toward Geyser. This will be a decided improvement for it will give a road open all winter and without any heavy hills.

H. B. Mitchell and James Charteris were nominated on the two tickets as candidates for the mayoralty of Gt. Falls.

Between the Boyle and Bumgarner ranches on the Great Falls road Deputy Sheriff King found a Ford in the ditch Sunday. The car belonged to T. L. Hardy of Augusta and had been occupied by three men and a woman when it left the road. No one was hurt.

Arthur E. Johnson of Spionkop went through Belt on a business trip to the county seat Tuesday.

J. W. Leland and W. C. Blomquist saw "Forty Winks" in Great Falls on Tuesday.

Boys of the high school have organized a baseball team and hope to have games with the surrounding towns this spring.

Earl Healey is the wearer of a permanent smile these days because of the fact that a daughter arrived at the Columbus hospital on Saturday afternoon. Mother and child are both well. He has been receiving congratulations of a host of friends.

You will find the El Escentio cigar in the case. Ask for it.—Adv.

The make-up of this paper which is customarily done by Frank Bales, foreman of the Times office, was delegated to Charles (Bill) Remington this week as a part of his apprenticeship. This is his first attempt.

The Masonic party Tuesday night was highly enjoyed by the crowd who attended. Many tables were at play and at cards Mrs. Cal Sharrard and J. W. Brodie proved themselves most expert while Mrs. Roy Johnson and J. W. Leland won the booby prize. A tasty lunch and dancing filled the rest of the evening.

Sheriff Norton was out yesterday in connection with business pertaining to the old Ashworth ranch.

Leo and Harold Shannon came in through the dust storm yesterday. They brought a goodly share of the dust to town with them for their faces looked as though they had been under the straw carrier of a threshing outfit. Many people started out from Belt yesterday but turned back as soon as they reached the bench.

The Rebekahs entertained the Odd Fellows and others Saturday night at a general good time. Music and cards served as amusements. J. W. Brodie, who was undefeated champion at the Masonic party Tuesday, was in such form that he won the cellar prize with ease, while Mrs. T. W. Noble and Frank Bales kept the head table all evening and vanquished all challengers. The ladies served a delightful supper late in the evening which served as an appetizing finale to an evening which was a splendid success.
