

Never A Heel-Mark on SUPREMIS!

WALK on it!—that's what it's made for! Spill hot or cold water on it—it won't turn white. Supremis was the first varnish made especially for use on floors—and, take our word for it, no other floor varnish gives such lasting satisfaction. What have you that needs varnish—a floor, a door, a boat's deck? There's a special du Pont Varnish for every special purpose. Come in and let us tell you the best way to do the job.

The Parent-Teachers Association met in the Auditorium last evening. A program of songs, speeches, instrumental numbers and readings were given. An opportunity was given all of the large number present to meet the new teachers. A light lunch was served. The president of the organization, Mrs. Minnie Browning presided.
The Pythian Theatre has been sold by N. T. Wilson to Raymond Robbins of Glasgow, Montana. Mr. Robbins is an experienced man in the business and will personally take charge about the first of November. Until that time N. T. Wilson will continue to have charge. Mr. Robbins is recommended to the community of Belt as a man of worth and integrity who will add something to the community life.
Mrs. Samuelson entertained very pleasantly at her home Tuesday afternoon. The occasion being her birthday. The afternoon was spent in doing fancy work. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess. Mrs. Samuelson received many useful and pretty remembrances. Those present were Mes. Dahl, Gustafson, Berg, Johnson, Vessel, Mrs. Alf Johnson and Misses Villa Browning and Ebbie Johnson. In parting all wished Mrs. Samuelson's birthday came more often than once a year, and thankful that she wasn't born in Leap Year.
A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Wm. McCafferty last evening when Laura McCafferty was united in marriage to Percy Sovereign of Lower Belt.
The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion and all the members of the family were present as well as a few very close friends. Rev. Totten of the First Presbyterian church of Great Falls was unavoidably detained and did not arrive until nearly ten o'clock.
The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McCafferty of Lower Belt and has grown up in this vicinity. She has been an able and popular clerk in the Dahl and McConkey stores since leaving school. The groom and his widowed mother reside on the Sovereign ranch at the mouth of Willow creek which he has been managing since the death of his father. The happy couple will make their home on Lower Belt and have the best wishes of the entire community for happiness and prosperity.

An error crept into the published report of the Farmers and Miners State Bank last week through the fault of the printer. Instead of the item "Notes and Bills Rediscounted...$27,470.76" the statement should have read "Notes and Bills rediscounted...none. The statement is published correctly in this issue."
A special school board meeting was called for Tuesday evening to consider the question of building a new garage and blacksmith shop for the high school this year. It was decided to defer the matter until better times. It is the intention of the board to install a blower on the furnaces in the auditorium to aid in heating that building.
The services at the Christian church are splendid. Those who are not attending are missing a wonderful spiritual treat. Monday evening two solos were greatly enjoyed. Those taking part were Mrs. Buchanan and Harry Browning with his splendid bass voice. Friday the male quartet of Great Falls plan on singing.
The suit of W. C. Blomquist, receiver of the State Bank was completed the first of the week and was taken under advisement by Judge Pray. A decision is not expected before thirty days because of the mass of evidence which the judge must review. A bonding company was used to recover the bond on L. B. Lockhart for $10,000.
About the time that this paper comes off the press the baseball series will be decided whether to the joy or sorrow of the Belt fans depends upon whether they were betting on the right side or not. When a telephone call was sent to one of them the other day the operator informed the one calling that it was doubtful whether she could get the party as he was out in the street waving his arms.

JEM AND JAM SAYS

Oh Yes! You Can Do It

There are thousands who'll tell you it can't be done,
There are thousands who prophesy failure;
There are thousands to point out to you one by one
The dangers that wait to assail you,
But just buckle in with a bit of grin,
Then take off your coat and go to it;
Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing
That can't be done, and you'll do it.
We add a line to say the thing you want to tackle is
WALK TO DAHL'S AND SAVE DOLLARS!
