Resolutions

WHEREAS, Olive Branch Lodge, Rebekah Degree in meeting assembled appointed a committee to draw resolutions expressing the sorrow and sympathy the Lodge feels toward Sister Ethel Hill and family in the loss of her sister, we, your committee respectfully submit the following.

RESOLVED, That whereas the Supreme Ruler in His Divine Wisdom has removed from the family of Sister Ethel Hill, a loving and considerate sister and that in her death our sister has suffered a great sorrow and loss, therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Lodge extends to Sister Ethel Hill and her family its most sincere sympathy and condolence in this their great hour of grief realizing, however, the futility of words in expressing the real sorrow of the lodge. And be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the lodge, a copy sent to the family of Sister Hill and that they be published in the Belt Valley Times.

Respectfully submitted,
Lillie Coleman,
Eliza Dunstan,
Laura Heron,
Committee.

Referring to Drifting Down the Path of the Least Resistance

Sunny Jim Says

Referring to drifting along the path of least resistance I'll admit that it's easier for all of us to stay in a rut than to climb out of it, but where does it lead us to?

If the rut leads to Dahls where your dollars will find the least resistance in dislodging the merchandise, you want to stay in the rut.
