

THE POLICY OF THE

J.M. SAWYER COMPANY

is to sell merchandise to the consumer on a cash basis, thereby saving the purchaser from 10 to 25 percent and at the same time giving them merchandise that stands the test of quality. This is accomplished by-

1. Our buying power.
2. By cutting out every un-necessary running expense.
3. Selling for cash only.
4. The determination to price things to the public based on a legitimate profit and to keep them there.

Mrs. George E. Mushbach, arrived Friday of last week to spend a few days visiting Mrs. J. E. Muchbach, and Mrs. Anna Walter Alderson, both of this city.

Mr. Albert Budas, former citizen of Red Lodge, but who is now president of the Roberts State Bank, was in town Sunday and Monday. Mrs. Budas and son Albert are residing among the fruit, and flowers of California until the school term is ended.

Frank Cobetto, returned Wednesday from Roberts where he entertained the folks of that hamlet with his accordion at a public dance. Frank is a promising young musician, and possess an ability that has been recognized.

Mrs. F. H. Alden departed for Omaha, Nbraska, where she will remain for a period of six weeks or longer. It is expected she will be accompanied upon her return home, by her son Frank, who will have ceased a year's college activities at Misoula by that time.

Paul and Joseph Zemanek two enterprising brothers, who for several years have been engaged in operating their ranch beyond the two mile bridge, are leaving within the next week for Seattle where they shall seek employment in the ship building industry.

The intimate friends, and speaking acquaintances were delighted to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murphy to Red Lodge for their few days visit here. Mr. Murphy was for many years master mechanic at the mine-but has been a resident of Roslyn, Washington since being transferred, some months past.

Kenneth Clemenson has again returned to his parents farm in Minnesota, after a period sojourn in the town that has honored his school-boy days. He has been making his home with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Albertson since November last, and was an employee of the Northwestern Improvement company during that time. He is still the proud owner of the Shetland Pony that was awarded to him in a contest given by the old Rex theatre many years ago.

VISITS HOME OF FIRE CHIEF

Mrs. D. E. Nelson of Billings, and small son arrived here Wednesday on the noon train, and were escorted immediately to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Graag. Mrs. Nelson will be favorably recalled to the memory of many residents, as Miss Ella Flynn, and a sister of Mrs. Ernie Gragg, and Mrs. Pat. Gibbons.

OLD MAN POTT VISITS HIS NATIVE HAUNTS

During his brief stay in Red Lodge Sunday between trains, Warden M. W. Potter was busy extending the glad hand to his host of warm friends. Matters of official business summoned the warden to his old home town, and altho Der Lodge was alright, Mr. Potter claimed "there was no lodge like Red Lodge."

DITCH COMPANIES HOLD MEET

On Wednesday afternoon, in the rear of the United States National Bank, the Rocky Fork, and Clear Creek ditch companies held a regular meeting for the purpose of having assessment on stock holders levied. The members present were: Metcalf Robinson, Otto Richter; Henry Rosetta, and J. E. Mushbach. The decision in regard to assessment, was the regular amount hitherto levied.

MINERS HAVE HOLIDAY

Tuesday each miner observed the "eight hour day law." Pay day having been the day previous it made it possible for many of the laborers, to indulge in some harmless recreation, or to celebrate in general.

A craving for excitement seemed to prevail, among the men, for nothing less than three fights occurred, and a countless number of April Fool Prank's were enacted, to fittingly observe All Fool's Day. Notwithstanding these trivial truths, the day ended peaceably. In the evening young, and old, all enjoyed a real dance at Workers Hall.

VOTERS SELECT ON MONDAY

Qualified electors of the city of Red Lodge will vote Monday on the selection of a mayor, city treasurer, police judge and one alderman from each of the city's three wards.

The campaign in the interest of the various candidates has been carried on very quietly, very little interest being shown over the outcome.

John T. Flarety and G. A. Jeffery are candidates for mayoralty honors. City treasurer H. S. Croonquist is opposed for re-election by Miles Chamberlin, Mrs. Frances Landers and O. J. Simmons. Police Judge J. A. Newman is a candidate for another term and is opposed by Charles Wilson and E. B. Provinse.

Dan Little and W. J. Beans are opposing candidates for alderman in the first ward; F. A. Sell and Wm. Youngholter in the second ward and W. W. Nelsen and C. P. Keyes in the third ward.

COMING DR. KROMER
 of Helena, who is recognized throughout Montana for superior ability as an eyesight specialist, will be at the Pollard Hotel, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, April 21, 22 and 23. 3-3tc

A LITTLE BIT OF EVERYTHING

The modern society bud hopes she will never bloom into a wall flower.

Epigraph On a Dentist
 "View this grave with gravity, He is filling his last cavity."

To laugh is to grow fat.
 So the young ladies, in order to keep up with the prevailing style must all wear sour faces.

The human race is never satisfied. No doubt when the summer season is here, and there are lawns to be mowed, we will long for the winter, so that we may again enjoy the pastime of shoveling snow.

In a Georgia paper sometime ago it was stated that two negroes, and a white person were lynched by a mob. Probably the white man was thrown in on the side, to add color to the dark deed.
