STAMPS

It is reported by stamp papers that six new stamps are to be issued: Francis Scott Key, Gold Star Mothers, Will Rogers, 150th Anniversary of the Mississippi Territory, a Wisconsin Centennial Commemorative, Four Chaplains.

The names of the Chaplains are: John P. Washington, Alexander D. Goodge, George L. Fox, and Charles V. Poling. These men went down on the Dorchester, Feb. 13, according to history.

A stamp collector recently suggested putting our National Motto on a stamp or all stamps. Another collector wants, in God We Trust, written on all stamps. Mottoes are found on many stamps of today. Not many United States stamps have them but I want to suggest that a stamp be issued having the motto: Equal Rights for All, Special Privileges to None. — ALLEN GOOD-GAME. 1c

EPISCOPAL BISHOP TO TELL NEEDS OF FOREIGN COUNTRIES

Sunday, February 29, the presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church will radio an address telling the needs of war-torn Europe and Asia, and urging Episcopal members everywhere to accept their duty and privilege in helping the suffering millions.

The members of St. Luke's Church, Libby, will meet at 11:00 a. m. and at 11:32 1/2 a. m. the Bishop will come on the air in New York City. In case radio reception is not good Sunday, a transcription will be presented to the Libby audience. Opportunity will be given both for immediate gifts and short time pledges.

OFFICERS WORKING ON ORIGIN OF FIRES

There is little that can be printed regarding the incendiary fires last week, except that officers are working on the case and have succeeded in discovering an involved party. There has been no decisive legal action taken as yet but when the matter develops further a complete account will be published in this newspaper.
