Honor Mrs. Osborn

Mrs. Floyd Osborn received a letter from the Screen Writers Association asking her to join their organization. Since this invitation is extended after careful culling of the writers, this was a great honor to the young writer.

Mrs. Osborn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Dailey and a member of the Cabinet Grange, Troy.

Boxers Again Show Mettle

Last Friday evening, March 26, the Troy Boxing team was host to boxers from Bonners Ferry and Libby. The show consisted of fourteen bouts, the results of which follow. Bonners Ferry did not have enough different weight groups to have a complete card with them so Oliver Decker brought five boys down from Libby to compete with the other Troy boys. Even though Libby does not have a regular boxing team the boys from there did very well. It is hoped they will have a team organized to compete with the Troy boys in the near future. The bouts which were scheduled with Noxon for this coming Saturday have been postponed until April 10 due to the condition of the roads. Don't forget to turn out for another good card Saturday, April 10th when Noxon will bring over a full team. Results of the bouts are as follows:

65 lbs. Wayne Cooley defeated Allen LeFebvre; 72 lbs. Bill Molyneux defeated Don McDonald; 80 lbs. Ken French lost to Jim Solt; 80 lbs. Wayne Wallace (Draw) Darrell Hoagland; 70 lbs. Sam Chimenti (Draw) Roy Hodson; 80 lbs. Bob Fisher defeated Ralph McDonald; 112 lbs. Paul Nelson lost to Jerry McGraw; 135 lbs. Neil Lindsey lost to Lee Mahler; 140 lbs. Rudy Larson lost to Neil Worsham.

Bouts with Libby:

Dr. Seifert Lectures

Dr. Seifert of Libby addressed a fair sized crowd at the High school auditorium on Monday evening. Cancer Detection and Control was his subject. Pictures were shown and explained. At the close of the lecture Doctor Seifert answered questions from the audience.

School News

The condition of the roads as a result of the spring "break-up" is making it difficult for school buses to operate. The Bull Lake bus has been covering only part of its route, and a horse drawn vehicle is being used for part of the Lake Creek route.

The Junior class play, "The Groom Said No," will be presented in the high school auditorium Friday, April 9.

The Senior class started practice this week on a three-act farce entitled "Too Many Relatives." All members of the class have parts in the play. It will be staged the last of April or early in May.

Baseball practice will get under way next week, weather permitting.

Three trustees are to be elected at the annual election Saturday, April 3. Balloting will be in the home economics room of the school building, from 1:30 till 7:30 p. m. Candidates for trustees are: Walter Zimmerman, Glen Maddux, and Warren Wallace to succeed themselves for the 3-year, 2-year, and 1-year terms. Also running are Roger Kensler for the 1-year term, and Ray Lindsey for the 3-year term.

Going Out Like a Lamb?

On March 29 Troy and vicinity experienced the first electric storm of the season. The skies gradually grew darker and darker until lights were necessary in the home. Then the ominous rumble of thunder startled many. The storm while not intense lasted about a half hour. Rain and in some parts of the community hail fell. After a heavy shower of rain it cleared. During the night about an inch of snow fell on the soft ground. Snow continues to wrap the hills in a new white mantle, and to the lowlanders the wind sweeping down from the peaks brings anything but mild weather.

Even the most pessimistic of us feel encouraged when we see "the flowers beginning their growing" and see the buttercups in bloom.

Woman's Society

The Woman's Society of the Troy Methodist Church held a successful baked goods and apron sale on Saturday. A timely project is theirs—the refinishing of the interior of the kindergarten rooms in the Sunday School room. This work has been going on for some time and has reached the point where progress can readily be noted.

Girl Scouting

Girl Scouting in Troy received an added impetus when the leaders Mrs. Hansen and Mrs. Joy returned from Great Falls where they attended a school for leaders. A troop committee meeting was held at the Hansen home on Thursday evening and many matters were discussed. The new organization for 1948 has as chairman Mrs. Leon Laffoon. Other members are Mrs. Hodges and Mrs. McDougall, Mr. Baeth and Mr. Thomas. Plans for summer camp for the troop were discussed.

Saturday was Daffodil Day for the girls of the troop when they sold a thousand of the flowers to adorn the town homes on Esater.

Worship

None of the Troy Churches held a sunrise service, each at its own regular time held the Easter service.

Departing from the established custom of many years standing the Methodist Sunday School did not hold a special Easter program, but parents and friends were invited to the classes on Easter.

The Adventist church continues its series of lectures Sunday and Monday evenings.

Troy Cleaners

As soon as conditions permit Troy Cleaners will take over the building owned by Mrs. Butts and Mrs. Bowers and establish a dry cleaning unit there. While only minor jobs will be done here, the other will be sent out and returned from there.

VA REQUESTS VET COOPERATION

Veterans Administration regional offices in Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana have again appealed to veteran - students, job trainees and training establishments to notify the VA promptly whenever a veteran discontinues, interrupts or completes a training program under the G.I. Bill.

Failure of many veterans and institutions to comply with this request may result in overpayments of subsistence allowances made by the VA. All such payments in excess of entitled amounts must be repaid. If a veteran fails to make arrangements for repayment he may face possible loss of future educational entitlement under the G.I. Bill.

The VA urged veteran-students and institutions to notify immediately the VA regional office in their state whenever a decision is made to interrupt or discontinue training. Advance notice to the VA is preferable, but in any event, such notice should be made as soon as possible after termination of training.

VETS ADVISED TO NAME INSURANCE BENEFICIARIES

Pacific Northwest veterans with G. I. Insurance now in force are urged by the Veterans Administration to make certain desired names of beneficiaries are on record with the VA.

Because many deceased veterans have neglected to do this since release from the service, numerous widows have "been left in the lurch" when they attempted to collect insurance payments actually intended for them, the VA explained.

Legal blanks for naming or changing beneficiaries to a veteran United States Government Life Insurance or National Service Life Insurance are available in all VA offices or may be obtained by writing the nearest VA office. Veterans are advised to check their insurance certificates or other correspondence from the VA when filling out the forms in order to avoid error.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK

Q. I dropped my G. I. insurance when I was discharged from the navy. Is it possible for me to get it back?

A. Yes. Until July 31, 1948, veterans may reinstate lapsed G. I. term insurance by filling out a simple, three-question form available at any VA office, and paying two monthly premiums—one for the month of lapse and one for the current month. Usually, no physical examination will be required to re-determine insurability.

EMERGENCY RADIO COMMUNICATIONS NETWORK BEING FORMED

Billings, — (UP) — The Montana Civil Air Patrol is forming an emergency radio communications network, which will be available "wherever and whenever needed," according to Lt. Col. Richard A. Kullberg of the CAP.

The emergency network will operate on both army air force and amateur frequencies, using both radio telephone and coe, Kullberg said.

The organization is making a special effort to enlist amateurs in the CAP. Kullberg said that ham stations can be licensed to operate on AAF frequencies and still maintain their amateur status and in no way interfere with the carrying on of their ham radio hobby.

The communications network, which has already been extended into 20 Montana towns and cities, is under direction of 1st Lt. Bill C. Roper, operator of amateur Station W7DPK at Cut Bank.
