Mill Site Chosen

For several months the Troy Development Association has been working toward a goal—namely a saw mill for Troy. It is hoped that with the vast timber resources easily accessible that such a plant would stabilize the economy of the town. When the Forest Service timber sale on Grouse Mountain was awarded last week to the Burns Brothers of Crosby, Min., it is apparent that an important step toward such a plant has been reached.

With this timber available the Burns Bros. have gone ahead with their plans for establishing a mill here. The site close to the Kootenai River is already chosen and will be on the E. J. Weidner property which was formerly owned by Ed Scott. This will place the mill north of and contiguous with the pole treating plant of E. E. Drury and sons. The saw mill is entirely independent of the pole plant, we are informed.

James Burns, with timber cruiser Mr. Huff and millwright Mr. Schoonmaker, has spent the past week in Troy, during which time he has been to Spokane and other points making arrangements for machinery, some of which is already on location.

Sunday School Class Entertains

Jack Arensmeyer was host to his Sunday School class on Sunday following Sunday School. Plans had been made for a picnic lunch but the weather was cold so a family dinner was served in the home. The trip proved very interesting. Jack's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Arensmeyer are raising guinea pigs, hamsters, and registered Siamese cats, besides the regular stock found on a ranch. Also Mrs. Arensmeyer has made a hobby of growing cacti. The class accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. C. McDougall returned in late afternoon.

Troy Boxers Win Last Two Bouts

On Saturday, April 10th the Troy Boxing team was host to the team from Libby. The boys showed very little hospitality however trimming the Libby boys 7 to 3; with three matches being draws. This was the best card of the season with every bout being a crowd pleaser. The boys were all swinging from bell to bell.

Tuesday, April 20th the Naxon team came to Troy to take a pasting from the local boys. Troy won six of the bouts with Naxon getting one win and three bouts ending in draws. The crowd was also treated to four exhibition bouts by the Troy boys before the regular card started. These four bouts all ended in draws. This was the last bout of the season, and any fan who missed any of the home card missed some of the best entertainment of the year in the way of sports. Les Coffman and Don Moore should be given a rousing vote of thanks for the splendid work they did with the boys this year.

A complete list of the results of the bouts of both matches will be published next week.

Contributors to the program were divided into three groups: children, teen-age, and adults. Two prizes for the best contributions were given each group, one for the best musical and the other for the best in non-musical presentations. Each and everyone enthusiastically cast their votes.

In the children's group, Hope McMullen won the first musical prize for a vocal solo, "Sweet and Low," accompanied by Mrs. Fleming. The other prize in the children's group went to the Junior World Wide Guild girls for a stunt.

Competition for the musical prize was keen in the teen-age group. A trumpet solo played by Orvil Richards, "The Old Refrain," and accompanied by Mrs. Hooper, won first place. The other prize was won by a wide margin by the Boy Scouts for a dialogue by Tom Skelly and Robert Curtis.

The most appreciated numbers in the adult group were in music, a guitar duet played by Mr. Humphrey and Al Crosley, and next the violin solo by Miss Virginia Reed. A skit given by Mrs. Fred Johnson received the most votes.

A number of neatly decorated lunch boxes were sold to the highest bidder by Ray Frost. The proceeds are to be used to repair the old Methodist building which is to be used as a parish home. It is hoped that it will be a convenient place for a Dramatic Club and perhaps a home town orchestra.

The ladies who sponsored this program are gratified by the results and are beginning to make plans for a better and a more inclusive program in the fall. The momentary returns are appreciated but the greatest value of such a community program is seen in the encouragement it gives in developing local talent and a spirit in neighborliness.

HAVE YOU EVER THOUGHT

... That the wiring in Your home may not be properly protected, and are You sure that Your Children or Your Guests may not come in contact with a live part of a socket or an outlet?

... Do You Know that the "Live" Wire of a lighting circuit has 240 Volts, and not 110, 115, or 120 Volts and is sufficient to cause serious injury?

... Your Main Switch or Load center should be properly Grounded and the Neutral Wire should always be identified on all circuits in the wiring system and should be connected to the proper terminals on all outlets or appliances.

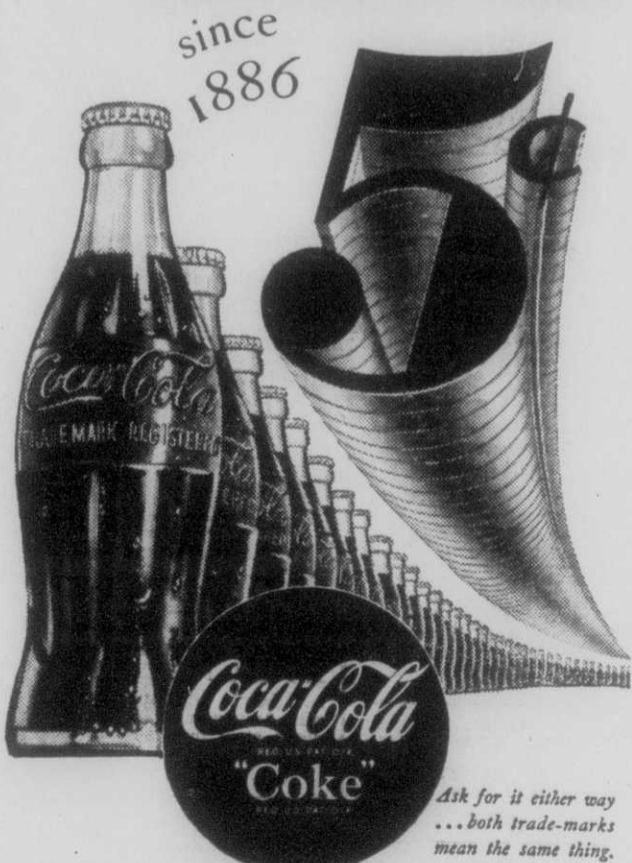

... If You are not sure of these requirements why not have an Electrical Contractor or a Wireman inspect Your wiring for these faults and have him replace all loose and worn outlets, as loose connections are not any help to Your Radio Programs.
