an editorial

from the FRATERNALIST, official Publication of Helena Lodge No. 639, Loyal Order of Moose, Helena, Montana.

Frank Murray has announced his candidacy for the Office of Secretary of State on the Democratic ticket. Frank is a native of Montana, who knows from personal experience what a wonderful work the Loyal Order of Moose is doing. He was orphaned at an early age, and had to work his way up the hard way. That he has the right kind of stuff is attested by his work and his record. He was a school trustee and deputy Clerk and Recorder in Butte. He is a successful business man. His incumbency as Clerk of the Supreme Court has been one of efficiency and courtesy to the public.

While the Fraternalist does not take part in party politics, and the Order is completely non-political, when a deserving Brother needs a boost, we are more than glad to be among the first to offer help, and we are for Frank Murray in a big way, and unhesitatingly recommend him to the more than 8,000 Moose members of Montana Lodges.

Know MONTANA
Names . . . Places

DEER LODGE COUNTY —By George Adams, Anaconda Standard.
Deer Lodge county received its name from the hot springs formation near Warm Springs by the Indians. The formation from which hot water bubbled, keeping vegetables green, attracted white-tailed deer. Indians called it "the lodge of the white-tailed deer;" French "la lodge du chevreuil," and early Montanans "Deer Lodge."

Deer Lodge was one of the nine original counties organized in 1865. The county originally embraced present Silver Bow, Granite and Powell counties. In the original county was the first gold discovery in Montana by a French halfbreed in 1852. In 1896 the county seat was moved from Deer Lodge to Anaconda.

DAWSON COUNTY
—By Cy Davis, Dawson County Review.
Dawson county was staked out as a part of Idaho Territory on January 16, 1864. Subsequently attached to Big Horn, Choteau and Custer counties, it was re-organized as a separate county in 1882, with Glendive as county seat. The county received its name from Andrew Dawson, American Fur Co. clerk, factor and owner of Fort Benton trading post.

First industries were beaver trapping, fur trading and buffalo hide-hunting. Today the area produces some of Montana's best dry-land wheat and the 24,000 acres of the recently completed Buffalo Rapids irrigation project grows thousands of tons of sugar beets and alfalfa.

A wealth of lignite coal underlays the region, and the first gas well in the state was "brought in" at the mouth of Cedar Creek in 1912 which led to the exploration and development of Glendive-Baker field.
