The Border Trail Riders

There were six riders and twenty-two other members of the Saddle Club at Morrison's "Hide Out" on Glen Lake September 12 for a pot-luck dinner. Those who rode horse-back followed the irrigation ditch trail and commented on the pleasantness of the trip.

The president opened the business meeting with an expression of profound regret at the unfortunate accident which befell Mr. Aragone. He asked for a moment of silent prayer for the recovery of our friend. A unanimous acceptance was given to the motion that flowers be sent to him.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Nyberg, and Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Peck were cordially welcomed to membership in the club, as was Mrs. Ernest Grambo.

The club presented Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stevenson with a wedding gift.

It was decided that the next ride be on September 19 to the House O'Riley on Glen Lake.

Club Has Pot-Luck Dinner

Nineteen members were present on September 19th for a pot-luck dinner at the House O'Riley on Glen Lake. The table was profuse with pastry, there being five cakes and a batch of do-nuts. The Saddle Club eats well.

Dr. and Mrs. Sundelius and their three children were guests of the club for the meal.

The club signed and sent a greeting to Mr. and Mrs. 'Slim' Lestrud, in honor of his birthday and their anniversary.

A wedding present was given to Mr. and Mrs. Omer Hudson and the new Mrs. Hudson was welcomed into the club.

Mrs. Rudy Peck invited the club to ride to the Peck home on Glen Lake on the following Sunday and the invitation was accepted, which set the date for the next ride at Sept. 26. The dinner is to be pot-luck.

Davis Rites

James Robert Davis, son of George Davis and the late Gladys Johnston Davis, was born April 15, 1921 at Richwood, W. Va. He departed this life August 26, 1948 at the age of 27 years, 4 months, and 12 days. Bob came to Eureka in 1937 and was married to Shirley Clark, April 16, 1942. To this union was born one child, Nancy Carol Davis, age 5 years.

Bob was inducted into the army July 14, 1942 and received his training at Fort Lewis, Wash. He served in the European Theatre of operations and the South Pacific. He received his discharge from the army at Fort Lewis, March 15, 1946.

He leaves to mourn his death, his wife and daughter; father, grandmother, in West Virginia, one brother in Eureka, George Dewey Davis Jr., and a host of relatives and friends.

Death was caused by a car accident. Services were in the Baptist Church and burial in the Eureka cemetery.

Grange News

The Tobacco Valley Grange met in regular session Tuesday, Sept. 14, with Master Anderson presiding. The Home Ec. Chairman thanked all who helped at the Hamburger Stand and also at the Pomona meeting. She announced the results of their Pomona contests. The winners on the apple pie contest were Nell West, 1st; 2nd place Petronella Klinke; and 3rd, Sister Shields from Cabinet Grange. Shellcraft, 1st, Dolly Bowen from Kootenai Valley Grange and 2nd Nell West. Crocheting, 1st, Petronella Klinke; 2nd, Sister Shields from Cabinet Grange and 3rd Sister Grambauer from Kootenai Valley Grange. The dead line on the National Contests will be October 15th, as they have to be judged and then sent to the National Grange. It was decided to work on the Hamburger stand Saturday and try to get it finished.

A communication was read from the planning board, there would be a meeting September 27th. Place and time to be made known later to discuss the co-operative agreement.

It was voted to hold the Booster Night program Tuesday, Sept. 28. This will be an open meeting and everyone in interested in the Grange and Grange work is welcome to attend. Members are to bring pot-luck lunch.

A Safety program was presented by the Lecturer. Song "My Darling Nellie Gray." Three poems on Safety. Nora Pomeroy, Trina Harvey and Pheobe Green. Article, "Accidents kill 100,000 Americans during every year," was read by Maye Roose. A joke was read by Orval West, and at the close of the program the Grange sang the song, "Church in the Wild Wood."

Don't forget Booster Night, we want a good crowd!

Card of Thanks

To our many friends and neighbors for the beautiful flowers, cards and acts of sympathy, especially to Vic Peltier, the high school boys and Frank Sabin for their services in our hour of sorrow in the passing of our loved one.

Frances Filiatreau
Mr. and Mrs. George McCully
Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McCully
Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Douglas
Mr. and Mrs. Yester Arnold
Mr. and Mrs. Romie Filiatreau and grandchildren.

James Peter Filiatreau

Jerome Peter Filiatreau was born at Phlox, Wis., February 2, 1886 and passed away from a heart attack September 7, 1948.

He came to Eureka in 1910 and was married to Frances Purdy, Sept. 1, 1913. To this union were born six children. Mrs. June McCully, Mrs. Joyce McCully, Jerome Filiatreau all of Eureka; Mrs. Bertie Arnold of Ventura, Calif.; Edith Douglas of Seward, Alaska; and Robert Lynn who died in infancy.

Mr. Filiatreau was a farmer for many years, was also one of the commissioners of the Glen Lake Irrigation District and only five years ago due to ill health sold the ranch, and moved to town.

He made a trip over the Alaskan Highway with the Douglas family last year and enjoyed the new sights and the Salmon fishing a lot.

He also spent much of his time with his dog, fishing, hunting and huckleberrying in summer.

At the time of his passing he was out fishing and looking over Christmas tree timber in the woods he loved so much.

Left to mourn his passing is his wife, his five children and ten grandchildren and his many friends.

Baptist Church News

The old Methodist church building is coming back into usefulness, this building for its social activities. The Baptist Church has acquired and especially in the interest of the young people of the community.

A re-dedication of this building will be held Tuesday, September 28th at 8 p. m. The Rev. C. G. Hansen of New York City, director of Juvenile Protection Program of the Northern Baptist Churches, will be the principal speaker. Rev. M. E. Van de Mark, the Superintendent of the Methodist Churches in this area will also take part in the service. Previous to the dedication service a banquet will be given in the Baptist church at 6:30. Tickets are on sale at Mrs. Scott's Store.

Friendly Neighbors Club

The Friendly Neighbors Club met at the home of Cathleen Starling on September 1 with a good attendance.

The President, Mabel Peltier, appointed committees for the new year. As a Committee Project the club decided to have each member bring a pair of mittens to be given to our local school for distribution where needed.

Our project leader Cleo Byers gave a very interesting lesson on window treatment. Another lesson on the same subject will be given at the October meeting.

Mrs. Hedge, Mrs. Teigen, Mrs. Sloan, and Mrs. Hudson were welcome visitors of the Club.

The Club members voted on a Swap Sack Lunch for our next meeting. Each member to bring a sack or box lunch, to be exchanged.

The Fair Booth Committee made a report.

Cards will be mailed out regarding the next meeting place.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Starling—Reporter.
