TEKOA WINS TOURNAY

(Continued from Page One) B. Nelson went the route for the winners, holding the Idaho team to 2 hits while a parade of pitchers for Bonners Ferry gave up 15 safeties. Nelson and Currier; R. Guthrie, Reynor and Neumayer. Libby won the right to play Tekoa in the semi-finals by defeating the favored Simchuk Brothers of Spokane 8 to 7 in the 2nd game Saturday. Libby scored the winning run in the top half of the tenth inning when Syskowski was hit by a pitched ball and was forced at second by Smith who went from 1st to 3rd on a single by Jim Roberts. Presley then drilled another single thru the infield to score Smith.

The winning pitcher was Syskowski who struck out 9 and gave up 15 hits, and the loser was Anderson, the third Simchuk pitcher.

manances of the tournament were witnessed Sunday night by a capacity crowd in the other semi-final clash between Bonner and the Levitch Jewellers.

Big Gene Conley, 6 ft. 7 in., 17-year-old Levitch pitcher bested 18 year old Curtis Barclay of Bonner, as he shut the Lumberjacks out with three scratch singles, all by John Eheart. Barclay, facing the heavy hitting Jeweler club, gave up 8 hits to account for the 4 runs scored by the Spokane team. Strikeouts were plentiful during the evening as Conley was credited with 14 and Barclay with 11.

The Jewellers win enabled them to move into the finals with the Tekoa Smokers.

Batteries:—Conley and Williams; Barclay and Sowre.
