STATE CHAPTER DONATES TO SISTER KENNY FOUNDATION

A check for $10,330.65 from the Sister Kenny Foundation has been deposited by the newly-organized Montana state chapter of the foundation, W. W. Gail, chairman announced.

The money, Gail said, represents the state's half of the net receipts from the Montana Kenny drive last fall after 12 per cent was deducted for expenses of the national campaign. Montanans contributed $23,478 to the drive.

Scholarships for training nurses in the Kenny method of polio treatment will be provided from the fund, the state chairman reported. Any registered or graduate nurse under 40 is eligible and may apply for a scholarship, he said.

Each scholarship, furnished jointly by the national foundation and the state chapter, provides for two years training at the Kenny Institute in Minneapolis with all expenses paid, including tuition, room and board. Each scholarship amounts to $3,900.

Applications may be made with the state chairman, he said. The next regular course at the Kenny Institute will begin in January. "Montana is the only state in the Union which raised its per capita quota of the campaign last year," Gail pointed out. "The campaign did not raise the full amount sought for the purpose of enlarging the Kenny institute and for the training of nurses," he added.

"It is hoped that this goal will be reached in this year's campaign to run from November 18 to December 7."

The current epidemic in Minnesota, Gail said, "has emphasized the urgent need for vastly enlarged facilities for giving Kenny treatments."

Polio patients are being "packed a dozen to a room" at the institute with an overflow being sent to the general hospitals, the state chairman asserted.

Besides Gail officers of the state chapter are Dr. Wayne Gordon, vice chairman; H. J. Coleman, treasurer; Norman Ahrens, assistant treasurer, and Mrs. M. R. Colberg, secretary.

National Chairman for the coming campaign will be Kate Smith; Bing Crosby will be executive committee chairman and Rosalind Russell, who portrays Sister Kenny in a motion picture to be released at the opening of the campaign, will be chairman of the women's committee.

Members of the Montana State committee are Mrs. Arnold Amundson, Glendive; Miss Helen Dahl, Plentywood; Tom J. Davis, Butte; Mrs. Orville DeShaw, Sidney; Mrs. Floyd Ellis, Ekalaka; Mrs. John Fiske, Whitehall; Mrs. George Fraser, Lewistown; Mrs. Lewis A. Harmon, Roundup; Mrs. Arthur Jones, Great Falls. Mrs. L. R. Lanagan, Big Timber; Ben M. Larson, Circle; Mrs. S. O. Moen, Culbertson; H. T. Moore, Miles City; Mrs. Joe Olenik, Hardin; R. B. Packard, Laurel; Miss Ethel Schmidt, Hysham; J. L.
