LOCAL BOYS ARE MAKING A SCORE

Anaconda Hockeyites Showing Up Well at Big Tourney at Rossland, B. C.

Anaconda, Feb. 8.—The hockey team which left Anaconda to represent this city at the international games at Rossland, B. C., is covering itself with glory and is well in line to take some of the championships from the northern country, according to telegraphic dispatches received here during the afternoon. If they do Anaconda will give them a great welcome in keeping with their deserts.

Last night the Anaconda boys defeated the team from Trail, B. C., by the score of 7 to 0. This indicates that the local team stands very high in comparison with the other teams. This afternoon Anaconda is meeting the team from Spokane and is expected to give a good account for the home city. Tonight the local boys will hitch up with the team from Rossland, B. C.

STRIKE NEAR OVER BOARD IS MEETING

T. Robbins of Butte and Arbitration Board Arranging a Settlement.

Anaconda, Feb. 8.—Indications late this afternoon are that the strike situation which arose from a difference between local unions as to jurisdiction, and which had threatened operations at the Washoe smelters as well as operations at the Butte mines and the Great Falls smelters, would be settled amicably. A special committee representing the national organization of the electrical workers and the local unions is meeting with full powers to effect a settlement.

It was learned early today that Tom Robbins of Butte, the business agent for the Electrical Workers in Silver Bow county, had been nominated by the international body to act for them. Mr. Robbins secured a committee from the Electrical Workers, consisting of George Hackett, "Bonney" Johnson and C. A. Droulette. This committee is meeting late this afternoon with Mr. Robbins and it is understood that the meeting of the Electrical Workers will ratify the finding of the arbitration board. It is expected here that the difficulties between the unions over the question of jurisdiction will be settled tonight and that the strike and walkout will be a thing of the past.

The smelters were running as usual today and in fact smoother than yesterday.

The Final Windup Sale

Of the Economy Store means at this time a clean sweep of everything in the store—Nothing saved—Nothing reserved. Stock and Fixtures must be disposed of within fourteen days.

Sale Starts, Friday, February 9

I have made every effort to dispose of the stock in bulk to a dealer but as the sacrifice would be too great I have decided to sell out direct to the public of Anaconda and vicinity and give them the benefit of the extremely low prices by selling at cost and even less and at the same time realize for myself more than the stock speculator would be willing to pay me. Don't miss this sale if you value your dollar.

TOLD JUROR NOT TO TALK TO HIM

Galen Testifies He Warned Warner to Beware of Improprieties.

Helena, Feb. 8.—Albert J. Galen, testifying in his own behalf today in the federal court in contempt proceedings based on a charge of talking to a juror in the Northwestern Trust case during the trial here last month, declared that he had not only avoided conversing with Juror W. B. Warner when the latter approached him in the Placer hotel during the trial, but had warned Warner not to converse with either himself or any of the defendants in the case. Galen declared that his warning to Warner had so impressed the latter that when he met the juror on the street the next day the latter complained that he could hardly sleep that night because of the calling down he got from the attorney, and that he should have known better.

Mr. Galen's testimony consumed a greater part of the morning session of court. He told of Warner approaching him in the Placer hotel during the trial, and that he had suggested Representative Charles Seales of Mineral county. The matter, he said, rested there, and then on the following day Warner referred to it when he met him by saying he could not sleep because of the calling down he had received.

Mr. Galen denied that he had ever whispered to Warner during the trial. Joe Kirschwing testified yesterday he had observed Warner and Galen whispering to each other and that they had conversed in the hall of the federal building during a recess.

W. C. Rae, one of the trustee case defendants, told of walking by the federal building two or three times with Mr. Kelly and Ed Lamb, attorneys for the defense, on the night the jury was out to determine whether or not the jurors were still deliberating or had retired.

It is believed that the taking of testimony in the contempt proceedings will be completed this afternoon.

MAKE HEADWAY IN THE UPPER HOUSE

A Committee Brings in Healy Reports on Healy Measure.

bill to repeal the law permitting the use of voting machines.

Bills advanced in the senate on favorable committee reports were: S. B. 134, providing for the reservation of all mineral rights to the state; S. B. 116, relating to the application for farm loans; S. B. 66, to provide expenses for the land office; S. B. 9, amending the state loan law; S. B. 106, for a grain laboratory at Bozeman; S. B. 108, amending the law in respect to the creation of irrigation districts; S. B. 130, amending the law relating to dams and reservoirs; S. B. 67, making the state engineer state geologist; S. B. 51, regulating the sale and manufacture of explosives; S. B. 52, regulating the casing of oil and gas wells; H. B. 72, prohibiting the driving of spikes in saw logs; H. B. 87, to provide for an additional judge for the Tenth judicial district.

New Bills.

The following bills were introduced: S. B. 142, by the fish and game committee—A substitute for S. B. 125 and S. B. 100 on fish and game.

S. B. 143, by Roberts—Providing for normal and junior courses in high schools.

S. B. 144, by Roberts—Establishing teachers' training courses in accredited high schools.

S. B. 145, by Brower—Prohibiting the adulteration of white lead and paint.

S. B. 146, by Lane—Amending the political code.

S. B. 147, by Williams and Gnosé—Permitting counties to change their names.

S. B. 148, by Edwards—Requiring the attorney general to designate a deputy for certain duties.

S. B. 149, by Morris—Amending the law relating to the Northern Montana Agricultural school.

S. B. 150, by Kinney—Amending the law relating to unfair competition.

S. B. 151, by Willett—A constitutional amendment looking to the holding of bifurcated sessions of the legislature.

As to Mine Taxes.

No report was offered in either house or senate during the morning by the special committee to which had been left the inquiry into the taxes on mines and certain other classes of property. Senator Kane, chairman of the senate committee, told a friend today that the committee's report had not been completed, was under consideration and if it were ready late this afternoon if not, it probably will be presented in the senate tomorrow. About the same situation prevailed in the house. The committee of that body, it was understood, was not ready to report, although it might have its report completed late this afternoon or tomorrow. There is some difference of opinion among these committees, as to the recommendations to be made and it is certain that the reports, whatever their nature, will cause considerable debate.

William J. Cuts performed the duties of a member of the house today like a veteran. Late yesterday afternoon, as related in these dispatches, his appointment was confirmed by the house. He was seated only after a protest from Higgins, who felt that the governor was without authority in filling a vacancy in that way. For the most part the republicans voted against the seating of Mr. Cuts, while most of the democrats were for him. As far as the house is concerned the incident is considered closed.

Bill Held Up.

Lemmon asked that H. B. 139, relating to the operation of electrical construction, be taken from general orders and referred to a committee, so that employers would have an opportunity to examine it. Higgins, author of the bill, said the employees had already had time to look over the measure. Lemmon declared the employers hadn't, and in the end Higgins consented to hold up the bill for two days to permit its further examination by those interested.

Ellis of Beaverhead gave notice of a bill repealing the primary law to be submitted to a vote in 1918. Other bills in prospect are:

By Eaton—Changing the name of rural school inspectors to rural school supervisors.

By Helien—A teachers' retiring act.

By Eaton—A bill to take advantage of the federal law promoting vocational training.

By Dodd—Creating the office of county game commissioner and providing a county hunting license.

By Eaton—Abolishing the state dairy commission.

By McMillan—Creating the county of Rivers out of a part of Sheridan county.

By Davis—Fixing the rate for passenger transportation on railroad trains.

ROTARY CLUB CONSIDERS THE CITY MANAGER PLAN

The Proposed Bill Calls for a Council of Five or More Citizens.

Anaconda, Feb. 8.—A movement by several of the Montana cities for a city manager form of government has been proposed by citizens of the state and has been placed before the state legislature for consideration. The Lewistown Chamber of Commerce has endorsed the measure and it was considered yesterday by the Anaconda Rotary club.

The proposed bill calls for a council of five or more citizens, according to the population. Cities under 10,000 shall have five members in the council; cities of more than 10,000 and under 25,000, seven council members; more than 25,000, nine council members. The tenure of the council members shall be four years. The council shall have the same powers as ordinarily exercised by the present municipalities. Provision is made for the ordinary and necessary city officers. The council shall appoint a city manager, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the council. His duties will be akin to those of the mayor of a city. The council shall fix the salary of the city manager.

WILL REORGANIZE LOCAL BOY SCOUTS

Anaconda, Feb. 8.—The Boy Scouts of America will be reorganized in Anaconda at a meeting which will be announced on Sunday. Rev. R. A. Cameron, D. B. MacLean, J. B. Johnson and Mrs. Baxter are leading the movement to reorganize the Anaconda troop which disbanded a year ago. All boys of 12 years of age and over are eligible.

JOSEPH SEANJ FUNERAL.

Anaconda, Feb. 8.—The funeral of Joseph Seanj was held this afternoon. There was a profusion of flowers. The pallbearers were chosen from two organizations. Those representing the bartenders were John Pfeiffer, Thomas B. MacLean, J. B. Johnson, and those representing the St. Joseph society were Tony Marnech, John Lesh and George Kovich.

CASE IS CONTINUED.

The case of Anton Ambrose and Martin Evans, charged with breaking the saloon ordinance at Helena, was continued this morning until Feb. 15 by Justice of the Peace Joseph Mitchell, now holding his court in the Brand house.

LOGGING HOUSES MUST ALL HAVE REGISTERS

One Woman Fined—Other Arrests to Be Made Upon Violations.

Because of the report that former inmates of the redlight district are invading downtown rooming houses the police have inaugurated a campaign against all hotel or lodging house keepers who fail to keep a register of their guests. The keeping of a register is regarded as a precautionary measure. Mrs. A. E. Pelger of 112 East Broadway was the first to appear in police court. According to the information given by the police, Mrs. Pelger failed to keep a register. She was fined $10. There was no insinuation whatever that Mrs. Pelger is harboring women who formerly resided in the redlight district or that any disorderly person consorted in her house.

A warning was issued by Chief Murphy that a rigid inspection will be made of all rooming houses. Arrests will be made wherever the law is found to be violated.

RAID ON BROKERS MADE BY POLICE

One Man Arrested Who Bought Jewelry From a Girl 9 Years Old.

A vigorous campaign against pawnbrokers, which resulted in the arrest of one man yesterday who bought a watch from a seven-year-old boy, continued through today, and Dave Nyman was arrested at noon charged with buying jewelry from a nine-year-old girl. He will appear in police court tomorrow morning.

"Butte seems to be suffering from an epidemic of robberies by young boys and girls," said Detective Joe Williams, who arrested Nyman. "We are now making a cleanup of pawnbrokers and several other arrests may be made during the day."

STATE REGULATION OF SOCIAL EVIL PROPER

Municipal League Not in Favor of Changing the Present System.

Helena, Feb. 8.—Local regulation of the social evil through legislative enactment was not endorsed by the Montana Municipal league, the state organization of city officers, at its preliminary meeting here today. Those in attendance voted the opinion that the morning session that the question is one that should be handled by the state officers, as it is at present. They gave little heed to the measure proposed for enactment which would leave abolition of restricted districts to the discretion of local officers. But a brief session was held this morning and adjournment was taken to await arrival of more members of the league on afternoon trains.

The meeting, called by R. R. Purcell, mayor of Helena, to discuss legislative needs, will take up the question of urging bills giving cities the right to regulate auto traffic; extending the limit of indebtedness cities may incur so as to include purchase of power and heating plants; amending the compensation act so as to give cities the option of electing local classification and giving municipalities the power to regulate their own water service rates.
