

Economical-Tasty Good
 WOULDN'T SOME REAL OLD-TIME CODFISH, WITH THE GENUINE, PURE CODFISH FLAVOR, TASTE AND FINE?
 Possibly you have been getting a codfish substitute somewhere that has taken away your taste for codfish. It may have looked like the real, yet had been a substitute and lacked the one essential—FLAVOR. We pay a better price to get genuine Atlantic grand bank fish—hard and dry, but fresh and flaky. Have crumbed codfish, codfish balls, codfish hash—any way you wish, it's delightfully good, and so economical.

EMPEROR CHARLES THROWING OFF THE KAISER'S FETTERS

Germany's Best Friend, Count Tisza, is Relegated at Budapest.

London, May 23.—A Central News dispatch from Amsterdam says that the Hungarian cabinet, of which Count Tisza was premier, has resigned.

TO CONFER WITH KING.
 Amsterdam, May 23 (via London).—A Budapest telegram received here by way of Berlin says it is reported Premier Tisza submitted to the king proposals for franchise reform. The king reserved his decision upon which depends whether the cabinet will resign. Count Tisza, the dispatch says, is leaving for Vienna, where he will be received by the king.

Count Tisza, the iron man of Austria-Hungary, has been for many years the leader of the pro-German party in the dual monarchy and was the last survivor of the little group of statesmen who surrounded Emperor Francis Joseph when the European war began. On the accession of Emperor Charles the majority of the officials of the previous regime were either dismissed or resigned. There have been persistent reports from many sources that Emperor Charles keenly resented the demands of Berlin in Austrian-Hungarian affairs, and Count Tisza was the one great obstacle which prevented him from freeing his empire from the influence of Potsdam.

KAISER'S IMPERIAL EDIFICE IS CRACKING

Geneva, May 23 (via Paris).—Things are going badly in Germany and the imperial regime is threatened, according to Dr. Aristides Aguerre, recalled Cuban minister to Berlin, who arrived here on his way to France. Dr. Aguerre said:
 "I bring good news. I have been 14 years in Berlin and you can easily realize that I have been able to thoroughly study the character of our enemies. Things are going badly on the other side of the Rhine. The facade of the imperial edifice seems solid enough from a broad view, but in reality there are cracks in it."

 pound until July 1, 1919, and eight cents a pound thereafter.

HOUSE COMPLETES THE WORK IN COMMITTEE

Washington, May 23.—Consideration of the bill was completed in the house sitting as a committee of the whole this afternoon and an agreement reached to have separate votes for the income and automobile tax and second class mail rate amendments. By a vote of 345 to 59 the Lenoir income tax amendment, already adopted in the committee of the whole, was rejected.
 The Doremus amendment exempting from the five per cent automobile tax, the companies making less than eight per cent of their capital actually invested, was eliminated from the bill by a vote of 174 to 233.
 The section of the war tax bill proposing a tax on advertising matter other than that contained in newspapers and periodicals was stricken out on motion of Democratic Leader Kitchin.

TO DECIDE THE FREIGHT RATE CASES BY JULY

The United States Commerce Commission Resumes Its Hearings Today.

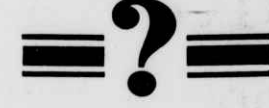

Washington, May 23.—Hearings on the railroad operating expenses for a 15 per cent advance in freight rates were resumed today by the interstate commerce commission with an exhaustive program under which shippers, state railroad and public utility commissions and others will be permitted to state their views. Hearings will last three weeks and decision, it is expected, will be rendered prior to July 1, the date upon which the roads have asked for authorization of the proposed increase.

EXPENSES ARE GROWING FASTER THAN EARNINGS

Washington, May 23.—The tendency of railroad operating expenses to increase a great deal faster by percentage than operating revenues apparently had checked somewhat, according to latest reports of the railroads to the interstate commerce commission.
 A tabulation, showing earnings and expenses of all the large roads for March, made public today, shows a slowing up of the rate of increase which first became manifest last December.
 Figures for March give railway operating revenues as $317,987,310 and expenses as $229,091,175.

JUSTICE OFFICIATES AT DOUBLE WEDDING

A pretty double wedding was solemnized by Justice of the Peace Ornsby last evening when Paul H. La Vassar and Anna L. Dyer and Ernest D. Blazdelle and Minnie Young became life partners at the home of Miss Young, 27 Casey street. The wedding was quiet and only the immediate friends of the contracting parties were present. Mr. La Vassar is a native of Missoula and is very well known here. The other young people belong to a popular young set of the city. They left for a brief honeymoon last night and will make their homes in this city. Mr. and Mrs. La Vassar will reside at 25 Casey street, while Mr. and Mrs. Blazdelle will live at 27 Casey street.

pare effectively for their new drive at the German key point fortress of Laon, the capture of which would compel the falling back of the entire German line in this sector.
Crop of Peace Rumors.
 In the meantime, the usual crop of peace rumors which marks these lulls has made its appearance. Reports from different sources tell of offers from Austria to Russia, Germany to Russia and Austria and Germany to the collective entente powers.
 The latest German-Spanish crisis has subsided with the receipt by Madrid of assurances from Berlin which Premier Prieto announces as satisfactory. Germany promises to respect Spain's rights in her territorial waters, but the text of the communication is not made public.

HINDENBURG WITNESSES DEFEAT OF HIS TROOPS

On the French front in France, Tuesday, May 22.—From a staff correspondent of the associated press.—Von Hindenburg himself is understood to have been a spectator of the defeat which the French inflicted upon the Germans yesterday evening on the Moronvillers range, which resulted in the capture of several lines of German trenches and a number of important observation points.
 The German commander is known to have been just to the northward of this section of the front on Sunday. His presence is supposed to have been connected with an attack on the French lines which the Germans intended to deliver on Tuesday morning. The French forestalled them, and after demolishing German machine nests and other defenses with artillery, launched an assault which was so brilliantly successful that more than 1,000 Germans were captured. At the same time the French obtained elbow room beyond the ridge for future operations.

For Observation Points.

As outlined to the correspondent today the operations in this region developed into a "struggle for observation points," possession of which is absolutely indispensable for success under present conditions of warfare. In their forward drive on the Moronvillers range the French captured all those positions dominating the surrounding territory. The heights of Camille, Blond, Haut, Casque and Teton and the Moronvillers hills are now indisputably in their possession, and from them they are able to watch the movements of German supply columns and reinforcements and thus harass them, making precarious the German tenure of the Rheims plain.

Formidable Fortifications.

The system of fortifications encountered by the French in their advance was more formidable than any they had met before that time, but the clever maneuvering of their infantry and the piling driving of their artillery overcame these difficulties. Thus the French were able to register a victory at a cost amounting to only one-fifth of that of the Germans.

James Hazen Hyde was permitted to make a flight over the lines in an airplane before the attack. Two French fighting airplanes escorted him and held off German machines which hovered about. Mr. Hyde had taken an official position with the Young Men's Christian Association, which intends to make arrangements for American troops similar to those which have been made for the British behind the lines. They are invaluable for the men when they are resting after trench duty.

THREE ATTACKS BY FRENCH SUCCESSFUL

Paris, May 23.—Successful attacks were made by the French last night on three parts of the front, the war office announced.

The statement follows:
 "We made spirited attacks with good results yesterday evening at three points on the front. On the Vaucelle plateau and on the Calonne plateau our troops conquered the last of the observation points dominating the Ailette valley. They enlarged considerably their positions on the northern slopes.
 "We carried three lines of German trenches east of Chevreux during the night. A counter attack by the enemy against our new positions on the Calonne plateau was stopped by our fire, which inflicted heavy losses on the attackers. We captured 350 Germans, of whom 11 were officers.
 "An enemy attack on the slopes southwest of Eperages was checked."

ARTILLERY FIRE, BUT NO GERMAN ATTACK

London, May 23.—Last night the enemy again heavily bombarded our positions on the Hindenburg line in the neighborhood of Bullecourt," says today's official statement. "Our artillery replied vigorously. No hostile attack developed.
 "We made a successful rail early this morning southeast of Gavrelle. A number of Germans were killed without any casualties among our troops.
 "We captured a few prisoners during the night as a result of patrol encounters."

BAVARIAN PREMIER PREDICTS EARLY END

Amsterdam May 23 (via London).—In an interview published by German newspapers from a Hungarian paper Count Hertling, Bavarian premier, is quoted as having said in regard to the reported partition of Alsace Lorraine between Prussia and Bavaria:
 "It is completely new and hitherto unknown that a decision has been reached about the position of Alsace Lorraine."
 Count Hertling expressed the conviction that the war would end by fall and said the results of the submarine warfare were satisfactory.

WILSON RENEWS FIGHT TO GET THE CENSORSHIP

Until the president projected the weight of his influence anew into the situation, it was supposed that congress itself had given up all idea of an enforced censorship. Those who fought censorship on the floor of both houses pointed out that the administration still had opportunity to exert pressure on the conferees.
 At a brief session the conferees were unable to agree, even to the extent of considering a compromise section, and an adjournment was taken until Friday.

BOY AGED 7 AND SISTER 6 SEEK TO ENLIST IN ARMY
 Portland, Ore.—Terrance Walsh is 7 years old, but, just the same, he left his home to serve his country in company with his small sister, Adelaide, who is 6.
 "I'm going to enlist," stoutly averred Terrance. "Me, too," echoed his sister.
 "Well," agreed her brother, judicially, "they might take you as a nurse." The children disappeared.
