HARD WORK FOR WOMEN.

It is a question if women doing men's work deserve particular sympathy, for it is doubtful if there is any work that is harder than every-day housework. Overwork tells on the kidneys, and when the kidneys are affected one looks and feels older than the actual years. Mrs. A. G. Wells, R. R. 5, Rocky Mount, N. C., writes: "I cannot praise Foley Kidney Pills enough for the wonderful benefit I have derived from their use for a short while." For sale by Newbro Drug Co.

GLADYS HULETTE AT THE LIBERTY

Gladys Hulette, who is at the Liberty theater tonight in "The Candy Girl," a Pathé Gold Reoster play by Philip Loneragan, says that there is one element which has much to do with the success of the play.

"It's the candy," Miss Hulette declares. "Pounds and pounds of candy have been used in this play. The children devour it eagerly, and the grown-ups are just as bad. Ill-tempered children and grouchy extra men brighten at once as soon as they munch a few mouthfuls of candy. I'm supposed to be the one who cheers them up, but it's really the candy."

But Miss Hulette is too modest. It isn't the candy, but the charming little star, for she makes every one happy with whom she comes in contact.

If the landlord frowns upon you, or you lose your job, or your best girl is unresponsive to your ardent pleas, see Gladys Hulette in "The Candy Girl," and you may get a good idea how to win out. She absolutely refuses to admit she is beaten and she never is.
