He might have recalled Grouchy from his fruitless attacks on the Prussian rear guard and protected his own right flank. But communication was slow—and the battle of Waterloo was lost.

In times of war, as in times of peace, speed in communication is an important factor—often the deciding factor. Whatever the need or special emergency, the Western Union's fifty thousand employees and one million, five hundred thousand miles of wire are at your disposal at any hour of any day or night.

"COPE" HONORED BY LOCAL SCRIBES

Annual Festivities Resolve Into Fond Farewell to Old Friend.

The annual dinner of the News-writers' association of Butte might be described as of a rare vintage. Lest the phrase might be misunderstood what is meant to be said is that the event seems to improve with age. At any rate, yesterday's social session of the news-writers was the most enjoyable in the history of the organization. The dinner was served at the Elmer hotel, and Charles Copenharve, formerly Butte editor of the Anaconda Standard, was the guest of honor. Jim Finlen stretched a point in providing an honest to goodness meal, and the young Jim Berry as toastmaster the occasion was one of perfect satisfaction.

That the annual reunion of the news-writers is an event once attended never missed was proved by the fact that Charles Stevens came all the way from Bozeman to enjoy the society of his former associates. Having done justice to the viands, wines and other delicacies, Chairman Berry asked if there was any important business to come before the meeting. This was a stall. Most eloquently, graciously and with a tongue as ready as "Spiker" Haynes called upon James Cummins to make a speech. It had been cut and dried among the members that Charles Copenharve was to be the guest of honor, and when this was sprung there was not a more surprised man in the world than "Cope." Having cleared his throat in his usual manner, Cummins tried to express the feelings of the boys for "Dear" Copenharve, and failed as many a brighter and better speaker would have done, and then presented him on behalf of the association with a silver cigarette case engraved with the monogram "CC" and the following words: "Cope, from the Butte News-writers, Nov. 11, 1917."

This was the signal for a flood of oratory in praise of Mr. Copenharve with fervent wishes for his quick return to Butte from California, and when Copenharve said that he was not leaving the state for good there was spontaneous and whole-hearted applause. Having announced the formation of the Bozeman Commercial club for social purposes, Stevens told what he thought of "Cope." Then "Dell" Keith paid a tribute to the guest of the day. "Spiker" sported writer and church editor combined, did his "bit." Harry Seltzer paid a tribute to his former boss and then went to send the "package" to Anaconda. E. B. McLaughlin extended the freedom of the city on all occasions to "Cope." "Tosh" McIntosh congratulated "Cope" on becoming a millionaire like himself and told of the early days of the news-writers' association. Fresh from his Pasadena villa by the shore of Azeva ocean and immaculate from the hands of his English valet, Byron E. Cooney told "Cope" what he might expect to see in the land of flowers in California.

Cummins read a most interesting letter from Tom Henkel, former editor of the Miner and now at school in Portland. "Dove" Clark managed to get in a few words. He was followed by his teammate, "Archie" Clark. Bastido showed that he will be a valuable member of the association for more purposes than writing copy. McDowell, the "Boss" of the "Boys," added tributes to "Cope," and there were others.

"Cope" did not make a speech. He was too surprised and too affected by the presentation and the speeches. He did the best he could under the circumstances, however, and while he was interrupted frequently by bursts of applause, he gave the boys another slight on his charming personality, his loyalty and his interest in the local association.

Songs were sung—not exactly sung—but an attempt was made at modern and classical creations from the sextet under the leadership of "Dove" Clark from Lucia to "Where Do We Go From Here, Boys?" The speech made by Eddie Hammer was deleted by the censor, but those desiring a copy may apply at the sports department of the Post between the hours of 4:12 a. m. and 4:17 p. m. On account of illness in his family, J. C. Leitch was unable to be present, and Mr. Berry conveyed his regrets to the members.

MOTHER! DON'T TAKE CHANCES IF CHILD'S TONGUE IS COATED

If Cross, Feverish, Sick, Bilious, Clean Little Liver and Bowels.

A laxative today saves a sick child tomorrow. Children simply will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, which become clogged up with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour.

Look at the tongue. Mother! If coated, or your child is listless, cross, feverish, breath bad, restless, doesn't eat heartily, full of cold or has sore throat or any other children's ailment, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," then don't worry, because it is perfectly harmless, and in a few hours all this constipation, sour bile and fermenting waste will gently move out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again. A thorough "inside cleansing" is all you need all that is necessary. It should be the first treatment given in any sickness. Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

Dinner at Butte Grill This Evening—Tom Davis Delivers Talk.

The local campaign to raise $20,000 for the work of the Y. M. C. A. in the army and navy, and a lesser amount for the War Camp Community recreation fund will open in Butte this evening at a dinner to be given at 6 o'clock at the Butte Grill. At that time Charles Henderson, who has been designated as the head of the campaign in this city, will appoint his captains and team workers. An address will be made by T. J. Davis, secretary for the Y. M. C. A. at camp Lewis, who is in the city to boost the campaign. Headquarters for the campaign will be maintained in the Montana Power company building and will be opened tomorrow morning. Donations may be made there.

Mr. Davis delivered an address last evening at the Empress theater before a large audience. He spoke on conditions at the camp at American Lake, of the necessity for support for the work of the Y. M. C. A. and of the splendid morale of the Montana boys, due in large extent to the efficiency of the Y. M. C. A. Charles Henderson presided and Secretary O. C. Colton made a brief address.

Mr. Davis will be in Dillon tomorrow and on Wednesday will speak at the Butte high school and the Ad club meeting. He delivered an address this afternoon at the Butte Business college.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young — to do this you must watch your liver and bowels — there's no need of having a sallow complexion — dark rings under your eyes — pimples — a bilious look in your face — dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, prepared a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for castor, are gentle in their action yet always effective. They bring about that enviable effect of pink, moist, buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 20c and 50c per box. All druggists.

BUSINESS MEN ON MATTER OF PRICES

How Members of the National Chamber of Commerce Voted.

The Post's Washington Bureau.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 12.—One of the interesting and significant developments of the times is the swing of the business interests of the country toward government price control in conformity with the principle first advocated by Senator Pomerene of Ohio and embodied in legislation authorizing the president to fix the price of coal.

"There should not be a profit interest in war," say the business men affiliated with the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

From the headquarters of this national organization in this city the announcement is made that a referendum of its members throughout the country shows that they strongly endorse the principle of government price fixing. It is expected that their attitude, so strikingly expressed, will give a big boost to the Pomerene bill now pending before congress, authorizing the president to fix the prices to be charged for iron and steel and like products.

On government price fixing and allied questions the organizations affiliated with the national chamber of commerce voted as follows:

1. Additional legislation to create authority to control prices during the war—yes, 974; no, 110.
2. That authority to control prices should extend to all articles which have importance in basic industries as well as in war, and which enter into the necessities of every day life—yes, 958; no, 116.
3. That authority to control prices should extend to raw materials and finished products—yes, 977; no, 117.
4. That authority to control prices should extend to the prices the public pays as well as those paid by the government—yes, 946; no, 146.
5. That authority to control prices should be administered by a small executive board appointed by the president—yes, 964; no, 121.
6. That an agency working in harmony with the board controlling prices should have authority to distribute available supplies to those purchasers whose needs are most directly related to the public welfare—yes, 975; no, 117.
7. That each leading industry and trade should create a representative committee to represent it in conference and to advise with agencies that control prices and distribution—yes, 984; no, 97.

"The national chamber of commerce," said Elliot H. Goodwin, its general secretary, "already has gone on record in this city, and in the opinion of its members committing it to the principle that there should not be a profit interest in war. This principle has been reiterated by the members of the chamber since the United States declared a state of war."

Don't Trifle with Blood Disorders, But Get Rid of Them Quickly

Cleanse the System of All Impurities. Watch your blood supply closely, be ever on the alert lest some impurity creep in which will make inroads upon your general health. For upon the condition of your blood depends largely whether or not you are to enjoy that robust and splendid vitality to which most of us are entitled. Some of the most painful and serious ailments are diseases of the blood, which could be avoided by alert and prompt attention. Rheumatism comes from a tiny germ which gets its foothold when the blood supply is impure and run down. Catarrh is another disease which science has shown is more easily contracted when the blood is in an impoverished and disordered state. There are numerous other diseases which are due solely to an impure condition of the blood. Can you not see, therefore, the importance of taking a blood purifier so as to avoid these diseases? Give the system a thorough cleansing with S. S. S., that sterling blood purifier, and you will be in possession of the blessings of good health. S. S. S. has been on the market for more than 50 years and is recognized by druggists everywhere. Do not take S. S. S. and don't take a substitute. Free medical advice will be given about your own case if you will write to our medical director, Dr. Swift Specific Co., 148-A, Broadway, Atlanta, Ga.
