

ITEMS OF INTEREST

More Scenes From Venice, the World's Wonder City, Which Is Now Threatened With the Devastation Wrought by War

From Forest Reserves

Nov. 16.—Flathead county largest slice of the share of Montana forest receipts for fiscal year ending June 30...

ON PIAVE LINE WHERE ITALY STANDS AT BAY TO SAVE BEAUTIFUL VENICE

Correspondent Gives Detailed Description of the Scenes Along the Newest Battle Front in Europe. A Narrow Ribbon of Water, Behind Which Crouch the Determined Infantrymen of Rome and the Artillery of the Allies, Must Hold the Desperate Foe.

Italian Headquarters in Northern Italy, Wednesday, Nov. 14.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Italian general staff gave the first opportunity today to see the Piave battle front...

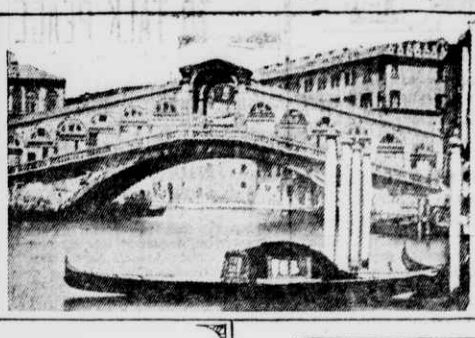

Witnesses Air Raid. An air raid took place at the Piave river. Five shots were fired, but the raiders got away...

The Heroic Cavalry. Again the route turned southward along the river. At one point the party passed one of those heroic regiments of cavalry which acted as a rear guard...

Down to the River. Officers led the way, creeping in single file into an old warehouse standing on the edge of the Piave river...

PREPARING FOR THE FOE IN VENICE. The wonder city of art and architecture is yet untouched by the hand of the foe, but it is a city denuded of its art treasures...

VENICE DESERTED BY 140,000 OF HER PEOPLE. (Continued From Page One.)

major of Venice, who is a descendant of the Doges and a chamberlain to the queen of Italy, announced today that he would remain at his post. Most of the art treasures, paintings and sculptures have been removed.

great wine vats still full had been abandoned in the hasty flight of the villagers. The river at this point is extremely narrow, with a long shoal through the middle...

Where the Enemy Crossed. Farther down the river a huge cloud of smoke drifted over Zenson, where the enemy had succeeded in making his first crossing...

REVENGE. "There are compensations for most things," said Mrs. Wilkins. "Poor James was run over by a motor car yesterday, less than three quarters of an hour ago...

DISQUALIFIED. Knicker—is Jones physically disqualified? "Bocker—He can't see red, white and blue; he can't hear the call of duty and his legs run backward."

THE BUTTE DAILY POST DEER LODGE BUREAU. Office Room 2 Klein-schmidt Block. Advertis- ing rates on appli- cation.

DEER LODGE BRIEFS. Deer Lodge, Nov. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt Barnhill, Mrs. F. A. Grabenstein and Mrs. Karl Zermuelson returned to Butte Wednesday...

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING WILL BE READY SOON. Deer Lodge, Nov. 16.—Plastering at the new county high school building is being rushed with all possible speed...

MRS. JOSEPH COY ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE. Deer Lodge, Nov. 16.—Mrs. Joseph Coy entertained about 20 women at her home on North Fifth street Wednesday evening...

WILL VISIT BUTTE.

Nov. 16.—President J. M. McLean of the Montana State College will start today on a trip through Montana, including Missoula, Deer Lodge, Anaconda and Miles...

ASKED TO HELP.

Nov. 16.—The University of Montana will be called upon to help in the needs of the nation in war...

WILL ENTER ARMY.

Nov. 16.—Dr. M. E. Knowlton, who is a veterinarian, leaves for Ohio, where he will enter the veterinary corps as a sergeant.

WILL RELINQUISH LAND.

Nov. 16.—The state offers to relinquish indemnity lands after clear title is established...

WILL MAKE THEM WORK.

Nov. 16.—Members of the Butte county defense council met yesterday in regard to the disposal of the prisoners...

ORNEYS ARE ACCUSED.

Nov. 16.—Charles F. Huppe, attorney at law, was admitted to practice law by the Montana Supreme Court...

VENICE DESERTED BY 140,000 OF HER PEOPLE

Some foreign consuls remain, but most others residing here temporarily have gone. All the palaces along the Grand canal are closed...

WOMAN GOES FOR WALK AFTER REMAINING HOME FOR FORTY LONG YEARS. Winchester, Va., Nov. 15.—Mrs. Mary Fitzsimmons of Strasburg...

FIGURATIVELY SPEAKING. "I suppose the young men do not regard Miss Marrowhoff as so handsome now that her father has lost his money..."

The New Mother

Heartfelt sympathy of all mankind goes out to her who is to become a mother. For over three generations thousands of women have found peace and happiness...