WE WERE FROM CLEAR CREEK.
The copious rains have saturated the earth, and fall plowing is progressing finely.
J. Carl is around shaking hands with neighbors and friends.
Quite a delegation of M. W. A. from Litchfield lodge visited Loup City lodge Tuesday evening and were well paid for their trouble by seeing several new members put through the initiatory exercises. The Loup City boys know how to do it nicely.
The pops were fearful of losing Henry and in order to whip him into line again have nominated him for supervisor.
Let the pops bear in mind that while they are speaking lightly of M. H. Bates the Republican nominee for county clerk, that he will carry his own township by a good majority and Mowery the republican nominee for superintendent will carry Elm township by twelve or fifteen majority. This may be surprising to the pops but it is a fact just the same.
Hon Albert Dickerson came near deaths door by the falling of a shed. It pinned him to the ground and but for the timely arrival of his wife he would have surely been killed. He is confined to the house in consequence with a badly bruised leg.
Several of our citizens are homes ready to start west to procure homes.
RECORDED.

now that it was two years ago, and that is that he is not capable of conducting the office he now holds and is aspiring to again hold for another two years. For if he would have been the prudent and trust worthy servant of the people he should have been, he would have heeded the warning given, and taken the money out of the People's State Bank of Litchfield, and have saved that $6,000.00 to the tax payers of the county, the loss of which is due to the fact that I. M. Polski neglected to do his duty as an officer, and he alone is responsible for its loss. If sitting over in the treasurers office and collecting taxes from the poor people of this county and placing it in an irresponsible place if this is good judgment, God have mercy on poor Eddies judgment, it always was at fault somehow and if he said anything in one issue he went back on it in the next. We will call his attention to the two quotations below, which were both published in the Times within the last nine months:
Times Independent of Sept. 27, '04: Emerson A. Smith has gone west to grow up with the country. He has read the Times for over two years and never offered to pay for it. He is a former and a fair sample.
A vote for the populist ticket is a vote for the betterment of your financial condition, for the welfare of your families and for better prices for labor.
Will the Times editor please look at this pair of his former editorials and see how beautifully they harmonize and how elegantly they look in pairs.
The only treasurer of Custer county who proved a defaulter was a pop, and his shortage was caused by taking county money to pay electioneering expenses of pop politicians. For this accommodation he got a second term and doubled up on his shortage. He would have been put in a third time had the stealing not become too public. Then they got Hase Brown, a man reputed not very smart, but he has proved smart enough to keep the county funds where they belong. For this disregard of the wishes of the ring, he is turned down and the one solitary honest treasurer the pops ever elected is kicked out of the back door of the court house just because he has been honest.—Callaway Courier.
The swine exhibit at the Iowa State fair last week was the largest and finest the world ever saw. Nebraska show hogs were there in goodly numbers and succeeded in carrying off many of the best premiums offered.—Nebraska Farmer.
