STRIKERS ATTACK SMELTER

Deputy Sheriffs Fire on Men Trying to Burn Perth Amboy Plant.

ONE KILLED, THREE WOUNDED

Rioters Driven Back After Portion of Fence is Destroyed—Leaders by Another Assault Will Be Made.

PERTH AMBOY, N. J., June 14.—A thousand striking laborers stormed the plant of the American Smelting and Refining company here early today and were fired on by deputy sheriffs. One striker was killed and three others wounded.

The man killed was Steven Dudoek. He was shot twice through the back. Those injured are in a critical condition.

The strikers succeeded in setting fire to a part of the fence surrounding the works before they were driven back by the officers. After retreating out of range they held parley and the strike leaders declared that they would make another charge and get inside of the works even at the cost of more lives. Sheriff Bollschweiler immediately took steps to swear in 400 additional deputies and said he would refrain as long as possible from calling on the militia.

The strike is a peculiar one, involving as it does no particular craft, but being made up variously of laborers of the American Smelting and Refining company, section hands from the Northeastern division of the Lehigh Valley railroad, men, women and girls, employees of the Perth Amboy Tobacco company, laborers of the Barber Asphalt company, and other minor plants.

TAFT WILL WIN ON FIRST BALLOT

exactly seventy votes over the combined opposition.

Test Will Come on Credentials.

When the situation affecting the possible winning of Taft delegates to the Roosevelt side was discussed, the Taft leaders insisted that even heroic efforts to that end would be futile. In the face of the president's strength on paper. They pointed out that from their figures Roosevelt would have 478 votes; that it would be necessary to capture thirty-six southern delegates in order to get control of the convention out of the hands of the president's supporters, and that then it would be necessary to get forty-six delegates more, the number instructed for La Follette and Cummins in order to nominate Colonel Roosevelt.

Many of the Roosevelt leaders concede the improbability of the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt on the first ballot, but at the same time say that President Taft cannot muster enough votes to adopt the report of the committee on credentials. Here is the point where they claim the Taft ship will go on the rocks. The credentials committee report, it is admitted by many, will be similar to the national committee's report.

Principal interest today centered in the coming of Senator Root, the work of the national committee in the contest hearings and a score of impassioned addresses by leaders on both sides at various meetings of delegates.

With the arrival of hundreds of delegates, representing both factions, the differences which were a matter of comparatively quiet debate when only the leaders were on hand have become the foundation for numberless street corner and hotel corridor arguments.

Iowa Leaders Arriving.

There was an influx of Iowa leaders early today and much activity around the headquarters of Senator Cummins. E. J. Fleming of Des Moines, who has managed many campaigns in Iowa for Cummins, joined Senator Kenyon for a conference.

William G. Dows and Luther A. Brewer of Cedar Rapids, the latter a delegate-at-large from Iowa and instructed for Taft, say the sixteen delegates that are instructed will stand by the president.

These delegates are insisting that the ten Cummins delegates vote with them for Senator Root for temporary chairman of the convention. This question is causing considerable discussion among the Cummins men.

The Iowa delegation will hold a caucus Monday morning and select its members of the various committees. It is understood that George D. Perkins of Sioux City is slated for the committee on resolutions and John T. Adams of Dubuque will be made national committeeman.

Senator Miles Polindexter, delegate-at-large from Washington, whose seat is contested, arrived today and joined the Roosevelt forces.

"I suppose I'm flattened out by the steam roller," said the senator in speaking of the Washington contests, "but I am going before the committee and present our case any way."

Instruction Resolutions Abandoned.

It was reported that Taft leaders had abandoned the idea of asking the convention to pass a resolution compelling delegates to obey instructions until released by the candidates. Many of the Taft people thought this plan, which is said to have been suggested by General Powell Clayton of Arkansas, would effectually bring their delegates from the southern states in line.

Today, however, the Taft leaders in several northern states, objected to the plan and insisted that Taft was the second choice of a number of delegates instructed for Roosevelt who would be willing to change their votes after the first ballot.

In this class are said to be twenty from Illinois, six from Ohio, eight from Pennsylvania and five from Maryland.

The Taft leaders now insist that their candidate will be in as good a position to make an open fight for votes on the floor of the convention as Roosevelt, providing there is no choice on the first ballot.

FOUR COUNTERFEITERS ENTER PLEAS OF GUILTY

CLEVELAND, June 14.—George and Mary Miller, Valentine Peneky and Kazimierz Kasnerak today pleaded guilty to counterfeiting, immediately after they had been indicted by the federal grand jury here. MORE CONTESTS SETTLED

Taft adherents had not so designated a place. The Roosevelt attorneys contended that a place for holding the convention had been fixed.

"This seems to be a question of veracity," said Senator Borah. "Have you any documents on either side to prove your statements?"

Lively Interchange.

Ormsby McHarg, the Roosevelt contest attorney, started to tell what he thought was the "best evidence of veracity" when A. M. Stevenson of Denver, holding the proxy of Committeeman Barker of Alabama, objected to a speech by the counsel after his time had expired.

The committee enjoyed a lively minute's interchange. Senator Borah said McHarg was "answering the question."

Mr. Heney broke in to refer to "gag rule in Colorado," directing his remark to Mr. Stevenson.

"I object to such a statement," said Thomas L. Devine of Colorado, who held the committee proxy for that state. "The gentleman is insulting Colorado when he makes such charges."

Mr. McHarg asserted his right to make a statement presenting evidence of the veracity of his witnesses. Chairman Roosevelt declared he should have presented his evidence during his time for argument, but Mr. McHarg proceeded to make a statement to the committee.

The two Taft delegates, Joseph A. Gill of Vinita and J. W. Gilliland of Holdenville, were then seated by the committee, after a motion to seat the Roosevelt delegates had been defeated.

S Senator Borah asked for a roll call on the Roosevelt motion, but it was refused. The Taft delegates were seated without a roll call, the Roosevelt men voting "no."

The national committee seated the Sells faction of Taft delegates in the First Tennessee district. No Roosevelt contest was involved.

Heney Makes a Noise.

Tarrant and Brown, the Taft delegates from the Ninth Tennessee district, were seated by the committee without a roll call, the Roosevelt members shouting "no." A roll call was refused on a substitute motion to seat the Roosevelt delegates.

"This is a case of plain stealing," shouted Mr. Heney when the Ninth district was decided.

Members of the committee shouted "sit down," "order."

"Plain stealing; plain stealing," shouted Heney again.

"We can't be scared by the hooting of an owl," shouted one member.

"Tell us about Abe Ruef," called another.

Heney continued to shout, "plain stealing," and was answered with cat calls and derisive laughter.

Mr. Heney's remarks were made when he said he wanted to "explain his vote" against seating the Taft delegates in the Ninth Tennessee case.

"Abe Ruef would be ashamed to do what you are doing here," Mr. Heney said, replying to a remark by Committeeman Chubb of Florida.

"Give us some more," called one member.

"I'll give you another when I have the chance," declared Heney.

Ormsby McHarg, the Roosevelt contest manager, also protested against a delay of the Texas cases. He said the Roosevelt forces are not ready to argue either the Virginia or Washington cases.

The committee continued until tomorrow the Texas, Virginia and Washington contests.

Contests Will Be Consolidated.

The contest attorneys agreed to consolidate the Virginia contests into one case and the Washington contests into another. Under this plan it is expected all remaining contests can be disposed of tomorrow.

The national committee seated True and Church, the Taft delegates, in the Tenth Tennessee district. No Roosevelt contest was involved.

After a virtual agreement upon the postponement of all cases until tomorrow, Frank O. Lowden of Illinois moved to proceed at once to the consideration of the Texas contests. The motion was defeated without request for a roll call.

Credentials from a mass convention in the Eighth Alabama district received by Secretary Hayward yesterday naming two contesting delegates from this district, were tabled by the committee without debate. Similar action was taken as to new contests just received from Alaska and the Philippines, which did not come within the contest time limit fixed by the committee last December.

The committee adjourned at 2:50 to meet at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning.
