AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA.

Clew to a Perpetrated Burglar—Magic City Correspondent.

The police have a clew to the thief who has been entering and robbing the residence of Mr. Griffith, which is now occupied by Matt Smith and his family. At 10 o'clock yesterday morning Mrs. Smith heard some one prying at one of the windows. She raised the blind and saw a business section to check up the receipts of their annual bill. It was found that $420 had been received and that the total expenses were $60. There was a jangle on some of the bills, and when Captain Austin handed in a bill of $2 for supper given to Omaha policemen who had enjoyed the ball the amount was promptly rejected. A compromise was effected by several of the boys chipping in and making up the amount. Another dispute arose over the expense account of Officers Van Wie and Kroeger, who had in a bill of $12 for "red emerald" and other refreshments they claimed to have purchased in Omaha while they were dining at about 130 Third street. The vote on this bill was 4 to 1 and a compromise was made on $3 for the men. The money was then divided and each of the gentlemen got $3.

Condemned Chimes.

W. J. Vincent, formerly of the firm of Vincent & Walker, grocers, was married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents to Miss Ella Woodward, Rev. C. N. Dawson officiated. Only a few of the invited guests were present, and the couple left last evening on their wedding tour for Portland, Ore. Mayor Walker acted as best man for the groom.
