

THE CONDITION OF TRADE.

Local Monetary Situation Reported as Virtually Unchanged.

PLENTIFUL SUPPLY OF FUNDS.

A Heavy Increase in Clearings and the Explanation Thereof—A Tendency to Higher Prices in Most Staples.

In local commercial circles. The local monetary situation is virtually unchanged. There is a plentiful supply of loanable funds, with a fair demand from the city and a very liberal call from the country for money to loan to stockholders...

The bulk of the goods sold at 50 higher to-day. It was a $3.70 market, against a $3.65 market yesterday. The top was the same as yesterday, $3.75 for good light weights...

Prices are steady and in most staples a tendency to advance is noticeable. Sugars are strong and granulated is firm at 7c. Hoasted coffee are fully 5c per pound higher, under the influence of advance from Brazil...

The new barbed wire and nail trust will be known as the Federal Steel Company, with a capital of $10,000,000 or $10,000,000, of which $5,000,000 to $6,000,000 will be paid in cash...

The annual report of the United States treasurer mentions the fact that during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1889, there was a decrease of $41,000,000 in the amount of currency in circulation...

The receipts of mackerel in Boston last week were about 10,000 barrels, or 45 per cent of the entire receipts for the past nine months. It begins to look as though Europe would make up for the shortage of the catch in American waters...

THE OMAHA LIVESTOCK MARKET.

There was a light run of cattle on Saturday and not enough to make much of a market. Still there were some of the best cattle that have been here this week...
