

HALF VICTORY FOR VARSITY

With Lighter Team and Less Practice The Kansas City Medical.

WESTOVER PUTS UP STRONG DEFENSE

Captain Williams of Nebraska Shows Up in Old-Time Form and Benedict Smashes Opponents' Line Effectively.

LINCOLN, Oct. 14.—(Special.)—The first regular football game of the season was played here this afternoon between the University of Nebraska team and an aggregation of players from the Kansas City Medical college...

There was no especially brilliant playing during the game. All of the Nebraska men appeared in much better form than on any previous occasion...

Nebraska's defensive work was a little weak, but the opponents were unable to stop the terrific line bucking, which carried the ball down the field for repeated gains...

The outcome of the game today is in one sense a victory for the varsity. Last year after Nebraska had several weeks more practice the Kansas City Medical...

Westover at left tackle put up a strong defense and Carver at right end played an exceptionally fast game...

Captain Williams of Nebraska showed up in old-time form and Benedict smashed through the opponent's line as effectively as ever...

ENDS IN A ROW AT BROOKLYN

Sheppard Assaults Umpire Hunt for Calling Him Out on a Steal.

HANLON OCCUPIES PECULIAR POSITION

As President of Baltimore and Manager of Brooklyn He is Appealed To by the Umpire, Whom He Sustains.

BROOKLYN, Oct. 14.—The second ended here in a row today. In the second inning Sheppard assaulted Umpire Hunt for calling him out on a steal...

Hunt appealed to Captain Smith and Manager McGraw without effect. He then appealed to Hanlon, who occupied the peculiar position of president of the Baltimore and manager of the Brooklyn.

A game postponed from Baltimore was then played to appease the crowd. Brooklyn won by hitting Hanlon. The Orioles tried to delay the game by throwing the ball over the lot in the fourth inning...

Chicago outlasted Cornell in the quickness in which the ball was put into play and also displayed more effective interference.

The punting on both sides was decidedly of color, particularly in the first half. Once Young, who did most of the kicking for Cornell, kicked the ball into his own line and this ultimately resulted in a touchdown for Chicago.
