

124 Houses AND LOTS For Sale By REMIS, FIFTEENTH AND DOUGLAS STS.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

A Rumor That Ex-Gov. Morgan Has Been Offered the Treasury Portfolio.

Nothing Positive Known as to Whether He Will Accept or Not.

Scoville Gives His Opinion Why Gaitheer Was Induced to Shoot Garfield.

No Cabinet Nominations to be Sent to the Senate This Week.

The Dead President's Life to be Published With Mrs. Garfield's Sanction.

A Mysterious Silence in Regard to Tyner's Requested Resignation.

Republican Leaders Hold a Conference at Senator Jones' House.

No Cabinet Meeting Yesterday—The Members Call Upon the President.

SENATE.

National Associated Press. WASHINGTON, October 21.—In the senate to-day Mr. Sherman called up his resolution calling on the secretary of the treasury for a copy of the Pitney report.

Mr. Sherman's resolution was then agreed to and at 12:45 p. m. the senate went into executive session.

CONFIRMATIONS.

The senate, in executive session, to-day confirmed the following nominations: Alva S. Alexander, of Indiana, to be fifth auditor of the treasury.

THE TREASURY PORTFOLIO.

WASHINGTON, October 21.—It is stated positively that the president, before going to Yorktown, tendered the treasury portfolio to ex-Governor Morgan, of New York, and up to this hour no answer has been received.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY CORNHILL AND SCOVILLE, COUNSEL FOR GAITHEER, WERE IN THE SUPREME COURT TO-DAY IN REFERENCE TO THE CASE.

Scoville, counsel for Gaitheer, has received numerous replies from New York alone to his appeal for testimony as to Gaitheer's insanity, and thinks he will be able to get all the witnesses he needs.

public duties and seeking to maintain his high prerogatives.

LIFE OF GARFIELD TO BE PUBLISHED.

Col. Rockwell has received the following letter from Mr. Garfield, which is furnished the press for publication: MENTOR, Ohio, October 21, 1881.—DEAR COL. ROCKWELL: It is my wish that an account of the life and an appropriate collection of his literature, which remains in my possession, be published after that careful consideration and preparation so manifestly necessary.

TYNER TALKS.

General Tyner was spoken to this evening, and referring to his remark yesterday that he declined to speak about his removal until after he had seen the president, said he could only say that he had a projected interview with the president to-day, which was adjourned to to-morrow or Monday.

REPORTED FAVORABLY.

The nomination of ex-Marshall Dudley, of Indiana, as commissioner of pensions, was favorably reported to the senate in executive session to-day and went over under the rules.

PERMISSION GRANTED.

President Arthur and Secretary Kirkwood to-day granted the necessary permission for the right of way for the extension of the Chicago, Texas & Michigan Central and St. Louis & San Francisco railroads through the Choctaw Nation.

HOWGATE'S CASE.

Captain H. W. Howgate will plead to-morrow to the indictment against him. The indictment numbers 74 counts, the witnesses being government clerks and minor officials who kept the accounts by which the embezzlement was discovered.

BACK FROM YORKTOWN.

Loaded steamboats and trains from Yorktown have been arriving all day. Secretary Blaine returned with President Arthur, Assistant Secretaries Blaine and Hitt and Chief Clerk Brown remained with the foreign guests, and are in Richmond to-day.

NO NOMINATIONS THIS WEEK.

President Arthur stated definitely to-day that he should submit no cabinet nominations to the senate this week. This gives a slate maker a new lease of life. A member of the official family of the president stated this evening that he very much doubted if any cabinet nominations would be sent to the present session of the senate.

SENTENCED TO BE HUNG.

CARROLLTON, Ga., October 21.—James C. Harvey and William Moon were yesterday sentenced to be hanged at this place on the 9th of December.

INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 21.—For the upper lakes: Fair weather, southwest to west winds, higher barometer, stationary or lower temperature.

FOREIGN VISITORS AT RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Va., October 21.—The French and German visitors arrived here this morning on the steamer Catakali and were met at the wharf by the mayor and other city officials and citizens.

Georgia's Exposition.

ATLANTA, Ga., October 21.—This is Cincinnati's day at the exposition, and a large party of excursionists are enjoying themselves. At noon they assembled at the judge's hall, and were welcomed by Director General Washburn and Mayor Crain, of the executive committee.

THE BALLOONISTS.

CHICAGO, October 21.—The Daily News this afternoon has a thrilling account of the adventures of Prof. King and Signal Officer Hasbagen in their balloon voyage.

THE MAN WHO WANTED GOLD.

YONKONOS, O., October 21.—Yesterday a man, the old gentleman who yesterday denied it, obtained gold for seven thousand dollars in government bonds from the treasury department at Washington, and who was afterwards put in charge of the police for safe keeping, is a resident of this city.

CRIME.

MEMPHIS, October 21.—Gillen Waters, who murdered his room mate in Arkadelphia, Miss., and afterwards captured, taken out and shot five times by a mob, has made his escape from jail. When in the hands of the mob he made what was thought to be a dying confession, but since recovering he has broken jail and no trace of him can be found.

INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 21.—For the upper lakes: Fair weather, southwest to west winds, higher barometer, stationary or lower temperature.

FOREIGN VISITORS AT RICHMOND.

RICHMOND, Va., October 21.—The French and German visitors arrived here this morning on the steamer Catakali and were met at the wharf by the mayor and other city officials and citizens.

THE OLD WORLD.

All Future Meetings of the Land League to be Broken Up by the British Government.

An Attempt Made to Get the Pope to Condemn the Land League Manifesto.

Gladstone's Present Policy Different From That of a Few Years Ago.

A Writer in The Newcastle Chronicle Shows Up Gladstone's Past Policy.

A Stirring Address Issued to the Land Leagues of America.

WORDS OF CHEER FOR IRELAND.

NEW YORK, October 21.—Mr. Patrick Ford called to The Freedman's Journal this morning the following: OFFICE OF THE IRISH WORLD, NEW YORK, October 21. MEN OF IRELAND: The eyes of the world are on you. Stand together. Be faithful to your imprisoned chiefs. Obey the manifesto, "no rents." Prepare for sacrifices. Be brave, but prudent, and rely on America's money and sympathy.

LEAGUE PROCLAMATION.

LONDON, October 21.—The land league has issued a proclamation urging the abandonment of all projected or contemplated meetings, warning the league sympathizers that the English government will make every future meeting held under the auspices of the league a pretext for a resort to armed force against the attendants.

GLADSTONE'S OVERTURES.

LONDON, October 21.—Mr. Cowen, in an editorial in The Newcastle Chronicle, says: "Not so many years ago, Mr. Gladstone wrote as follows: 'The prisoners in the kingdom of Naples, arrested and imprisoned without legal process were in vast proportion not tried at all, and when they were tried were so badly treated by exceptional and not regular tribunals, that when they were condemned they were condemned not by the free verdict of a popular body, but by the sentences of judges dependent upon the government for their bread, a government moreover whose power rested on flagrant breaches of a written legal constitution of the country.'"

THE POPE.

Great pressure is being exerted to obtain from the pope strong and clear condemnation of the land league manifesto.

TROOPS DESPATCHED.

A large English military force has been despatched to the Glance and Baloghaderin districts to suppress there the great riots raised by sympathizers with the land league.

ADRESS TO AMERICAN LEAGUES.

NEW YORK, October 21.—The following address will be issued to-morrow from the office of The Irish World to branches of the land and industrial leagues of this country: To the Irish National Land and Industrial Leagues of America:

INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 21.—For the upper lakes: Fair weather, southwest to west winds, higher barometer, stationary or lower temperature.

INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., October 21.—For the upper lakes: Fair weather, southwest to west winds, higher barometer, stationary or lower temperature.

OTHER FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

OTHER FOREIGN AFFAIRS. NATIONAL ASSOCIATED PRESS. LONDON, October 21.—Betting this evening on the race for the Cambridgehire stakes are 5 to 1 against Incondary, 9 to 1 against Retreat, 10 to 1 against Foxhall, 100 to 9 against Lucy Glitter, and 33 to 1 against Don Fulano.

STEAMER FOUNDED.

The Dutch steamer Koenig Nederland, on passage from Batavia to Amsterdam, to-day foundered and sank. One boat containing thirty-eight persons has been rescued, but the others, with one hundred and fifteen people on board, are still missing and it is feared are lost.

CAUSE OF DORRIS' ARREST.

DUBLIN, October 21.—The immediate cause of William Dorris, who was in charge of the land league office, was a secret circular advising the tenants throughout the country to give bills of sale on their property to tradesmen, in order to prevent landlords from seizing for rent.

DOCTOR DECLINES.

Dr. Danning has declined to visit imprisoned subjects in the presence of the warden, and he declines to employ any other doctor.

THE BOER CONVENTION.

LONDON, October 21.—It is stated that if the Boer convention is not ratified by the 3d of November, the troops will advance.

THE GOVERNMENT CENSURED.

The Duke of Marlborough, late Lord lieutenant of Ireland, has written a letter censuring the government for delay in suppressing the land league. The Duke of Abercorn and Lords Hamilton, Leirrim, Suffolk and others spoke in similar terms at a meeting yesterday.

HIGH WATER.

No Abatement of the Floods in the Mississippi River. Railroad Traffic Suspended for the Present.

CHICAGO, October 21.—Advices this morning from Quincy indicate that there is no material change in the situation of the river at that point, excepting that the flood is steadily advancing, the river having risen seven inches in the past 24 hours.

Last night the Sny levee broke at a point seventeen miles below East Hannibal, and the water is pouring in and backing up over the bottom lands.

At Davenport, Iowa, the Mississippi river only unbroken, but at one point nearly opposite is a sloughing off and hourly growing weaker. The river here has risen eleven inches in the last twenty-four hours, and is now but two feet below the high water mark of 1851.

ELECTRIC BRIEFS.

NEW YORK, October 21.—Judge Westbrook has granted an order authorizing the Manhattan receivers to begin suit against the New York and Metropolitan company to recover from that $4,500,000 and interest from May, 1879.

COAST NEWS.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 21.—The residence of N. Jelleck, a wealthy vine grower near Jackson, was burned during the last night, and the family of four persons lost their lives.

GEO. P. BEMIS' Real Estate Exchange 15th and Douglas Street.