FINANCIAL.

New York, Oct. 2.—MONEY—On call, quiet at 5@7 per cent.

PRIME MERCANTILE PAPER—4@5 per cent.

STERLING EXCHANGE—Quiet, firm and unchanged.

GOVERNMENTS—Government bonds were quiet but steady.

STOCKS.—Opened with a much stronger tone, and the impression that the trunk line matters will be amicably arranged at the presidents' meeting next week gained ground. The opening was firm to strong, first prices generally showing advances of from ⅛ to ¾ per cent above last evening's final figures. Western Union, however, was up ⅝ per cent and Jersey Central down ¾ per cent. There was some hesitation in the general list in early trading, but the extraordinary strength in New England and Western Union held the market and the upward movement was not checked until afternoon, when the advances were generally lost. There was some little improvement in the last hour, but the market closed barely steady. The closing prices show irregular changes, but the advances are more numerous and important. New England is up 5¼ per cent, New York Central 1¾ per cent, Michigan Central and others fractional.

OMAHA LIVE STOCK.

Saturday Evening, Oct. 2.

CATTLE—The market was fairly active today. There were very few corn fed cattle in but what there was met with ready sale. Butchers stock was well received and several bunches of cows were sold. The bulk of the receipts were range steers. One small bunch of range steers was sold to the packing house, but the most of them went as feeders. The feeder market has been improving during the past few days, and more cattle are changing hands.

HOGS—The receipts were light as usual at the close of the week and the pressing needs of some of the buyers, who were short caused them to over bid yesterday's prices. One load of hogs brought $4.25 because the buyer was in need of them and not because the market justified the price. In the same way another load brought $4.15. There is a feeling in the market that prices have touched bottom, but no advance is anticipated just at present.

SHEEP—Nothing doing on the market.

OMAHA WHOLESALE MARKETS

General Produce.

Saturday Evening, Oct. 2.

The following prices are for round lots of produce, as sold on the market to-day. The quotations on fruits represent the prices at which outside orders are filled.

BUTTER—The receipts of butter are exceedingly poor and there is not one package in twenty that can be graded as good or choice. Commission houses are overrun with poor butter, and have hard work to sell it at any price, while there is an increasing demand for choice butter. Shippers can improve the quality of their butter by handling it with more care. Pains should be taken to have only one grade in a package, as poor butter packed with good necessitates the whole being sold as poor butter. It is too early to begin shipping butter in boxes. The market remains about the same as last week. Choice butter commands 16@18c, and fancy 18@20c, but there is very little of that grade in the market. Fair to good is selling at 12½@15c, and poor at 4@6c. Choice creamery butter is selling at 22c to 24c.

EGGS—The receipts of eggs are not heavy, but as the market has advanced the demand has fallen off to the same extent, so that the supply is about equal to the demand. At the present time the market is firm at 17c for strictly fresh eggs, and dealers generally do not anticipate any lower prices. The more liberal receipts at the close of last week and the first of the present week compelled dealers in some cases to clear up their stock as low as 16c.

POULTRY—The demand for poultry has been very light for the past few days. Hucksters have been glutting the market with both old fowls and spring chickens, and by putting prices down have cut off a good deal of trade from the commission houses. Prices are not as firm as last week. Old fowls, choice, per doz. $2.25@2.50; spring chickens, large, $2.00; spring chickens, fancy, $2.25; spring chickens, medium, $2.25; spring chickens, small, not wanted; ducks, $2.25@2.50; turkeys, not wanted.

GAME—Good sound prairie chickens hold about their own, while ducks are extremely dull and low. Prospects favor a very brisk trade in prairie chickens at higher figures as soon as cold weather sets in. Prairie chickens, $2.50@3.00 per dozen; quail, $1.25@1.50; snipe, plover, etc., $1.00@1.25; ducks, (Mallard), $1.50@1.75; ducks, (Teal), $1.00@1.25; ducks, mixed, 75c@$1.00; geese, $2.50@3.50; deer saddles, per lb, 11@12c; deer, carcasses, per lb, 7@8c; antelope, saddles, 11@12c; antelope, carcasses, 7@8c; elk, saddles, 10@11c; elk, carcasses, 6@7c; jack rabbits, per doz., $3.50@4.00; small, per doz., $1.00@1.25.

OYSTERS—As the season advances the demand and the number of outside orders increases. Only the very choicest stock is being handled by the oyster houses this season, and they are better prepared than ever to fill outside orders. Prices are 5c lower all the way around than last week, and lower than any other city. Mediums, 25c; standard, 30c; selects, 35c; New York counts, 40c.

POTATOES—The season is approaching for the laying in of winter stocks and the market is firm. Local gardeners are temporarily supplying a part of the retail trade which lessens the demand upon commission dealers. The local supply, however, is light and dealers will be forced to look to the outside for their winter stocks. A few Colorado and Utah potatoes have arrived and sold at 80@85c. Choice shipping stock, per bu, 50@60c.

CABBAGE—Good solid heads are selling at 65@75c per dozen.

SWEET POTATOES—There is a very liberal supply of choice stock on the market. Choice shipping stock, per lb, 2c.

ONIONS—The demand is not heavy but choice stock sells fairly well. Choice stock, per bush, $1.00.

CELERY—The market is well supplied and the demand good. Shipping stock, per doz., 40@45c.

APPLES—The demand for choice apples continues good and the supply is very light. The market has been flooded with poor stock which had to be sold at very low prices and which tended to keep down prices for good stock. Stocks have been mostly cleared up and the market is about bare. Choice shipping stock and fancy stand or eating apples are in good demand. Common stock, $2.00@2.25; choice shipping stock, $2.50@2.75; fancy stand, $2.75@3.00.

MICHIGAN PEACHES—The receipts the past week have been very light. Baskets, according to size, 75c@$1.00; crates, 4 baskets, $2.00@2.50.

LEMONS—Choice, 360 size per box $8.50; Messina, $9.75@10.00.

ORANGES—The only changes on the market are Jamaica, which are lower than last week. Jamaica, per box, $6.00; per bbl., $11.

CRANBERRIES—The market is fairly well supplied with very choice stock. Cape cod, fancy, per bbl., $8.50; Jersey, choice, $7.50; Wisconsin, $7.50.

BANANAS—Bananas are selling at about the same as last week. Bananas, yellow, per bunch, $1.50@2.00; Bananas, yellow, large bunch, $2.50@3.50.

CALIFORNIA FRUITS—Two cars of California fruits were received this week. On account of the cooler weather they arrived in very good order and met with quick sales. Peaches, $2.25; grapes, Tokays, $2.00; grapes, black, $2.00; pears, vicar, $3.00; plums, $1.75@2.00; quinces, $2.50@2.75.

HOME-GROWN GRAPES—The supply is growing less as the season advances and prices are accordingly firmer. Shipping stock, per lb, 5c; 10-lb baskets, 40c.

MELONS—A few are still coming in, but the demand is light and they are slow sale.

MAPLE SUGAR—Strictly pure, 50-lb boxes, 15c per pound; strictly pure, 10-lb tin pails, 14c per pound; choice 5-lb bricks, 25-lb boxes, 12c per pound; choice penny cakes, 25-lb boxes, 12½c per pound.

HONEY—Nebraska, choice, white clover, 15@16c; Nebraska, dark, 12@14c; California, extra white 15c; choice, 12@12½c.

BEANS—The market is almost cleaned up. Nice clean beans in fair request. H. P. Navy, $1.70@1.75; H. P. Medium, $1.50@1.65; choice clean country, $1.25@1.50; good clean country, 90@$1.00; inferior, 60@75c.
