My Marriage Problems

Adela Garrison's New Phase of "Revelations of a Wife" (Copyright 1922)

The News That Came From Dr. Pettit. "The big oak on the winding road," I repeated mechanically after Lillian. And, indeed, I felt as if I were an automaton, and a run-down one at that.

this and managed the ensuing conversation so that I was able to escape any part of it. And then young Mr. Chester took his departure, leaving Lillian and me facing each other on the garden bench. My friend eyed me keenly.

ward Mother Graham by leaving Mrs. Ticer's daughter, Celina, with her, Celina, who had been in service in Southampton during our stay with her mother, had already found favor in my mother-in-law's sight by her quiet, demure ways, and I rather suspected that Dicky's doughty parent was glad to get us all out of the house in order to have Celina rearrange things according to Mother Graham's own liking.

for his first fish!" she added joyfully. "I don't think second times are ever as good as first, do you, Auntie Madge?" "No, dear, I don't," I returned promptly, a shade too promptly, I think, to deceive Lillian, for I caught a swift, quickly-averted glance from her sympathetic eyes which told me that she comprehended my bewilderment.

Make these delectable corn gems today—

JUST TAKE 1/2 cup Corn Meal 1 cup Flour 3 level teaspoons Baking Powder 1/2 cup Kingsford's 1 Egg 1/2 teaspoon Salt 1 cup Buttermilk or plain Milk 1 1/2 tablespoons Karo 1/2 teaspoon Soda (if buttermilk is used) 2 tablespoons Mazola

Sift dry ingredients together. Add Karo and beaten egg to buttermilk and mix quickly with dry ingredients. Add the Mazola last. Bake in gem pans oiled with Mazola. This makes about eight gems.

IT is not necessary to purchase both a bread and a pastry flour. By using 1/2 cup of Kingsford's Corn Starch to 3/4 cup of any good flour the percentage of gluten is decreased and the starch content increased so that home prepared flour will make a lighter and finer grained cake.

For delicious desserts, smoother gravies, lighter, flakier pastry, nothing equals Kingsford's Corn Starch.

FREE: Ask your grocer or write Corn Products Sales Co., 8th and Jackson Sts., Omaha, Neb., for beautiful folder of the new Kingsford Corn Starch recipes.
