Young Girl Dragged to Death.

Lillie Christensen, the eleven year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Christensen, was dragged to death Monday afternoon by a pony. She and her sister Ruby 7 years old, had gone out some distance from the house and were gathering chips for fuel. They had led the pony with them, and were filling sacks with fuel and placing them on their small wagon. Lillie was holding the pony by the halter rope when it became frightened and jumped. The halter rope, so far as known, tied itself in a half-hitch about the little girl's wrist and her weight held it fast. The pony started away over the prairie dragging the girl. After running about two miles the horse ran to the yard fence and stopped. As soon as the rope slackened the body was free. Ruby, the younger sister, caught the same horse and without saddle or bridle, rode to town to inform her mother of the awful accident. Mr. McLeod, Coroner Lewis, Harrison Davenport, Douglas Donald and Mrs. Christensen went out immediately in the former's auto. The body was stripped of clothing, only the shoes remaining. The dress was found about a mile from the house. Both wrists were broken and the body terribly bruised. Mrs. Christensen was in Valentine, and Mr. Christensen was haying near Kennedy at the time of the accident.
