

A man who attends strictly to his own business has a good steady job.

We note that a decision has just been handed down in supreme court in this state by Judge Barnes that strawberry boxes must hold a quart. This will put a stop to the high bottom boxes and few berries. It is a matter of which our merchants will have to look into carefully or stand the blunt should some pure food law capper pick them up in the matter.—Ponca Journal.

Sioux City Journal, 9th: In Omaha, Neb, Thursday evening the marriage of Joseph A Foye, jr, son of Mr and Mrs Joseph A Foye, of this city, and Miss Gertrude Marguerite Norman, daughter of Mr and Mrs J Q Norman, also of this city, was quietly celebrated. The young people went to Omaha that morning and were met there by Edwin Bryan, a school friend of the groom, and Miss Louise Weller, who acted as the wedding attendant. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the Rome hotel. The wedding was a surprise to the many friends having been carefully made by the young people and their parents to keep it so. The Rome hotel was the party headquarters because it was here that the groom's brother, Burt Foye, now deceased, was married. The groom is thoroughly a Sioux City boy, having spent the most of his life here, and has been popularly identified with the younger social set. His bride came to Sioux City with her parents from Yankton, S D, about two years ago. Mr and Mrs Foye jr returned to Sioux City Friday evening and are now visiting the groom's parents at 1217 Jennings street. They will be at home after May 20 in their new cottage at Crystal lake.

Official Proceedings of the Board of County Commissioners.

Dakota City, Nebr, May 8, '09.

Board of county commissioners met pursuant to adjournment. Present, John Sierk, chairman; Ed Morgan, Fred Blume, and W L Ross, clerk.

In the matter of the application of Ferdinand Kuhl for liquor license, the Board finds that on the 23rd day of April, 1909, the said Ferdinand Kuhl filed his application with the county clerk of Dakota county, Nebraska, that said Ferdinand Kuhl is a man of respectable character and standing, and a resident of the State of Nebraska, that said application is signed by more than one half of the resident free holders of Emerson precinct, in said County of Dakota, that notice of the filing of said application, and the time of hearing thereof was given by publication as required by law, that said Ferdinand Kuhl has given a bond in the sum of $5000.00 signed by good and sufficient surety as required by law. It is resolved therefore, by the Board of County Commissioners of Dakota county, Nebraska, that said bond be approved, that the application and petition of said Ferdinand Kuhl be granted and an arpad and that a license for the sale of malt, spirits and vinous liquors on lots 4 and 5, in block 1, in the Village of Nacora, Nebraska, be issued to the said Ferdinand Kuhl, from the 8th day of May, 1909, to the first Tuesday of May, 1910, on payment by him to the County treasurer of Dakota county, Nebraska, at the sum of Five Hundred dollars revenue.

In the matter of the petition of Laura Dorn in regards to the delinquent taxes on lot 24, block 6, First Addition to South Sioux City, Nebr, the board granted the petition as prayed for and ordered the county treasurer to accept $45.00 in full settlement of all the taxes upon the above lots.
