F. T. Barnum said: "The American people like to be humbugged." We should dislike to believe in the truth of this assertion. Yet the people almost prove its truth in their treatment of traveling spectacle peddlers. The rural districts especially are filled with these so-called "Doctors," "Oculists" and "Opticians" who make a good living by imposing on the credulity of humanity. These quacks are all glib talkers, and can convince any one who will get a ear, that the listener is on the verge of blindness. I have people visit me almost weekly, who have paid $3 to $10, and often more, for glasses, any local dealer could furnish for 50c to $1.

Osborne was promoted to first lieutenant of Co. L. and that W. S. Flick to second lieutenant of Co. M. The report now places W. H. Osborne first lieutenant of Co. M. and Horace Kennedy second lieutenant of Co. M. This would indicate that the promotions were made in the order of rank in the company.

One of the brave boys of the First is C. E. Gandy, bugler for company M. For some reason the papers have published his name as "Sandy" and "Candy," and his mother, who is justly proud of her brave soldier boy, writes to know if the papers won't be so kind as to correct the mistake and give the young hero the name that belongs to him. Sure thing; and they'll give him three cheers and a tiger when he comes home.—Journal.

 At the residence of the brides parents Mr. and Mrs. Wells of Anselmo Nebr., Wm. F. Garrell and Ella E. Wells were joined together in the holy bond of matrimony August 6th 1899. They were both small when they came to this county and have grown up to man and woman hood and are highly respected by all who know them. They will be greatly missed. May the brightest flowers strew their path way through life.

Died From Snake Bite.
 Monday morning while Mrs. Redding and her four year old boy were out in the wheat field, the boy was bitten on the foot by a large rattle snake. The little sufferer was brought to the city for medical treatment. Dr. Pennington was given the case and the boy was taken to R. Reyerson's where he could have the constant care of the physician. The foot and limb were badly swollen and the skin had turned purple when they reached the city. The child died at 7 o'clock yesterday evening. The remains were laid to rest this afternoon in the Sunny Dell cemetery. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. J. W. Megan.

In Memoriam.
 We, the members of the Merna Baptist church, draft these resolutions in memoriam, on the death of our brother, John F. Cosner, and respectfully submit the following:
 Whereas, It has pleased the supreme ruler of all things to take from our midst our beloved brother, John F. Cosner, removed him from the field of his labors in which he earnestly worked to advance the interests of his fellow men, and the spreading of God's kingdom, and
 Whereas, In his loss, this church recognizes that a valued member has been taken away, the state has lost a worthy citizen, and his family a true and loved husband and parent; therefore be it
 Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the will of our heavenly Father, we note the loss mourn the loss of our beloved brother; and be it further
 Resolved, That this church extend its heartfelt sympathy to his family in their affliction; and be it
 Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions of condolence be inscribed on the church book, and a copy be given to the family, also a copy sent to the CUSTER COUNTY REPUBLICAN for publication.
 MRS. O. B. SMITH, Church Clerk.

The alarm of fire Monday evening called the hose company and the hook and ladder boys out in hot haste to the residence of Doc Patterson. A little girl three or four years old had applied a match to a pile of shavings in the coal shed adjoining the house. By prompt work of the fire companies, the fire was subdued before the house was destroyed. Only the summer kitchen, the weather boarding on the north side of the building, and part of the roof were burned. Had the fire companies been ten minutes later, the building, which was as dry as kindling, would have been gone. Fortunately the water works company had on a strong force of steam, and the water from the hose came out with the velocity of a cannon ball. The damage to the furniture by the water was quite considerable. The house belongs to G. W. Apple. It will probably require $100 to repair the damage. No insurance.

The Sunday schools of Broken Bow and vicinity have made arrangements to unite in a day of outing together at Ravenna today, Thursday. Arrangements were made with the B. & M. R. K. to charter six coaches and have a special train to run to Ravenna and back the same day. The citizens of Ravenna proffered to put the large grove just south of the town on the mouth of the Beaver in good shape and arrange every convenience necessary to make our visit enjoyable. The schools of Ravenna and the cornet band will be the reception committee and escort the schools of Broken Bow to the grounds. Tables for the dinner, stage for the exercises and rope swings will be erected for us. Base ball and croquet grounds will be prepared so those who enjoy the sport will have an opportunity. The expense of the train is $200, and in order to provide the means to liquidate the expenses round trip tickets are sold the adults for one dollar. All children enrolled in any of the Sunday schools are furnished free transportation by applying to the superintendants of their respective schools. A grand time is anticipated.
