Little Ines was our darling, sent here on earth for us to love,
But the angels they have called her to that beautiful home above.

A FRIEND.

Evangelist D. L. Moody died at his home at Northfield, Mass., Friday of last week, the result of sickness contracted about a month ago while holding a series of meetings at Kansas City. His funeral was held Tuesday of this week.

The Golden plot of the Golden King set with the jewels of song, dance etc will be a present your wife, sweetheart or daughter will enjoy for many a day. Come out and expect a genuine surprise and don't forget the date. Seats on sale at the usual places.

Ed Myers, while attending a shooting match at Georgetown last Friday, accidentally discharged his gun and shot off the end of his great toe on the right foot. He is now able to be around, and consoles himself that he "got two turkeys." But he is not willing to give another toe for two more.

A novelty soiree will be given at the home of Dr. Day Friday evening, by Mesdames Day, Armour and Parmenter. Refreshments will be served. The bill of fair will be from one to forty seven cents. The proceeds will be used to buy a carpet for the Baptist church. The patronage of the public is solicited.

Snow to the depth of about two inches at this writing, Wednesday afternoon, covers the ground. Snow began falling Tuesday morning and continued to fall most of the time until this afternoon, but as the weather is warm the greater portion of it melted. Those that have sleighs are out today making good use of them.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give a grand New England dinner on New Years, in the Wilde building. Come and eat all you can for 25 cents. Roast turkey, boiled chicken and gravy, cranberry sauce, mince pie, pumpkin pie, and everything that goes with a fine dinner. Come and see how we are going to live in 1900.

Christmas exercises were observed by all the Sunday schools of the city Saturday night. A pleasant and profitable time is reported at each. Monday was generally observed by the people, including the merchants, which gave the day very much the appearance of Sunday, with the absence of the ring of the church bells. Several improved the opportunity by remembering the poor in a commendable way.

I. I. us see, 9 and 1 more make 10; 99 and 1 more make 100; it takes 100 years to make a century; we now have rounded up 1899 years, one more year will make 1900. If the above computation is true this century will not be completed until Dec. 31, 12 o'clock p. m., 1900, which is the beginning of Jan. 1, 1901. Yet there are those who continue to speak of the end of this year as being the end of the present century.

The Christmas tree entertainment at the Baptist church Saturday night was a highly creditable affair. A tree well loaded with toys, candies and nuts for the children was the main attraction, yet a fine literary entertainment was rendered which was very much appreciated by old and young. The exercises reflected credit on both the pupils participating and the program committee who had the work in charge.

J. C. Maulick has purchased property at Seneca, Kansas, and expects to move there the first of next week. We understand that his new purchase is a fine home, well improved, and that it is well set in fruit trees. Mr. Maulick has been identified with Broken Bow from its early history, and it is with regret his many friends learn that he has decided to leave us. The best wishes of the REPUBLICAN go with him and Mrs. Maulick, and we hope they may not be disappointed in their new home. They have sold their home here to Dr. C. L. Mullins.

The fall term of the King school, District No. 22, closed on last Friday, Dec. 23. The following program was rendered by the school: Song; by school; recitation, Jessie Burt; recitation, Roy Phillips; recitation, Julia Vistrup; song, Miss Whaley; recitation, Clara Windnagle; recitation, Blanche Burt; recitation, Edna Phillips; recitation, Stewart Bready; song by school; recitation, Ama L. Bready; recitation, Millie J. Windnagle; song, Miss Whaley; recitation, Esther West; closing song, No. 102, Pentacostal hymn book. Ama Bready, Laura Vistrup, Blanche Burt, committee. Rev. J. S. Hadden has sold his personal property with the view of moving to southern California, in a couple of weeks. During Mr. and Mrs. Hadden's residence here they have made many warm friends who regret very much to have them leave. In society and church circles where they have been quite prominent and efficient workers they will be greatly missed. The best wishes of their many friends of Broken Bow and vicinity will accompany them to their new home.

G. B. Greenwood, one of the pioneer settlers of Clear Creek, died suddenly Saturday night at Ansley, while at the supper table. He was in his usual health apparently when he took his place at the table. When asked if he would have coffee he answered in the affirmative, which were the last words he spoke. He was buried Tuesday at Westerville beside his daughter, the twin sister of Mrs. E. J. Powell, now of Parachute, Colorado. The deceased was born May 30 1817, in Lee New York, and was married to Roena Crawford of Sullivan, New York, July 28, 1842. To them were born thirteen children, of whom eight are left to mourn his demise, three of whom reside in Custer Co., Mrs. M. J. Noonan, Broken Bow, Mrs. Margaret Spencer, Berwyn, and Mrs. Emma Henderson, Douglas Grove. He moved to Aurora, Ill., in 1855, to Iowa in 1857, from Iowa to Nebraska in 1879. He was in his eighty second year and would have been eighty-three had he lived until the 30th of next May. He was in comfortable circumstances and has not been compelled to work for his support for twenty years. Besides notes and credits of several hundred dollars and a farm, he had between $800 and $700 in cash.

Married.
TALBOT—JEWETT: At the residence of the bride's parents, Christmas night, V. C. Talbot and Miss Eva Jewett, Rev. Matley, late chaplain of the 1st Neb. Regiment, officiating.

The bride is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Jewett, and has been deputy post mistress under her father since he has had charge of the office here. She is a young lady of culture and refinement, and numbers as her admiring friends her entire acquaintance. The groom is the younger son of Dr. and Mrs. R. C. Talbot. He is a druggist by profession and until the opening of the American-Spanish war was the efficient clerk in Haerberle's drug store. As Lieutenant of the Holcomb Guards he enlisted with his company in the U. S. service, where he was commissioned as First Lieutenant of company M. of the 1st Nebraska regiment. In the absence of the captain of the company he officiated as captain until about the 1st of February, 1899, when he was promoted to the rank of captain of company G, in which capacity he served with distinction until the regiment was mustered out. He was the late candidate for sheriff of the republican ticket, and was only short eighty-two votes of election. He is now engaged in the cattle business and already has a fine bunch of cattle as a beginning. The wedding was a quiet affair, only the immediate members of the two families being present. The REPUBLICAN extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Talbot on their new relations, and wishes them

Resolutions

The following resolutions were drawn up by the Ministerial Association of Broken Bow:

Whereas, Rev. W. H. D. Hornaday a brother minister feels that he is called to the work of Temperance, under the auspices of the anti saloon league, and is soon to leave our community, the ministers of Broken Bow desire to express their appreciation of Bro. Hornaday and of his very successful work in the Episcopal Methodist church of Broken Bow. He has built up a strong congregation, made it the strongest in the city. His labors speak to every one who views the beautiful church edifice he has erected by his tireless efforts. The Methodist church in Broken Bow is a monument of his work.

He has been a zealous worker in the cause of temperance, for good municipal government, for the Sunday school work of Custer county.

We desire to recommend Bro. Hornaday to the churches of Neb. where-ever he may labor, and pray the blessing of God may attend his efforts.
J. W. MEGAN, President,
T. B. McDONNELL, Secretary.
