J. G. Speake, of Omaha, was in the city the first of the week visiting. He came up Sunday night and returned this morning.
Any one living in the city, who may want a 7x9 or cabinet view of his residence or business view call on me.
H. L. Frazier.
Lorin Amsberry, the younger son of ye scribe, and Charley Robinson, left Monday morning for Grand Island, where they will enter college.
Dr. J. G. Brenizer and wife, who have been absent from the city several days with their father and brother, Taylor and Walter Fleck, left for the south Monday morning.

The date of the Gold King has been set for Jan. 5th 1900. The favorite of last year with addition of new specialties by the best local talent; not a stale thing in the lot. Remember the date. Prices 10, 20 and 30cts.
At a meeting of the board of the Baptist State Convention at Lincoln Tuesday, Rev. C. W. Brinsted, of Fremont, was elected corresponding secretary and general missionary for the state, vice, Rev. F. M. Williams, resigned. Mr. Brinsted will move to Lincoln and enter upon his work at once. He is a young man of fine qualification and has been a very successful pastor.
J. M. Amsberry, editor of the Ansley Advocate, is in the city.
J. B. Osbourn, county clerk elect, has selected for his deputy Dr. Hakes. Just as we expected, our advice was not taken, and a tender foot was selected instead of the worthy and efficient deputy, B. W. Sillivan, who has served the public so satisfactorily the past two years under Geo. Richtmyer. But we can say for Dr. Hakes that we believe he is fully competent to fill the position, notwithstanding the fact that from a political standpoint his right to the position was not so great as others who were applicants. We are informed that the doctor was endorsed by some of the leaders of the party, which had its influence with Mr. Osbourn in making the appointment.

Farms for sale and lands for rent. Now is the time to get a farm cheap, as the cheap farms are all going and prices are commencing to advance rapidly.
J. G. Brenizer.
STRAYED—From my farm, 10 and a half miles north of Broken Bow, Jan. 1, a red cow, white spot in forehead, branded figure 5 on right hip.
JOHN DELANE
O. P. Perley is closing out his entire business and offering great bargains in groceries, dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes, farm implements, wagons, baggies, etc.
Do you want to buy acre property adjoining Broken Bow? I am offering choice from four different tracts of land. In quantities from five acres up to 440 acres.
WILLIS CADWELL.
Fred Rinne is laid up with a sprained ankle, the result of a fall on the icy side walk Monday morning. He is getting along very nicely and will be able to get around in a week or two.
Mike Scanlon has sold his farm north of town to David Alspaugh, and has again moved to the city. He is put in a lunch counter in the Eastham building north of the old land office, north side.
With this issue of the REPUBLICAN we commence the publication of an exegesis of the Sunday school lessons, by Rev. Geo. G. Burns, pastor of the Presbyterian church, for those who are interested.
Rev. J. S. Hadden occupied the pulpit in the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening, in the absence of the pastor, and administered the ordinances of baptism to four persons after the evening service.
Sargent was represented in Broken Bow last Thursday evening by Jim Barta, Howard Savage and Willard Fulton. Mr. Barta took the west bound train for Wyoming, where he went to square himself with a friend(?)
The sociable given last Friday evening at the residence of Dr. Day, by Messdames Day, Armour and Parmenter, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, was well attended and a very enjoyable time was had.
B. O. Sweazy, proprietor of the Commercial hotel has leased to Jas. Wright, who formerly occupied the Globe hotel on the north side. Mr. Sweazy has leased the Great Western at Omaha, a three story brick with 180 rooms of which he took possession Monday morning.
Harry Beebe and wife, of Chicago, came in Friday night on their holiday vacation, and remained until Tuesday morning visiting with Harry's former friends and old acquaintances. Mr. Beebe informs us that he is still with the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, where he has had office work for the past two years at very satisfactory wages.
DIED—Jacob Robinson, who for several months has been living in the southwest part of town, died Monday, Jan. 1st, at the age of 77 years last August. He was a former resident of Indiana, but has been a resident of Nebraska for the past fifteen years. He came from Mullen here. He is an uncle of Andrew Tree. The funeral of the deceased was held yesterday.

Found—A silk muffler, which the owner can get at this office by paying for this notice.
Mrs S. C. Blair, of Hillsdale, Iowa, is visiting in the city with her parents, Mr and Mrs David Brincent

Geo. Boggs, former member of Co. M returned to Grand Island Tuesday, where he will complete the course of the Business college at that place in another month. He is associate editor of the college paper.
Miss Hurlbut, who expects to organize a class in penmanship here, completed a course in penmanship at Fremont and the last year has been away taking a special course in art work. She is an excellent teacher in the art.
Miss M. E. Hurlbut will organize a class in penmanship to commence next Monday afternoon or evening. Either vertical or slant will be taught. Lessons also in pen art work, broad pen lettering, automatic shading pen work, drawing, crayon and pastel work. Call at Library rooms, east side of square, Saturday, from 2 to 8 p. m., and see specimens of work and get terms.
Rev. and Mrs. W. H. D. Hornaday were given a reception at the M. E. church Monday night and we are informed a very pleasant time was had. Quite a valuable purse was presented to him by his friends, but we have been unable to learn any of the particulars. They left Tuesday for Omaha where they will make their home while Mr. Hornaday is engaged in the anti-saloon work.
Rev. J. S. and Mrs. Hadden were given a farewell reception Tuesday night, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Day. Refreshments were served, a fine program rendered and a good time is reported. Initial silver napkin rings were presented them, by Willis Cadwell, in behalf of the contributors with appropriate remarks, to which Mr. Hadden responded in his usual happy manner. Toasts were responded to by Judge Armour and Dr. Day. Mrs. Mayer and Norma Rule furnished the party with some fine vocal music. They left this morning for Santiago California, where they will locate.
A unique holiday dinner was given last week by Jess Gandy to the members of the Broken Bow bar. For some time Jess has been contemplating doing the handsome thing to his legal friends, and when his wife left to spend the holidays away from home with the understanding that Jess should batch it while she was gone, Jess saw his opportunity. He slayed a turkey and invited the boys to come out. They went—Guttererson, Morgan, Shinn, Dean, Humphrey and Stockham. Jess prepared the dinner, tore apart the turkey, made the coffee and roasted the potatoes. The boys did it full justice and speak in high praise of Jess' culinary art. Dr. Willis Talbot and Chaplain Malley of the 1st Neb. came along and helped to make disappearing guns out of the dinner. An enjoyable time was had, shooting indulged in, and everything that goes to make a stag party harmonious and a good time.

Married.
Thomson—Mengel—At Grand Island, Jan. 1, 1900 D. W. Thomson and Miss Setta Mengel.
The bride is a well known and popular business lady of this city, for years having been engaged in the millinery business. She is a lady of high standing and enjoys the esteem of a large circle of friends. The groom located in Custer county nineteen years ago last fall on a half section of government land near Westerville. Four years prior to 1890 he was efficient deputy county clerk under J. J. Brown. He is now general agent for the Deering Manufacturing Co., and is located at Council Bluffs, Iowa. The REPUBLICAN extends to them congratulations.
Bridal Bells.
MARRIED—At the home of the bride's parents in Custer canyon, January 1st, 1900, Mr. Emmet Shoup to Miss Lizzie Booth, I. H. Russell officiating.
Mr. Shoup is a young man of sterling qualities, and is well respected by all who know him, while the bride to know her is to love her; with her merry loving disposition she throws sunshine all around her. May the life of this young couple be a long and happy one.

Philippine Letter.
San Isidoro, P. I., Nov. 3, '99.
Mrs Calista Grant:
Dear Aunt, Uncle and Cousins: I received your letter of Sept. 24 today. Just about one hour after writing the letter that will precede this I received an order to vamoose from the 2d Reserve Hospital to the 1st Division Hospital at this place. We left the next day, the 24th of October, on the train for Calumpit; we arrived there at noon, expecting to take the boat up the Rio Grande for here. We went into camp in an old sugar house and stayed there till Saturday, passing the hours swimming, boating and telegraphing for rations every two days. On Saturday we received orders from Gen. Otis to proceed by train to San Fernando and there report to the commanding officer of the U S V. for rations and escort. This we did and on the following Monday we left San Fernando, accompanied by the wagon train and a battalion of 34th U S V. We arrived here safely on Wednesday night, having hiked the distance of 40 miles through the mountains. On the train from Manila to Calumpit I met John Perrin; he has received the appointment of 2d Lieutenant in the 27th U S V. He has been running a store in San Fernando with Whitcomb, one of the Nebraska boys whom I will remember. This is a beautiful place; it is larger than San Fernando and better built. The natives did not destroy the fine buildings, and everything is in good order; it lies on the bank of the Rio Grande, 10 miles north of Mt. Arayat and 700 feet above the level of the sea. The days are fine and the nights are cool; the streets are shaded by large Mango trees and all kinds of fruit is in abundance. The people here are not of the same class as those around Manila; these are Papongas, and speak the Paponga language; they are not so filthy and seem to be a more progressive class than the Tagalos. I meant to have sent some Christmas presents home so that they would arrive about Christmas, but cannot as we will not be paid until January. Then I will do the best I can. Don't forget that Christmas box, for I got left last year, and you cannot imagine what a Godsend anything like that would be. Please send me some stamps, as we cannot get them here, and can not get to go to Manila on any excuse. I am working here in the office, and you may bet I am glad I didn't get into a ward. I got a letter today from Emmett with one of his pictures; it is as natural as any I ever saw. Well I must close as I have some letters to copy for the Major.
Your loving nephew,
CHAS. E. BUSBY,
1st Div. Hosp.
