

Local News in Brief.

J. C. Fleharty is ill with a severe attack of tonsillitis. He is being cared for at the hospital.

Hon. J. E. Evans returned Saturday night from Lincoln where he had been transacting G. A. R. business.

Sewing Machine Needles at Wilcox Department Store.

Rev. R. Randolph spent yesterday in Elm Creek. His special mission there was to conduct the funeral services of an old friend.

Inspector Swift of the postoffice department spent Sunday in town looking over affairs in the local office. He found Postmaster Hill's accounts all correct.

The post office was closed Saturday afternoon between the hours of two and four out of respect to the memory of Vice-president Hobart whose funeral occurred at Princeton during those hours.

E. B. Warner has commenced the task of moving his stock of furniture into his new store. The floor was oiled yesterday and the rest of the small finishing touches were added. By next week it is expected that the new store will be in use.

The Orr property in the western part of town again changed hands on Friday, John Vernon, who had just purchased it, selling it to E. B. McGinness at a slight advance on the original price. Mr. McGinness will take possession as soon as Mr. Orr moves to the Federhof place which he has leased.

H. C. Langdon has been appointed traveling engineer for the Nebraska division of the Union Pacific. He assumed his new duties Sunday. He will still make his home in North Platte as this will be the most central point. Harry's numerous friends are much pleased over his promotion.

The Wilcox Department Store will close at 10 o'clock Thanksgiving Day. Will not reopen until 7:30 Friday morning.

A mysterious man has recently been terrorizing women who have been out after dark unaccompanied by any escort. A good horsewhipping would be an excellent dose to mete out to a man who is despicable enough to enjoy frightening defenceless women. The policemen are on the trail of the man and he will undoubtedly soon be rounded up and given his deserts.

The Epworth League will clear thirty-five dollars as a result of the entertainment given by the Scandinavian quartette under the League's auspices Saturday night. The program rendered by the quartette was a very entertaining one and the large audience which heard them felt amply repaid for coming.

Thos. Healey, who had his hand crushed Friday morning at Sidney while he was making a coupling, came down that afternoon. He had his hand re-dressed soon after he reached here. It was at first thought that he would have to lose a finger but the physician is now of the opinion that it can be saved but it will always be stiff.

Dandelions are popularly supposed to be harbingers of spring but that supposition is evidently a mistake as far as Nebraska is concerned because at the present time there is a large number of the plants in blossom on the lawn surrounding the superintendent's office. The usual accompaniments of Thanksgiving are snow and ice but this year it is spring blossoms.

Will pay the highest market price prevailing for alfalfa seed. Send samples and ask prices.

Harrington & Tobin.
The anniversary of the founding of the H. T. club was very fittingly celebrated Friday evening at the home of the president, Miss Eunice Babbitt. Nearly every member, who was present, contributed a share toward the evening's entertainment and the result was an unusually delightful program with some very unique features. Oysters were served shortly before the members departed for their homes.

"It has become a household medicine with us—we cannot get along without it," writes Mrs. K. B. Wilson, Gordon, Ark., of Beggs' Cherry Cough Syrup, the guaranteed remedy for coughs, colds, la grippe, consumption and all bronchial affections. Never fails. A. F. Streitz

Youth's Clothes

Of the proper styles, fabrics and fit are here in abundance. Many clothiers try to fit youths or young men who measure 32 to 35 inches around the chest from the small sizes in their men's stock, cutting down and altering. We, however, carry a special stock of Youth's and Young Men's sizes, comprising—

Fashionable fabrics and cut in as modish a style as the young fellows like and ought to have.

Suits are cut with single and double-breasted coats and vests, trousers are shaped with a distinctive crease and break over the instep.

From $5 to $15.

New stock of White and Colored Shirts at $1.00.

ONE PRICE AND PLAIN FIGURES.

The secretary of the Interstate Commerce commission has notified the railroads, which have not yet fully obeyed the act of congress providing for safety couplings, that a hearing will be granted them in Washington, December, 9 as to the possibility of extending the time beyond January 1, 1900. The F. E. & M. V. R. R. announce that it has fully complied with the law but it is probable that the U. P. and the B. & M. will be among those who will ask for an extension of the time as a small per cent of the rolling stock is not yet equipped and cannot be before Jan. 1st.
