A Strong Southern Play.

The "Knobs or Tennessee" deals with the moonshiners and the troubles that are continually occurring between them and the government officials. Joe Preston is a leader among these men, yet mentally not of that character. A pleasing love story runs through the play in which Preston and Madeline Bailey, the cultured daughter of a wealthy resident of Nashville, are the principals. There are many romantic and pathetic scenes as well as thrilling ones, and the author has provided ample comedy. At the end of the second act Harry Preston's mother shoots him just as he is being taken to prison, to save him from hanging. This scene is well worked and never fails to win the audience. A novel feature of a later scene is the introduction of President McKinley in his private office. Preston and his son appear to plead for a pardon for the latter and his mother, which is granted. The play was a pronounced hit last season and is admitted by those who have seen it again this season to be far superior in every way to last year's production. It will be seen at the opera house Friday evening, March 16th.

District Court.

The March term of the district court opened Monday morning with Judge H. M. Sullivan on the bench. The first case that came up for trial was the well known case of the T. C. Austin Mfg Co. vs. W. M. Hinman. The evidence in the case was submitted to the jury on Monday and the arguments were made Tuesday morning. It went to the jury in the afternoon and they brought in a verdict in the evening in favor of the plaintiff awarding a judgment of $784. This case may be taken to the supreme court. The next case was Jas. P. Egan vs. B. Beer which was tried Wednesday. The case is a contest over the ownership of a section of railroad land. A verdict was rendered Wednesday evening in favor of the plaintiff and awarded him $120 rental for the land. The case will also probably be appealed to the supreme court. During Monday D. A. Baker, who had given bonds for the appearance of Lewis Woodruff at this term of court, was instructed to bring him into court but as neither of them appeared the bond was declared forfeited. Yesterday morning the court was occupied with the cases of the State vs. Chas. Blakeslee and the State vs. F. L. Disbro. The former plead guilty to the charge of breaking into a Union Pacific box car on the night of December fourth and was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary and to pay the costs of the prosecution. Disbro plead guilty to a charge of petit larceny and was sentenced to ten days in jail, to pay the costs of prosecution and make restitution to the Union Pacific of twenty dollars, the value of the goods which were taken from the car. Both men were let off rather easily because of the fact that they turned state's evidence. After the verdicts were rendered in these cases the jury-men were discharged and the court has since been occupied in hearing equity cases, motions, demurrers, etc.

Located at North Platte and Pawnee Ranch must be sold at once. The above property will be offered at PRIVATE SALE to the people of North Platte and vicinity for a short time only. What is not sold here will be shipped away and disposed of in other markets.

It is well known that for the last quarter of a century M. C. Keith has been buying and breeding some of the very best bloodlines in both horses and cattle, which could be secured in the United States. With his keen instinct and game judgment, no animal was too good or high priced for his Pawnee Ranch, and the records of Paddy, 2:11¼; Edith Wilks 2:13¼; Jessie Wilks 2:22½; Keith's Darknight 2:26½, and others which were developed, shows that he thoroughly understood the breeding business. Undoubtedly there are many others equally as fast and some faster, if trained and developed, and will be worth ten times the price asked for them now. The estate will sell them as they are, and if you want great bargains in good horses, call at once on

John W. Schadt, of Fremont, has succeeded in making a syrup from sugar beets which it is thought will prove to be a strong competitor for cane and other syrups. He has been familiar with the beet sugar business for a number of years and has been experimenting for some time with beet sugar syrups. The difficulty heretofore has been to obtain a syrup without any mineral salts in it, the salts making it unfit for cooking purposes.
The proposition to levy a tax for building a court house at Grand Island was defeated by quite a large vote.

Mrs. Chas. Abel, who was quite well known in North Platte, died very suddenly at Brady Wednesday afternoon. Her home is about eighteen miles north of Brady near Willard and she had been in Brady shopping. Her death occurred shortly after she had left the town and was almost instantaneous her companion in the wagon not realizing that she was even ill until she was dead. The remains were at once taken back to Brady. The physician decided that her death was due to heart disease from which she had been a sufferer for a number of years.
A FIENDISH ATTACK.
An attack was recently made on G. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Iowa, that nearly proved fatal. It came through his kidneys. His back got so lame he could not stoop without great pain, nor sit in a chair except propped by cushions. No remedy helped him until he tried Electric Bitters which effected such a wonderful change that he writes he feels like a new man. This marvelous medicine cures backache and kidney trouble, purifies the blood and builds up your health. Only 50c a bottle at Streitz's drug store.
