

A Food to Work On

Work! Work!! Work!!!

Lots of energy is needed to keep up the pace. In the struggle, the man with the strong body and clear brain wins out every time.

The man of to-day needs something more than mere food; he needs a food that makes energy—a food to work on.

Although some people may not realize it, yet it is a fact, proved and established beyond doubt, that soda crackers—and this means Uneeda Biscuit—are richer in muscle and fat-making elements and have a much higher per cent. of tissue-building properties than any other article of food made from flour.

That this is becoming known more and more every day is attested by the sale of nearly 400,000,000 packages of Uneeda Biscuit, the finest soda cracker ever baked. An energy-giving food of surpassing value—sold in a package which brings it to you with all the original flavor and nutriment perfectly preserved. Truly the food to work on.

Whoever you are—whatever you are—wherever you work—Uneeda Biscuit.

J. G. BRENZER, Breeder of Pure Scotch and Scotch Topped Short Horn Cattle. My herd numbers 40 cows. Will compare in breeding and quality with any west of Chicago. My experience has taught me that to give good satisfaction, breeding cattle must be raised in this attitude. I expect to raise them here the equal of anything raised in the U. S. I now have 25 bulls suitable for this, and next year's service. My cows weigh from 1400 to 2000 pounds. Come and see them.

MORE RAILROAD TALK.

Geo. W. Smith of Marshalltown, Iowa, is Enthusiastic for Broken Bow Prospects.

Since the agitation of the question of more railroads for Broken Bow, Geo. W. Smith of Marshalltown, Iowa, who is the owner of a splendid property here has been looking the matter up and he writes Ed. McComas that Broken Bow will only at an early day have another railroad centering here, but the town will be made a division station. On a recent visit to Chicago he was informed of the proposed building, and in a letter to Mr. McComas of the 9th he says:

DEAR SIR: Enclosed I hand you a clipping from the Chicago Tribune of October 22, which confirms the story told me at Chicago a few weeks ago. If you will see the Omaha Bee of the 18 and 22 of October you will get more fully details of the Burlingtons doings or intentions. Please give this to Brother Amsberry of the REPUBLICAN, if he has not already had it. I am glad to hear things are on the improve out there. I think central Nebraska today has the best and greatest future before it of any locality I know of for making security investments.

With kind regards, GEO. W. SMITH.

The clipping which he encloses from the Chicago Tribune is under the heading "Will Extend Burlington."

"General Maner Holdredge of the Burlington road today announced that the Burlington will at once begin the construction of 800 miles of road to extend its lines to Salt Lake.

"The line will start from a point near Broken Bow, Neb., and run to Bridgeport, Neb., where it will connect with the Guernsey (Wyo.) line.

"Work on a line from Guernsey to Salt Lake will start simultaneously with that on the Broken Bow-Bridgeport cutoff.

"The branch from Bridgeport eastward to the main line will be about 250 miles in length and the line from Guernsey to Salt Lake 550 miles long."

The article of the Bee of the 22 gives general details of the lines to be constructed west of here that are to connect with the Alliance line at or near Broken Bow through North Platte and west.

But the article referred to in the Bee of the 18th, is the one which brings the Northwestern into the deal. It predicts that the Northwestern is now surveying a route from Fremont to tap the Burlington at Broken Bow with the object of retaliation against the Burlington, which through the Great Northern invaded Sioux City and the surrounding country. The following is the article referred to that was published in the Bee of the 18th of October:

NORTHWESTERN STEALS A MARCH.

"Word comes from Fremont that a surveying party is in the field working on a new line from Fremont west to tap the Alliance branch of the Burlington, presumably about Broken Bow. While the information is not definite as to the road which is making the survey, it is generally understood to be the Northwestern. One official said when broached on the subject that the Northwestern was jumping into that territory heretofore exclusively Burlington as a sort of retaliation for the Burlington, through the Great Northern, invading Sioux City and its surrounding country."

The City of Tubariyel.

By C. S. Eckroth. This small city stands on the west bank of the sea of Galilee. This sea is fourteen miles long and seven miles wide. Between this city and the sea are the hot springs, with hospital built over them for all diseases.

This city, like the rest of the cities in the holy land, has seen many wars. It was built from 190 to 220 A. D. The Moslems explored it and established a Mohammedan government and this city a capital for that part of Galilee. In 637, A. D., the French captured and held it until 1187, A. D., when the Arabians captured it after a big battle. In 1240 the French came into possession of it again by a treaty with the Sultan of Damascus, and in 1247 the Sultan of Egypt took it. In the fore part of the year 1837 part of it was destroyed by an earthquake, but Abraham Pasha rebuilt it and improved the bath which stands over one of the hot springs next to the hospital. This bath is a great resort for those afflicted with rheumatism. It is claimed to be a sure cure.

In 1840 the Turks took it with the help of England and drove Abraham Pasha, with his army, out of all Syria and Palestine. The city has several schools for the Christians and one for the Jews.

The sea of Galilee is fresh water and a large number of streams empty into it. It is very largely stocked with fish and has large groves around it. In 1862 the population of the city was 2,500, and in 1890 over 4,000 inhabitants.
