[Miles City (Mont.) Stock Journal.]

The friends of Geo. W. Ballentine, stock agent of the B. & M. road, will regret to hear that he is suffering from a broken leg. His headquarters are at Lincoln, Neb.

[Arapahoe Pioneer.]

We understand that Geo. Sayer living west of town will bring suit against the B. & M. for damages to the amount of $400, for stock killed and other damages sustained by him.

[Arapahoe Mirror.]

Harry McDonald is filling the position of assistant clerk at the depot, the increase in railroad business at this point making it necessary for Station Agent Gordon to have two assistants.

[Holdrege Republican.]

Mr. Barnes of the B. & M. R. Co., has been in town this week securing the right of way for the branch line from this point northwest, for a distance of 30 miles, and work will commence as soon as all the preliminaries are settled.

[Red Cloud Chief.]

Miss Mahard, of McCook, is visiting at L. A. Haskins. A few days since John Parkes received a handsome quilt from his aged mother at McCook. The quilt was a birthday present, John having passed the first half century of his life.

[Republican City Topic.]

Twelve car-loads of ties are here, also two car-loads of switch material. The surveyors are locating several switches also a water tank and eating house. The contract is let and one of the sub-contractors who is here with his outfit tells us that he will begin work within eight days.

[Lincoln News.]

The contracts for the construction of the Burlington Road have been let. The new line is run from Republican, Neb., south-west to Oberlin, Kansas, a distance of 78 miles. Work is to be begun at once and the line completed by October 1. This will be a new feeder to the company's Denver line from a point practically without railway communication at present.

[Atwood (Kan.) Citizen.]

J. P. Mathes, of McCook, came in on Sunday last to see his stock—horses and cattle—of each of which he has a fine herd. Mr. Mathes is in the furniture business at McCook, and is having a large trade during the boom that is now upon us. The boss town of the extreme northwest is Bird City, in Cheyenne county. D. W. Cave, R. M. Pendarvis and A. L. Burr, of Alma, Neb., the Northwest Cattle Co., represented by B. Bird, Max Rich, of Lincoln, Neb., and W. H. Dimmick, of Ludell, all men of business and success have the enterprise in hand and they invite settlers and business men who want to succeed to come to their town. Cheyenne is second to no county in Kansas, has more water, better land, and more resources than all the counties south of it to the Indian Territory. The town company has been organized by the election of Benj. Bird, as President; Secretary, A. L. Burr; Treasurer, Max Rich. The company will hold their first meeting at McCook, Neb., Saturday, May 16th. If you want a good place to go start at once for Bird City.

I wish some strong, bright angel stood before you just now, as you read, girls, to flash before you, as no words of mine can, the power you possess to help or to hinder the cause of temperance, to make you feel your responsibility, because you are girls, in the matter; to shudder at its weight, and to never cease trying to fulfill it! Doubtless you have heard a great deal about the value of your smiles: but do you know the value of your frowns? I wish I could make you feel the value of your frowns, and the importance of knowing just what to frown upon. What a man must do by a blow a woman can do by a frown. When the time comes that the young man who now shares his time in your society and the saloon, who jokes about temperance in your presence, and takes a glass socially now and then, is made to feel that these things cannot be if you are to be his companion, at party, ride or church; that good society cannot tolerate these things in its members; in short, that this kind of man is unfashionable and unpopular—then alcohol will tremble on its throne, and the liquor traffic will hide its cancerous face.—Miss Cleveland.

THE Rev. J. M. Farnham, the pastor of a colored church at Charlotte, N. C., has ordered a pair of shoes from a Lynn, Mass., dealer, twenty inches long by seven and a half wide. As the much footed clergyman is six feet ten inches high and weighs 420 pounds, he will be the terror of the North Carolina mule when he gets his new shoes on.
