In the Republican last week appears another tirade against the editor of this paper. In so far as that article concerns us personally we care nothing—simply consider the vile source from whence it emanates. It is beneath our dignity as respectable news paper publisher to notice such contemptible attacks. But in regard to the truth of the statement made by this paper we propose to prove that it is a fact. The INDEPENDENT makes no statements without foundation and the Republican should learn not to judge us by itself. He says: "Republicans are not forced to such damnable work in pleading their cause." Now if we prove that our statement is true here is an admission that republicans are resorting to damnable work and circulating lies. Of the many republicans who are circulating this false report we have selected one man who is certainly a representative republican as he now holds the position in their party as precinct committeeman. We have selected this man to prove our assertion from the fact that we have known him for many years and know him to be a good honest, upright man who when he makes a statement will not deny it, and his standing for truth and veracity is as far above that of the Valentine man as the sun is above the man believed what he says to be the truth; and it was this false information that our outburst name of refer is to Mr. Peattie. We have made it our duty to refer to Mr. Peattie's own party records will vote our ticket to elect the populist candidates with large majorities. A populist would feel proud of himself to vote for a democrat and in that way help to elect a republican to office, now wouldn't he.

bing-and defrauding. Does he suppose that the people are not aware that the present county clerk is defrauding the county out of a large amount of fee received for abstract work that should be done by him but is being done by a private individual. It is poor grace for a man supporting a party with such a record, and which has a gambler and a saloon "bum" for two prominent positions on their ticket, to refer to any other party as a "rotten element" in politics. If you want more come again.

BEWARE of campaign lies.
PEOPLE are disgusted with proposed reforms. They will elect a party of reform.

It is discouraging work for a political party to make a campaign with a black record to face.

REPUBLICANS are growing uneasy—the shortage in the county offices is being discussed freely by the tax-payers.

DEFEAT the republicans by a large majority this fall and they will be dead for ever in so far as this county is concerned.

The low price of wheat and high price of flour is food for thought. Study this matter and find wherein lies the injustice, then vote for a party that will right the wrong.

We desire to urge upon the populists of our county the necessity of getting out to the polls. There has been a heavy immigration from the county which will make the vote very light. Never have all the populists turned out and voted. The record of the republican party is such that every populist should register himself against it. Consider yourself a committee of one to see that all your populist neighbors vote. We cannot afford to lose this election by negligence in going to the polls. We have the votes to elect our entire ticket let us get them out. Precinct committeemen should see that arrangements are perfected for this purpose. Don't miss a single man.

We have heard the political situation figured out this way: The democratic ticket will draw many populist votes and all the democratic votes, while we, the republicans, will hold our vote solidly and thus elect our entire ticket. The men who figure this way will be greatly surprised after election. When the republican can use the democrats as a cat's paw to defeat the populists it will be a cold day. It will result about this way: The populists will vote their ticket straight to a man, and a sufficient number of republicans disgusted by their own party records will vote our ticket to elect the populist candidates with large majorities. A populist would feel proud of himself to vote for a democrat and in that way help to elect a republican to office, now wouldn't he.

A Letter.
Mr. Editor:—The maximum mud can published by our republican friend has indulged in one of its characteristic explosions of filth. After using all its energy in throwing slurs and insinuation against our grand old leader Mr. Crabb. After trying to fasten on him mismanagement in our county convention and trying to emphasize it by airing the statements of our jealous misguided friend Mr. Godard. After the crooked have peddled the cheap insinuations of the failure of Mr. Crabb to collect the delinquent taxes until they have called down the righteous wrath of his host of friends, our small friend has endeavored to crawl out through a nail hole. While the mud battery supposed they were covering up Mr. Crabb with their filth, it was not hard to tell who was doing it. Now however after Mr. Crabb's election is generally conceded, and the gang of besmirchers have called down the indignation of an abused public, there is a general skedaddle to get out of sight. It isn't an easy matter either for those who are down in the republican pool fishing out such stuff wont readily and anything there that you wash it off. But our little friend Barker feeling less he sink out of sight in such a slushy place seeks to pull down the balance of the independent ticket so as to furnish him foundation enough to keep in sight long enough to enable his smallness to offer a cheap and miserable apology. It isn't the first time we have heard from his smallness. Two years ago he had the gall to stir one of our populist officials after winning an honest and fair election, before the public had a chance to test her work.

In our campaign work we have generally waived the advantage of calling the taking of hundreds of dollars from the county without equivalent by the cold name of theft, well knowing that had it been our case we would have been roasted to a cinder. We have borne the unkind, statements of opposition without a murmur after having been pledged fair personal treatment for like treatment. We have done all honest men could do to make this campaign one of principle rather than personality. We have went out from our homes to become the target of trained politicians, at some personal sacrifice, because we believed an outraged public need demanded it; and a party whose public organ falsifies the opposing candidates and workers for the sole purpose of covering up its own perfidy ought to be taught a lesson by the good people of this county.

CONSUMPTION
so pronounced
By the Physicians
SEVERE COUGH
At Night
Spitting Blood
Given Over by the Doctors!
LIFE SAVED BY
AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

Seven years ago, my wife had a severe attack of lung trouble which the physicians pronounced consumption. The cough was extremely distressing, especially at night, and was frequently attended with the spitting of blood. The doctors being unable to help her, I induced her to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, and was surprised at the great relief it gave. Before using one whole bottle she was cured, so that now she is as strong and healthy. That this medicine saved my wife's life, I have not the least doubt.—K. MORRIS, Memphis, Tenn.
