YOUR DOLLARS AND MY BOY

Written by L. R. Parsons, Chicago.

I want to thank you friend. You must know the heartfelt gratitude of a father with an only boy. He went with the troops, and I was proud. But I've had many a heartache since. They say he'll pull through now all right—because they found him just in time. Did your dollar bring my boy back from No Man's Land?

I want to thank you if it did—for your dollar has given me back my boy—it has brought him back to me out of No Man's Land, where many sons are going, where many will remain. Can I say this to you my friend? Surely, I can if you are a member of the Red Cross—or if you send in your personal subscription to the Red Cross now—for many a father's son will come out of No Man's Land by the aid of the dollars that go to swell the subscription lists of that great enterprise of humanity.
