Liberty Loan Cards.
C. F. Temple, county chairman of the Third Liberty loan, has sent out to every voter in the county a letter in which he urges the necessity of purchasing bonds. Accompanying the letter is a card which it is requested be filled out and returned to Mr. Temple. This card is to bear the writer's name and address, whether married or single, the real estate and personal property he owns, his estimated income, and the amount of money he has contributed to war activities, how many, if any, of the first and second issues of bonds he purchased.
If the party who receives a card fails to respond, he is likely to receive another letter from Chairman Temple which he may not enjoy and in which he will be cited to appear before the Council of Defense.

Many Taken into the Church.
Easter was a big, bright and glad-some day at the Presbyterian church. The services were attended both morning and evening by very large congregations, the Sunday school numbered 200, the music splendid and inspiring.
At the morning service twenty-four were received into the church, and twelve adults and three children baptized. One of the musical features of this service was a solo by Mr. Holland.

Legal Notice.
In the evening "The Risen King" was rendered by the choir under the direction of Mrs. Gilfoyl and was well received by a large congregation. At this service Mrs. Holland contributed a violin solo.
The class taken into the church Sunday makes a total of sixty-four since November 10th last, the date on which Dr. Curry assumed the pastorate—certainly a good showing.
