LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Miss Nora Anderson returned yesterday from Boone, Ia.

Clarence Owings went to Gothenburg on business yesterday.

F. P. Hoy, of Garfield, transacted business in town yesterday.

Attorney J. G. Beeler went to Ogalalla on business yesterday.

The W. R. C. will hold a ten cent social at the K. P. hall Saturday afternoon.

Cash Austin was off duty at the Dixon jewelry store, yesterday being ill with lagrippe.

Mrs. Albert Durbin left Wednesday for Wellfleet to visit relatives for a week or more.

Julius Pizer leaves tomorrow for Chicago and New York to purchase late novelties for the Leader. He will be absent a couple of weeks.

George Mooney, who was called here by the illness of his father, returned to St. Louis Wednesday night.

Mr. Williams, representative of the Busy Izzie Co., spent yesterday in town with Manager Stamp.

A. W. Archer, supervising architect of the federal building, left last night for a week's visit in the east.

Bert Boatmen, of Cheyenne, arrived Wednesday to take the place in the Western Union made vacant by the resignation of E. E. Lienbaugh.

Miss Ruth Winget entertained a score of her young friends last evening. Pleasant games were played and dainty refreshments served.

Attorney W. V. Hoagland received a draft yesterday from the Royal Highlanders for $3,000 payable to Mrs. Geo. Field for the policy held by her late husband.

Miss Effie Durbin who has been attending school in Fremont arrived Wednesday to visit her brother Albert Durbin and will spend a few days in Wellfleet before returning.

The M. B. A. social club held one of their bi-monthly dances and socials at the K. P. hall Wednesday evening. A good time resulted. At midnight refreshments were served.

A very large and interested audience greeted Ernest Untermann, the socialist speaker, at the Lloyd Tuesday evening. His subject, "Why Things Happen To Happen" brought out numerous good points of socialism and showed him to be a logical speaker.

Misses Bessie Graham and Marie Salisbury entertained the ladies of the L. Y. club at the home of the former Wednesday evening at a stag party. Various forms of amusement were provided for the guests and at a late hour a delicious two course lunch was served. Several flash light pictures were taken of the merry makers.

Vivian DeVere, who at one time hobbled with some of North Platte's swift young men, is now accused of having a corner on husbands and the court up at Valentine will proceed to unravel Vivian's tangle. Three living and one dead husband attest Vivian's winsomeness, and all these were accumulated within a few years. The only reason she did not allow a North Platte man to carry her away was because she could not find one possessing sufficient "dough" for her to keep up her Paris model gait.

Fire Department Ball.

The fire department has appointed Messrs. Tagader, Buchanan, McGowan, Russell, Davis and Bowman as a committee to make arrangements for the twenty-fifth annual ball which will be held April 8th, the evening following Easter Sunday. As this is the silver anniversary of this social function the committee is planning the biggest and best ever given, and it is probable that the results will prove that their efforts were successful.

Favors New Court House.

Editor Tribune:
I see by a recent issue of The Tribune that the county commissioners will build a vault for storing the records of the county treasurer. On the theory that every little bit helps, this may prove a make-shift, but why not build a new court house commensurate with the needs and wealth of Lincoln county? I have transacted business in many counties in Nebraska and in counties in other states, yet I have never seen such an inadequate court house in so popular and wealthy county as we have in Lincoln county. No one will deny that our records are poorly protected, that in case of fire the ensuing loss would be several times the cost of a new court house.

Divided among the several thousand tax payers of the county, the cost to each one would be small; and this is particularly true when you consider that the railroads, other corporations and non-residents pay at least one-third of all taxes assessed against Lincoln county property.

As one of the heavy tax payers in the county, I certainly would be glad to pay my proportion of the taxes necessary to be raised for a new court house, and I believe that all other progressive residents would fall in line. It seems to me that this new court house proposition should be taken up by the people of Lincoln county.

JULIUS PIZER.

"Busy Izzy" Well Named.

The Denver Post of last Monday gave the following notice of "Busy Izzy," which comes to the Keith on Tuesday of next week:

"Busy Izzy," at the Tabor this week is well named.

Not only is everybody in this bit of "musical foolery"—as the program characterizes the offering—kept on the move from the time the curtain goes up until it drops for the last time, but every one in the audience partakes of the business and finds it a running game to keep up with all the things that are going on.

A combination of burlesque show and vaudeville stunts is what it sums up. The hits of the show are several striking song features, and the "Turkey Trot" dance by Nick Basil as Yubi Quick, the bell hop, and Carrie Webber, as Rosetta, to the tune of Alexander's Rag Time Band.

Izzy Mark, the Hebrew character, as played by George Sidney, is kept well and humorously within the lines of realism and true humor. Basil the head dancer of the company, and Dick Hume, as Whiffington Waff, are winning laughs at their very appearance on the stage, and John J. Magee, as Gee Whiz, a country bumpkin, is decidedly good.

Izzy's business is largely caused by the fact that he is engaged in simultaneously owning and conducting a hotel and department store. These two establishments are the scene of the many funny situations with which the show abounds.

My general blacksmithing at 110 W. 6th St., is the largest and most fully equipped in western Nebraska. I can handle any work coming under the head of general blacksmithing, wagon and carriage work. I have as large a stock of heavy hardware, wagon and carriage woodstock as is carried by any shop in the state. I have modern machinery, electric power and can undoubtedly serve you quicker and better than those doing it the old way.

I would call your attention especially to disc sharpening. COLD ROLLING IS THE BEST, saves all the material, makes them a little harder and absolutely keeps the shape. Give us a trial and if I can't convince you, you get the job free of cost.

I give great effort and time to horse shoeing. Have a man employed that does nothing else and has given years of study to his special line. Horses will be treated kindly and all the work guaranteed perfect.

Plow work, wagon and carriage work done the best. Come and see me.

THE SECOND GRAVEDIGGER.

He Saw His Chance and Made a Big Hit in "Hamlet"

A company playing "Hamlet" was forced to find an actor to play the second gravedigger on account of the illness of the second comedian of the company. The only actor available was a variety performer who had no reverence for Shakespeare and no respect for the traditions of the classic drama. The second gravedigger was a comedy part, and he knew that he could "get away with it."

When the first gravedigger threw off the waistcoat, revealing another underneath, the audience tittered. The removal of the second waistcoat brought a loud laugh, and the third produced a roar. The first gravedigger was delighted. He had never played to such an appreciative audience, and visions of good notices in the papers and a possible increase in salary began to loom up before his eyes. As he threw off the fourth waistcoat he turned partially around, and the cause of the unusual hit was disclosed to him.

The second gravedigger, being accustomed to build laughs on lines and business of other actors, saw his opportunity and seized it. As fast as the first gravedigger would throw the waistcoats on the ground the variety comedian would pick them up and put them on. The new business was much funnier to the audience than the old, with which it was thoroughly familiar.

Not content with having stolen the laughs from the regular comedian in this scene, the new man went further. When the first gravedigger said to him, "Go, get thee to Yaughan; fetch me a stoup of liquor" (to which there is no reply in the text), the assistant sexton replied:

"Yaughan told me to tell you that you couldn't have any more liquor from him till you paid for the last you got."—Emmett C. King in Bookman.

It is not always the most expensive teas that are best to brew or drink.

The most important point to consider about tea is its suitability for brewing in the water of a particular district. Tea that would be good here, and brew into a splendid beverage, might be a rank failure somewhere else.

We buy our teas to suit the water of this district. You are therefore sure of getting tea that is all that tea should be—fragrant, refreshing, and thirst-quenching. A trial will make you a constant user.
