Miss Elizabeth Pickens the reigning queen of Ak-Sar-Ben, is a prominent young society woman, and has many heavy social duties. She is an enthusiastic church worker and has recently been elected president of the altar guild of All Saints' church. Miss Pickens, assisted by the young women of the altar guild, will devote her time to the making of dainty articles for the Christmas fair, which will be given at the Wattles Memorial Parish house early in December.

Miss Pickens will be assisted in her work by Miss Gladys Peters, who has been one of the special maids to the queen of Ak-Sar-Ben; Miss Trimble and Miss Mary Richardson.

Mrs. Thomas Latham Davis, who is president of the Parish Aid society of All Saints, is a former Ak-Sar-Ben queen, and has many social demands upon her time. Mrs. Davis, who is an enthusiastic bridge player and belongs to one of the swimming classes, and is also seen on the golf links, is never too busy to give her time and attention to the work of the church.

Mrs. Glenn Wharton, another former queen of Ak-Sar-Ben, assists with the church work at All Saints.

For many years Mrs. Frederick Rouse of Baltimore, formerly Miss Brownie Bess Baum, who was an Ak-Sar-Ben queen, was one of the workers in the altar guild.

Mrs. E. M. Fairfield was the first queen of the Ak-Sar-Ben and has for many years been one of the women who has done a great deal in the work at Trinity.

Among the women of Trinity who are spending many hours in work for the success of the Christmas bazaar are Mrs. Isaac Coles, who is president of the Parish Aid society, and Mrs. George Voss, president of the altar guild. Both of these women have many social demands made upon their time, but never shirk in their efforts toward the work in the church, and are assisted by a number of young society girls.

Lady-Storz Wedding.

The spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Storz was the scene of a beautiful autumn wedding last evening at 7 o'clock, when Miss Louise Marie Storz became the bride of Mr. Carl Lady of Berlin, Germany.

A profusion of large chrysanthemums, shading from white to deep yellow, and palms and ferns made the rooms unusually beautiful.

The bridal party came down the broad stairway and through the reception hall and then entered the drawing room, where the ceremony was performed under a canopy of green asparagus ferns and white chrysanthemums. Rev. T. J. Mackay, rector of All Saints' church, officiated.

The bride was charming in her wedding gown of white brocade charmeuse made with square court train reaching from the shoulders. The brocade was draped over white chiffon, showing a panel on one side of the skirt embroidered in rhinestones. The bodice of chiffon was partially draped with the brocade and the low cut neck and short sleeves were trimmed with silver lace. On one side of the bodice was a conventional design embroidered in seed pearls and rhinestones. A lace cap held the long tulle veil in place and she carried a shower bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. The groom's gift was a diamond and pearl brooch.

Miss Olga Storz was maid of honor and wore pink charmeuse with fish-tail train, the entire gown draped with shadow lace and the bodice and sleeves embroidered in rhinestones. She carried a shower bouquet of Maryland roses. Little Miss Dorothy Higgins, niece of the bride, was ring bearer and wore a dainty white frock with pink sash and pink ribbons in her hair.

Little Misses Elsie Storz and Ruth Carter were flower girls and wore white lace frocks over pink charmeuse. They carried baskets of pink roses. Mr. Adolph Storz was best man.

Following the ceremony there was a reception and wedding supper for the guests. The music room was a bower of pale pink chrysanthemums and in the dining room yellow chrysanthemums were used. A large basket of these blossoms formed the centerpiece for the table.

Mrs. G. Storz wore a handsome costume of imported Venetian lace draped over white satin charmeuse.

Mrs. E. A. Higgins was gowned in gold brocade draped; the bodice was trimmed with shadow lace.

About seventy-five guests were present and assisting were Mrs. E. A. Higgins, Mrs. Adolph Storz, Miss Ophelia Hayden, Miss Katherine Krug, Miss Irma Wiederman and Miss Flora Buck.

THE VIOLYN PLATE In the KRANICH & BACH PIANO. adds the most important element of perfection that all piano manufacturers have worked thirty years to obtain. This marvelous improvement now makes possible a longer sustained, much purer and more voice-like tone than has ever before been obtained from an upright piano. And it keeps the piano in perfect tune a much longer time than any piano without it. The Kranich & Bach is the only piano in the world constructed with the "Violyn" plate. An interesting little book describes it fully and will be sent free to those writing for our new catalogue. EVERYTHING IN ART & MUSIC A. HOSPE CO. OMAHA - NEBR. 1513-15 Douglas Street
