

FUNERAL RITES FOR LATE VICE PRESIDENT ARE HELD IN UTICA

Short Ritual Service of Dutch Reformed Church is Conducted at Home by Rev. Holden.

PUBLIC SERVICE AT CHURCH Brief Address by Dr. Stryker Follows Music and Prayer.

PRESIDENT TAFT IS PRESENT He is Accompanied by Cabinet Members and Other Officials.

SENATE DIRECTS CEREMONIES Body Will Be Taken to Forest Hill Cemetery, Where it Will Be Placed in Crypt in Sherman Mausoleum.

UTICA, Nov. 2.—All arrangements for the funeral rites of the body of Vice President Sherman provided for a private religious service at the Sherman mansion; the transfer of the body from the residence to the First Presbyterian church, the public service at the latter place, the removal of the body to Forest Hill cemetery and its commitment to the Sherman mausoleum.

To the Rev. L. H. Holden, D. D., pastor of the Reformed Dutch church, was assigned the sole conduct of the ceremony at the house, while the services at the church were placed under the direction of Dr. M. W. Stryker, president of Hamilton college, assisted by Dr. Holden.

The program for the home services contained no provision for a sermon or eulogy. Its principal features were prayers from the Dutch church liturgy and scriptural readings.

Proceedings of a more general character were provided for at the church. Service is brief. Provision was made for only the briefest service possible. It was arranged to be a simple and dignified affair.

Dr. Stryker's address was very brief. He said: In solemn and united mourning, but with calm gratitude and devout hope we are met in this house of faith to remember him whose form is here in all the mysterious dignity of death.

The high representatives of the nation and the state meet with us with keen human sympathies to make, however inadequately, a sincere tribute of manly regard and affection to the name of a faithful fellow servant and an endeared companion.

The community gathers to have part in these devout labors and to share with us the grief which identifies you with their grief.

I speak also for that college circle which had delight and honor in electing a loyal comrade for the trustees whose real and labor he shared.

Even with utmost brevity I may not recite his consistent and influential career, nor his noble and patient patience, written past recall.

Good servant, great heart, gentle friend, farewell. We shall miss you tonight, still lodging in tents, but thy secure abode where all shadows are swallowed up in the light of the immortal. Thanks be to God for every good thing done, for every victory won through pain, for the captain of the people, guiding by angel hands to where beyond these voices there is peace.

WOODROW WILSON, TRIMMER

Demonstrates Ability to Adjust Himself to Political Expediency.

SAYS HE IS AGAINST TRUSTS However, He Applies Soft Pedals to Their Treatment in His State—His Tariff Utterances Do Not Agree.

By CHARLES D. HILLES, Chairman Republican National Committee

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—(Special)—Woodrow Wilson closed his campaign in New Jersey, appealing to the voters to elect only democrats to the state legislature, including James Smith, Jr.'s nominee. Here as elsewhere we find Doctor Wilson able to adjust himself to political expediency.

That makes even Marsie Henry Waterson and Colonel George Harvey wink and smile. Doctor Wilson has said, in excusing the failure of his administration to regulate trusts in New Jersey, that the republicans controlled the legislature. That is another of his campaign quibbles.

There seems now to be no escape for the Turks. The Bulgarians are following up their success with a dash that surprises the world.

Where Does Wilson Stand? He has declared the tariff question to be the chief issue of the campaign, but nowhere at no time has he made a definite, specific declaration of his own position in regard to the tariff.

When Dr. Wilson undertook to condemn President Taft for vetoing the demerol, crude, political tariff bills passed by the democratic congress leaders, Secretary Nagel of the president's cabinet asked him squarely this question: "Would you, Governor Wilson, have signed the four tariff measures vetoed by President Taft, if you had been president?"

Dr. Wilson knows as well as anyone that in the polls the radical element of his party would dominate the caucuses of his party in congress and that tariff legislation would be undertaken immediately after his inauguration.

Does any voter suppose that Dr. Wilson, if elected president, would veto any democratic tariff bill sent to him by congress? Then why his evasion?

Only two days remain before the election. The American people must determine by their votes how they wish their business administered.

They have the opportunity to declare their approval of an honest, efficient, economical, wise and just administration; or, they may declare their disapproval of a demagogic, dishonest, unscrupulous, and unprincipled administration.

To deny President Taft's re-election would be to return to older and more "practical" political methods in the national administration. Its reactionary effect would be felt not only in future national elections, but in every state and local election for years to come.

LONDON TAKES LEAD IN NEGOTIATIONS TO END WAR IN BALKANS

BULGARIANS CONTINUE ADVANCE May Reach Constantinople in Advance of Defeated Turks.

MAY DICTATE THE TERMS THERE No Attempt Will Be Made to Permanently Hold the Capital.

BATTLE IS RAGING AT MARAS Bloody Fight for Control of Bridge Leading to Adrianople Has Been in Progress for Many Hours.

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Active negotiations are progressing in London with a view to bringing the Balkan war to an end. The British Foreign office, usually one of the quietest places in London on Saturday, was all bustle this afternoon.

Only two lines of forts, both known as Tehtaltja, one to the northwest of the fortified city of Adrianople, and the other stretching across the peninsula outside of Constantinople, now stands between Turkey and the total obliteration of its power in Europe.

There seems now to be no escape for the Turks. The Bulgarians are following up their success with a dash that surprises the world.

What the Bulgarians always have aimed at is the occupation of the province of Adrianople, which comes down to a line between the Black sea and the sea of Marmora, near the base of the peninsula.

CONSERVATIVES WIN IN CUBAN ELECTIONS

Later Returns Confirm Report of Sweeping Victory for Menocal.

ISLAND IS GENERALLY QUIET In One Small Town Registration Lists Were Destroyed and One Man Was Killed in Quarrel.

HAVANA, Cuba, Nov. 2.—The sweeping victory of General Mario Menocal and the conservative candidates for the presidency and vice presidency, and for the rest of the conservative ticket for the offices of the Cuban republic appears to be fully confirmed by the returns received in the provinces today.

There is practically no doubt that the conservatives carried all the provinces with the possible exception of Matanzas, but in some places the vote was extremely close.

PROMISE OF VICTORY PERCHES ON BANNERS OF THREE PARTIES

Close of the Presidential Campaign Finds All Leaders Confident of Success Next Tuesday.

STATEMENT OF MR. HILLES He is Sure Verdict of People Will Vindicate the President.

M'COMBS IS ALSO CONFIDENT He Says Wilson Will Carry Every State in the Union.

GATHERING UP LOOSE ENDS All that Remains to Be Done is to Complete Arrangements to Get Out Vote and for Watching the Polls.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Activities that have reached into all corners of the nation came to a head here today, at the national headquarters of the three leading political parties.

The promise of victory perched upon every headquarters banner tonight, inspired by telegrams from local chairmen throughout the states, the democratic, republican and progressive chairmen, respectively, asserted either that victory was in their grasp or that conditions were such that a tide of votes to their respective candidates might be expected in the election Tuesday.

At democratic headquarters the claim of complete victory in the general election was made without qualifications. National Chairman William McCombs declared that Governor Wilson not only would carry a great majority of the states, but his vote in strong republican states would be surprising.

Charles D. Hilles, republican national chairman: "The most remarkable campaign within the memory of the present generation has drawn to a close and we now await the verdict of the American people. I am confident that the verdict will carry with it a vote of confidence in the courageous, unostentatious and patriotic leadership of William Howard Taft, and that it will continue the present splendid administration of achievements under which the American people have made such marked progress and experienced so abundant prosperity."

"Nothing short of a political revolution of which there are no indications could place the election of Mr. Taft in jeopardy. In my opinion he will receive enough votes in the dependable republican states to assure him a sufficient number in the electoral college and enough in doubtful states to swell the total into a decisive victory."

William McCombs, democratic national chairman: "On the eve of an election which closes what has been in many ways the most remarkable campaign in a score of years, I am confident of a sweeping victory for the democratic ticket. I do not concede a single state in the union to the other parties. We will carry the strongest republican states. We will win, and win by the most impressive figure in the history of our party."
