WICK TRIES A CLEVER GAME

Joint Proprietor Substitutes Three Defendants in Police Court.

SAW SCHEME TO SAVE MONEY

By Making Substitutions He Sought to Save the Difference Between Small Fines and Forfeiture of Bonds.

August Wick, one of the proprietors of the notorious Ninth street dive, attempted a clever substitution of prisoners before Judge Foster to save the difference between fines and forfeitures, and he nearly got away with it. Among those rounded up in the raid on the joint Saturday night, were E. J. Storey, Jack Lyon and John Lyon. Along with others they were released on $5 bonds each, furnished by Wick & Moore. At the hearing Monday morning their attorney, Harry Zimmon, asked for continuance until Friday. Their cases were called Friday morning and they did not appear. The judge was about to declare their bonds forfeited, when Wick saw a chance to save a little money. He declared he would go out and find the defendants, and within a half hour he returned with three men who declared that they were the defendants sought.

Scheme is Uncovered.

It was discovered afterward that they were three substitutes who had been previously fined, and John Doe warrants have been sworn out for their arrest. Wick's scheme was this: The judge was fining the inmates $5 and costs, or $7.50 in all. He knew if he could get substitutes for the men who did not appear he would save the difference between the $5 fine and the $7.50 forfeit, thus saving $2.50 in the three cases. It is probable that Wick will be arrested to answer for his manipulation of the substitutes.

An even 100 candidates crossed the burning sands Friday afternoon and became members of Tangier Temple, Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine. The meeting was the closing of a very successful reunion of the Scottish Rite lodges of the state. Shriners from all parts of the state and from South Dakota, Iowa and Minnesota were present at the big initiation at Masonic Temple, Sixteenth and Dodge streets. The mysteries of the order were explained to the candidates by James A. Howard of Benson, illustrious potentate, who was in charge of the initiation. The divan consisted of the remaining, John E. Simpson, chief ribbon; C. C. Howe, assistant ribbon; George Wolf, high priest and prophet; Fred Rogers, oriental guide; H. J. McCartney, director; F. F. Whitcomb, first ceremonial master and Tinley Combs, second ceremonial master. The meeting was followed by an immense theater party at the Orpheum last night, when over 1,900 Shriners, wives, daughters and sweethearts, were in attendance. The entire house was reserved with the exception of a few seats for persons holding season tickets.

Decision of Court Puts California in Wilson's Column

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 22.—A decision of the appellate court handed down today apparently insures a majority for Woodrow Wilson in California of about 100 votes, and nearly all, if not all, of the electors sent by the state to the electoral college. The court order, while taking up in detail every point in the election controversy which has waged here for nearly three weeks, decides especially that in one precinct in Pasadena and one in Los Angeles only the votes for A. J. Wallace, the head elector on the progressive ticket, and Thomas J. Griffin, the head elector on the democratic ticket, may be counted, because in checking all the other electors in those precincts the election boards kept no tally of the votes cast, merely certifying the totals. This the court held to be an error invalidating those votes. The two precincts together gave Roosevelt a majority of about 300 votes. As with this number included the majority in the state for Wallace, the highest Roosevelt elector, stood only forty tonight, it seemed inevitable that with the exception of Wallace the Roosevelt electors in the state must be defeated.

INFORMATION ON CANCER PUBLISHED BY COMMITTEE

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—The Chicago Medical society cancer committee, appointed to co-operate with a similar committee appointed by the clinical congress of surgeons recently in session in New York, today issued a bulletin in pursuance of the campaign of publicity being carried on against cancer. Following are the chief recommendations of the bulletin: Cancer in the beginning is a local disease. No cure for cancer has been discovered except surgery. Cancer if operated on immediately will not return. Advanced cancer cannot be cured by surgery, hence the need of seeking surgical aid at once. Cancer of the breast shows its first sign by a lump in any part of the breast, by contraction of the nipple or by pains under the arm. Cancer of the stomach begins with indigestion, loss of flesh and general weakness. Cancer of the internal organs shows itself by irregularity in their functions. Education of the public on cancer will save thousands of lives each year as it has done in consumption and appendicitis. The Chicago Medical society cancer committee has been made permanent and will answer inquiries and furnish literature on application.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 22.—Resolutions advocating a more rigid anti-trust law, honest advertising laws, the repeal of the parcel post law and the defeat of the Oldfield bill against price fixing were adopted this afternoon at the closing session of the first annual convention of the National Federation of Retail Merchants. J. M. Maloney of Detroit, Mich., was re-elected president. Other officers chosen were: First vice president, A. H. Nelson, Ottumwa, Ia.; second vice president, J. T. Russell, Chicago; third vice president, W. A. Decker, Grand Rapids, Mich.; secretary, G. W. Sawhins, Toledo, O.; treasurer, A. L. Holmes, Detroit, Mich.

EX-PRESIDENTS GET PENSION

To Enable Former Executives to Use Knowledge for Public Good.

SIMILAR AMOUNT TO WIDOWS

Payments to Terminate When Other Provisions are Made—Pensions to Be Offered at Once Without Solicitation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Future ex-presidents of the United States are to be pensioned in the sum of $25,000 each annually by action of the Carnegie corporation of New York today. The grant is provided for with the idea of enabling former executives of the nation to devote their unique knowledge gained in public affairs to the public good, free from pecuniary care. A similar amount is to be paid widows of ex-presidents as long as they remain unmarried. The pensions are to be promptly offered to the ex-presidents or their widows so that no application will be required from them. Payment is to be continued so long as the recipients "remain unprovided for by the government."

The announcement followed the second annual meeting of the corporation held at the residence of Andrew Carnegie here and attended by the corporation's eight trustees. Five of these eight trustees are the heads of the five institutions which Carnegie has founded: The Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, Ellhu Root, president; the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, Henry S. Pritchett, president; the Carnegie institution of Washington, Robert S. Woodward, president; Carnegie Hero Fund commission, Pittsburgh, Charles L. Taylor, president. The successors of the five men became ex-officio trustees of the Carnegie corporation of New York. In addition there are three life trustees—Andrew Carnegie, Robert A. Franke and James Bertram. The trustees authorized this statement of the corporation's aims:

Grant Sum Available.
"A total of $25,000,000 in securities," says the announcement, "has thus far been transferred to the corporation, which will carry on the various works in which Mr. Carnegie has been engaged and such others as he may from time to time think it advisable to establish. Mr. Carnegie believes he has taken the surest means of securing for the future a body of the best possible trustees. The heads of the institutions named must inevitably be men of high moral and intellectual standing. They are empowered by a two-thirds vote to modify or discontinue any branch of the service which in their judgment has become inadvisable or unnecessary or if better use can be made of the funds and also to adopt from time to time such work as by them may be deemed most desirable for the wants of the age, so that from age to age the fund may be expended upon the most profitable work, whether that be the promotion of new ideas or the development of those of the day."
In the meeting the trustees took under consideration a number of matters directly in their keeping and concerning the details of which no announcement was made, but the principal to be passed on was the pension plan for ex-presidents of the United States and their widows.

Taft Says Nothing.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—When informed tonight of the action of the Carnegie corporation of New York in providing pensions for future ex-presidents of the United States, President Taft said it was a very novel and very unexpected proposition, but that he preferred to make no comment upon it tonight.

UNION LABOR CELEBRATES NEW FOOTHOLD IN HILLS

DEADWOOD, S. D., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The third anniversary of the lockout of the union employes by the Homestake Mining company will be celebrated by the union men and members of the Western Federation of Miners on Sunday, November 23. The celebration will consist in the commencement of work at a mine which will employ nothing but union labor. Since the lockout three years ago, which the Homestake inaugurated and the other companies followed, there has been no company of importance in the Black Hills employing union labor. The company to break the ice and again give the Western Federation of Miners a foothold in the Black Hills is the Deadwood Homestake. Their property, consisting of 250 acres, lies east of and adjoins the Homestake mine. The plan has been promoted by C. E. McHugh and the financing of the proposition is being assisted by the Western Federation of Miners and other labor organizations.

Minyard is Only Figurehead in the Fake Stock Concern

CINCINNATI, Nov. 22.—F. D. Minard, arrested in Cleveland in the government raids on alleged fake stock selling concerns, was only a figurehead and not the brains of the firm of Minard, Malcolm & Co. It developed today when Minard was brought here to be questioned by federal officers that he, himself, is penniless, though the scheme in which the firm is said to have been involved brought to its promoters $1,000,000. Minyard intimated that he might make interesting revelations of the operations of the men under indictment. The men arrested on the five indictments will face the United States district court here on the opening day of the February term. This arrangement has been made by the government and the bonds signed for the men provide for their appearance here at that time. Four of the five are under arrest, but J. Gordon Malcolm is still at large and is said to be in Canada.

Murderer of Three Pays Penalty for His Crime in the Chair

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 22.—Domitio Selvaggio, an Italian, was electrocuted here tonight for the murder of three of his countrymen in September, 1911. Father Kelly, penitentiary chaplain, administered the last rites of the church to Selvaggio, who made only one request before he died, that he be allowed to kiss a crucifix. One shock of more than 1,000 volts was given, after which Selvaggio was officially pronounced dead at 12:04.

Sneed's Attorney is Fined for Contempt

FORT WORTH, Tex., Nov. 22.—It cost Cone Johnson of counsel for J. B. Sneed, $100 today to work into the record an important defense link in Sneed's second trial for the alleged murder of Captain A. G. Boyce.

Despite sharp orders from the court to be silent Johnson repeatedly voiced a question which the court had prohibited, and though he was unable to complete his query he forced it to the point where the court fined him $100 for contempt. Mr. Johnson paid the fine, declaring he made his question sufficiently of record to be used in case of an appeal.

The question was intended to bring out evidence by which the defense hopes to prove that Captain Boyce gave his son money to elope with Mrs. Sneed, and also that an employe of Captain Boyce was sent to Fort Worth to assist in the elopement.

Priest and Firemen Overcome by Smoke

LOWELL, Mass., Nov. 22.—A priest and twenty firemen were overcome by smoke from a fire which today destroyed the interior of St. Jean Baptiste church, a large French Catholic edifice. The financial loss is estimated at $100,000. About 150 worshippers were attending mass when the fire was discovered in a room behind the altar. A moment later the gaslights went out and there was a slight explosion. The officiating priest requested the congregation to leave and they walked out quietly.

Rev. Father Baron, who went into the building with others to save the statuary and vestments, was overcome by smoke and had to be carried out.

Missing Woman's Hat Found Beside Pond

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 22.—The discovery of a hat belonging to Miss Norma Garvin, daughter of former Governor L. F. C. Garvin, beside a pond near her home in Lonsdale today, led the police to drag the pond. The search was without result, but will be continued tomorrow.

Friends of Miss Garvin recalled tonight that the young woman had frequently complained of trouble with her head and expressed a fear of meeting death in the water. The finding of her hat near the pond caused her family to fear her body will be found there.
