AFFAIRS AT SOUTH OMAHA

Police Raid Resort and Make Seven Arrests.

DECLARE MORE TO FOLLOW

Packers Expect to Receive Contracts for Beef for Army Soon and May Speed Up Their Plants.

Police yesterday afternoon raided the house at 2311 N. street, known as "Little Reno," and arrested half a dozen men and one woman.

It is expected by packing house men at South Omaha that army contracts for beef and mutton contracts will be received here within a few days.

General Manager R. C. Howe of Armour & Co. said yesterday that he had received no orders as yet to fill army contracts.

Morgan Healy, one of the board of governors of the Centurion club, contacted the club members yesterday.

The club rooms are located in the school building. The library is furnished in oak, the gift of Morgan Healy.
