

JANITOR MAY LOSE HIS JOB

Hansen of Howard Kennedy School Now in Danger.

OUTCOME OF A GAS DEBATE

School Board Will Investigate and Determine Later What Course of Action to Take in the Case.

A janitor may lose his job and certain rabid opponents of the gas franchise ordinance may be called to account for a disturbance at a meeting held in Howard Kennedy school last Monday night.

While the offense is not a crime, said Attorney Herring, "it is specifically provided in the law that the school buildings shall be opened for certain purposes and the settling of gas franchise questions is not one of these purposes.

"We'll have to investigate the matter," said President Holovitchner of the Board of Education. "The janitor was without authority to open the school for such a meeting. Upon his shoulders will probably rest the blame."

At the secret conference held by Holovitchner, Graff, Walker, Finlayson and Herring the proposition of selling the present site of Saratoga school was discussed.

"It looks like we can't sell the site and give a valid deed," said Holovitchner, "because the ground was donated to the school district in 1904 when Nebraska was still a territory and under the grant reverts to the heirs of the former owners."

District Boundaries Changed. At the meeting last night the boundaries of school districts were modified as follows.

Miller Park—City limits on north, south on Thirty-ninth street to Ida, east on Ida to Thirty-sixth street, south on Redick avenue, east on Redick avenue to Thirtieth street, south in Browns, east on Browns to Twenty-sixth street, north on Twenty-sixth street to Fort street, east on Fort to the boulevard.

Edward Rosewater—To the present district the following territory was added: That space bounded by Seventeenth street on the west, Elm street on the north and Fifteenth street on the east. On the east side of Thirteenth street between Spring street and Central boulevard, Eighteenth street and city limits.

Superintendent Graff and President Holovitchner were delegated to attend the fourth annual meeting of the international congress on school hygiene in Buffalo and to visit several technical schools while in the east.

Schools Cost More. Secretary Bourke's summary of the financial transactions of the board for the year ending December 31, 1912, showed that approximately $100,000 more had been spent in 1912 than in 1911. At the first of the year there was a cash balance of $90,422.95 on hand in the general fund.

F. P. Gould & Son, contractors who secured the contract for constructing the Miller Park school, will be notified that unless they proceed within three days to work toward the completion of the building their contract will be canceled and the board will finish the school and charge it to the contractors.

Six Trains to Take Omaha and South Omaha to the Fair. Tentative schedules have been arranged for the trains that are to carry the crowds of Omahans and South Omahans to Lincoln and return on September 5 for Omaha and South Omaha day at the state fair.

WITHELL WOULD PROVIDE SAFEGUARDS FOR THEATERS. C. H. Withnell, commissioner of fire protection and water supply, has issued an ordinance covering the management of local theaters, which he believes will limit the danger to life to a minimum.

Mother of Eighteen Children. "I am the mother of eighteen children and have the praise of doing more work than any young woman in my town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin, Boone Hill, Va. "I suffered for five years with stomach trouble and could not eat as much as a blivet without suffering. I have taken three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and am now a well woman and weigh 100 pounds. I can eat anything I want to, and as much as I want and feel better than I have at any time in ten years. I refer to any one in Boone Hill or vicinity who will vouch for what I say." For sale by all druggists.—Advertisement.

Nebraska Soldiers Will Break Up Camp Early This Morning

Nebraska National Guardsmen at Waterloo were paid yesterday and will break camp at 5 o'clock this morning and leave on special trains for their homes.

Governor Morehead, who, with his staff and family have been camped with the soldiers at Waterloo, left for Lincoln Monday night.

Only seven men are now in the hospital and the condition of these is not serious. They will be able to leave with their companies this morning, with the exception of one case of poison from ivy.

Adjutant General Hall believes the maneuvers and the battle at the Elkhorn bridge at Waterloo have given the young soldiers of the state a training of which they were much in need. He is well pleased with the result of the maneuvers.

MULLEN HITS 16-YEAR-OLD BOY

Former Attorney General for Nebraska Enters into the Fight and Strikes Youth, Knocking Him to Pavement.

Just as 5 o'clock was heralded by many whistles and clock chimes, Israel Goodman, a newsboy, attempted to force Harry Brookstein into selling him some sport extras, although Brookstein had orders to the contrary unless Goodman paid a previous bill for evening papers.

Goodman persisted in following Brookstein, even after Brookstein warned him to quit, and repeatedly told him he could sell him no extras, and crowded and shoved, which irritated Brookstein until he pushed the newsie away several times.

Seeing a crowd rapidly congregating in front of the bank, Traffic Officer Smith, who is stationed at Sixteenth and Farnham streets, burst upon the scene and put a stop to the riot. Also a large crowd of newsies showed up and an argument arose between the newsies and several alleged law-abiding citizens which taxed the patience and diplomacy of the officer before he eventually put a stop to the vociferous outbursts of the obstreperous debaters.

Mullen Wanted Boy Arrested. Mullen desired to have the Brookstein had arrested, but Smith failed to see how he could arrest Brookstein without holding Mullen, also. As Mullen has no desire to be incarcerated in the city jail, Brookstein was not molested. Brookstein dared Mullen to arrest him and offered Smith names of some half a hundred witnesses, while Mullen was backed by a half dozen of his friends. Harry Brookstein has filed a complaint against Mullen, charging assault and battery. Brookstein alleges that Mullen struck him without provocation.

Weldon Darling is Missing from Home. John Darling, 460 Seward street, reports to the police that his 15-year-old son, Weldon, has been missing for the last two days. Weldon left home Saturday afternoon for downtown and since then has not been heard from. His parents are worried about his absence and have asked the police to conduct a search for the lad.

ANKLE BADLY CRUSHED IN WHEEL OF MOVING AUTO. Victor Kopald of Florence suffered a badly crushed ankle Monday at Twenty-third and Harney streets when he attempted to get into an automobile. Jack Ormsby was driving the car and, after beckoning Kopald to join him, slowed down the machine. Before it had stopped, however, Kopald slipped, and his foot caught in a rear wheel. He was taken to Clarkson hospital where an operation was necessary to set the injured parts right.

AUGUST PETERSON LOSES ARM WHILE UNDER BOXCAR. August Peterson, 121 North Fourteenth street, lost his right arm Monday while under some box cars at Fifteenth and Grace streets gathering grain. The accident happened when a switch engine coupled onto the cars. Peterson was hurried to St. Joseph's hospital where he was given medical attention by police surgeons.

BURGLARS GETS EIGHTY DOLLARS FROM REGISTER. Burglars entered the Sherman & McConnell drug store at Sixteenth and Dodge street Monday and secured $80 in cash from the cash register. Entrance was gained through a coal chute window in the basement.

Show Given Added Flavor for Occasion and Speaker for Guests Shows that Ak-Sar-Ben Stands High.

The special train from Tekamah, Herman and Blair last night brought in between 500 and 600 for the night's fun at Ak-Sar-Ben Den.

Samson had not neglected his preparations. He gave them a show and an initiation the visitors declared they would remember to the end of their days. Many could not wait for the special train, but took the regular afternoon passenger, which landed them in Omaha at 6 o'clock. The special train was met at the station by a reception committee and hustled to the Den a trifle late. It was 9 o'clock before the show and initiation started.

E. A. Searle presided over the speaking. Coax as he would, he could not draw more than one visiting speaker to the platform. He called repeatedly for E. C. Burdick of Herman, W. J. Cook of Blair and Colonel G. H. Harrington of Tekamah. Silence greeted his repeated pleas. No, they had seen too many of their friends "stain" in the initiation. They were suspicious. At last Colonel Harrington rose and stroled to the platform. He made up for the speakers that "spoke not. He brimmed over with happiness at having met Omaha with her glad rags on at the Den, and vowed his eternal allegiance to Ak-Sar-Ben.

The Higs School band of Tekamah with twenty-two pieces accompanied the crowd in the special train and rendered excellent music to supplement the program of the evening.

The board of governors at a meeting at 6 o'clock in the evening decided to have Farnam and Douglas streets lighted with special lighting decorations from Fifteenth to Nineteenth streets during the festivities. They will also ask the merchants to decorate as elaborately as possible for the festive week. Messrs. O'Brien, Nash and Weaver were delegated to go to Des Moines early in the week to make arrangements for some special attractions.
