

KELLEY, STIGER & COMPANY

Greeting to Ark-Sar-Ben Visitors

Where to Buy Cheapest and Best.

Our Reputation is Your Safeguard.

Bear in mind you cannot measure quality with a yard stick, neither can you judge the merits of an article entirely by its appearance. Here quality ranks supreme, and when you buy you get lasting satisfaction. The stocks are brimful of the best and latest ideas, and we have fully entered into the spirit of the Fall Festivities by quoting values that will make every day this week a festival day.

FIGHT ON MORE CHURCHES

Lincoln Ministerial Association Discourages Any More Organizations.

MICKY ISSUES ELECTION PROCLAMATION

Lack of Cells in Which to Confine Prisoners at Penitentiary Breeds a Spirit of Insubordination.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Oct. 3.—(Special.)—While the ministers of Lincoln have signed no ironclad agreement to prevent the building of any more churches, denominations not now organized here, such an agreement exists, and a movement toward the organization of any more churches would meet with the opposition of the Ministerial Association.

Rev. Luther F. Ludden, field secretary of the western District Board of Home Missions of the Evangelical Lutheran church, said: "When Rev. Rowland was a citizen of Lincoln he was a strong advocate of the union of churches and he wanted the smaller denominations to organize into one large church. There was some among us that objected to this union and we each were opposed to the organization of other churches in the city.

"The board of which I am secretary is working along the same line, and when I go into a community where there are only a few of those of my particular belief I will not attempt to organize, but I advise those few to affiliate with some of the other churches. Towns and cities can have too many churches just the same as any kind of business and I am strongly in favor of fewer churches, with good preachers and large membership, instead of having the life dragged out of the people trying to keep up a large number of small churches. Mr. Rowland's idea was to have all the churches that believed in immersion, such as the Baptists and the Christian, unite and not have two churches standing side by side when one would do just as well, and in fact would be much better. Then, of course, those of the same faith on other lines he wanted united.

"I still think we should have our demoninations, because a friendly rivalry is good for the churches the same as business, and I am not in favor of doing away with sectarianism altogether, but I am in favor of doing away with so many sects."

From statistics gathered by Rev. Ludden it is found that the number of ministers is not equal to the demand of the churches and makes consolidation almost imperative. Mr. Ludden attributes this to some extent to the time required now for a man to fit himself for the ministry. In other days he said a man could attend school a year and then go to preaching, but now it requires a college education and a four-year special course to be able to fill a pulpit to the satisfaction of the congregations. A preacher has to be as well educated as a doctor or a lawyer. It was suggested that probably the preacher, like the male school teacher, was quitting his calling for something more remunerative, but this is said not to be the reason of a shortage, for there are very few ministers leaving the pulpits and a few new ones coming in.

The ministers of Lincoln have not given up their idea of a consolidation of churches, by any means, and the fact that all agree to oppose the building of new churches for organizations yet to be organized is cited as a step in the direction of consolidation.

Election Proclamation.
Governor Mickey today issued his proclamation for the election to be held on Tuesday, November 3. The proclamation is purely formal to comply with the law in the case. The call shows that four representatives are to be elected, three vacancies being occasioned by resignation and one by death. The following officers are to be elected:

One judge of the supreme court, two judges of the University of Nebraska, two judges of the district court for the First judicial district, one judge of the district court for the Second judicial district, three judges of the district court for the Third judicial district, seven judges of the district court for the Fourth judicial district, two judges of the district court for the Fifth judicial district, one judge of the district court for the Sixth judicial district, one judge of the district court for the Seventh judicial district, one judge of the district court for the Eighth judicial district, one judge of the district court for the Ninth judicial district, one judge of the district court for the Tenth judicial district, two judges of the district court for the Eleventh judicial district, one judge of the district court for the Twelfth judicial district, one judge of the district court for the Thirteenth judicial district, one judge of the district court for the Fourteenth judicial district, two judges of the district court for the Fifteenth judicial district.

CASE AGAINST FRYMIRE ENDS

Testimony of State's Witnesses is All Presented to the Court.

GIRL'S DYING STATEMENT IS HELD

Important Document Will Be Introduced at a Later Stage—Defense to Be Given an Inaugural This Week.

STOCKVILLE, Neb., Oct. 3.—(Special.)—The state's most important witnesses in the Frymire murder case were put on the stand yesterday afternoon and today. Richard Puls, the husband of the dead woman, was the only witness of the shooting, testified yesterday to the shooting and bruising and kicking of his wife by Frymire, Louise Oldenburg, mother of the dead woman, testified to the wounds and bruises on the body of her daughter.

Dr. Fochtman of Cozad gave testimony similar to that of Dr. Andrews. Both witnesses are credited in the report as good evidence that those cells are badly needed. In the meantime the erection of the cells has not yet begun.

Population of Penitentiary.

The report shows this census of the inmates: On hand August 31, 70; received during the month, 8; discharged, 15; paroled, 3; died in prison, 1; escaped, 1; booked to contractors, 15. Those received at the institution this month were: Alfred Lieb-scher, from Douglas county, for criminal assault, five years; Fred Rummier, horse, Dawes county, for manslaughter, three years; Henry Krum, Stanton county, at-large, for criminal assault, nine years; John Wyquist, Keya Paha county, for horse stealing, two and a half years; John Doe, Hamilton county, for attempted burglary, four years; Elmer Russell, Boone county, for incest, ten years; James L. Kennedy, Colfax county, for burglary and larceny, seven years; Chester Green, Mitchell county, for grand larceny, three years; Richard Gould, Grand county, for child stealing, six years.

HUNT HOUR FOR MISSING GIRL

Plattsmouth Child Walks Away with Man and Gives Father and Friends a Bad Scare.

PLATTSBOUTH, Neb., Oct. 3.—(Special.)—What looked very much like a case of kidnaping was the cause of much excitement on lower Main street last evening, when Beesie, the 5-year-old daughter of John Corey, was reported missing. The child had been playing in front of her father's restaurant, and when someone remarked that he had seen the girl walking down the street with a strange man, many believed that she had been kidnaped. Mr. Corey, in company with a number of citizens, at once instituted a search for the missing girl. About an hour later their efforts were rewarded and the little one was found on Second street between Main and Pearl walking toward home, unharmed. The man was later recognized as John Goodin, who is said to be an ex-convict of the Iowa state penitentiary, and who was a total stranger to the Corey family. He offered no explanation for taking such liberties with the child. No effort was made to prosecute the man and he was permitted to leave the city soon after.

Charged with Wife Deserter.

DAVID CITY, Neb., Oct. 3.—(Special.)—The preliminary hearing of William E. Monk, charged with deserting his wife and three small children, was concluded before County Judge Skiles yesterday evening. After the state had introduced evidence and rested its case, counsel for the defendant filed a motion asking the court to dismiss the case for the reason the law as passed by the last legislature and under which Monk is prosecuted, is ambiguous and unconstitutional. The entire day was consumed in the argument of the motion and the citation of authorities by the attorneys. Judge Skiles overruled the motion and held the defendant to the next term of the district court which convenes November 16, fixing the bond at $50, which Mr. Monk was unable to give, and he was removed to the county jail. County Attorney Evans is assisted in the prosecution of the case by Matt Miller and C. H. Aldrick. A. G. Wolfenbarger of Lincoln

Abandons Omaha Cut-Off.

PLATTSBOUTH, Neb., Oct. 3.—(Special.)—Since the Burlington railroad completed the reconstruction of its bridge across the Missouri river the company has commenced to replace the old bridge, which spans the Platte between Oresopolis and LaPlatte, with a new heavy steel one, which will be strong in every way as the one at Ashland. The company has doubtless abandoned the idea of trying to shorten the line between this city and Omaha by building through Swallow hill and crossing the river east of Oresopolis.

Reception for Retiring Pastor.

BEATRICE, Neb., Oct. 3.—(Special.)—A largely attended reception was held at the La Salle Street Methodist church last night in honor of the outgoing pastor, Rev. E. L. Burch, and the incoming pastor, Rev. Mr. Benn. A program of addresses, music and recitations was rendered, following which refreshments were served. The retiring pastor, Mr. Burch, came here three years ago, during which time he and his family have made many friends who will regret to see them leave the city.

Hayes County Fair Opens.

PALISADE, Neb., Oct. 3.—(Special Telegram.)—The Hayes county fair is in full swing. The exhibits of all classes are complete and are of a fine quality. Dr. Peters was present and delivered an address to an enthusiastic audience on the subject of animals. Prof. Campbell is here today and will deliver an address on soil culture for this afternoon and evening. The exhibits are as large as the management expected and the gate receipts entirely satisfactory.

New Elevator Near Beatrice.

BEATRICE, Neb., Oct. 3.—(Special.)—The work of constructing the new 20,000-bushel capacity elevator on the Kilpatrick ranch west of the city is now in progress and it is the intention of the builders to have the structure finished before cold weather.

Hastings New Federal Building.

HASTINGS, Neb., Oct. 3.—(Special.)—Plans and specifications have now been received at this place, and bids for the construction of the same will be received until November 2.

HAS BIG YIELD OF PEACHES

Cass County Farmer Sells a Part of His Crop for About a Thousand Dollars.

PLATTSBOUTH, Neb., Oct. 3.—(Special.)—Dan Kleser, a wealthy farmer, residing near Murray, this county, says he has sold over 600 bushels of peaches this year, and could have disposed of as many more. Some he sold for $1.50 per bushel, but the best brought $2 per bushel.

Adams County Fusion Ticket.

HASTINGS, Neb., Oct. 3.—(Special Telegram.)—The Democrats and populists held their county conventions here today and fused on the following ticket: For county treasurer, D. F. C. Babcock; assessor, Dave Bigelow; county judge, Harry Dunagan; sheriff, C. F. Buckman; superintendent of schools, David B. Martz; county clerk, Charles Phillips; coroner, Dr. Baxter. As neither party could furnish a man to run for surrogate that place was left vacant, and the county central committee was instructed to fill it.

Potato Crop Is Short.

BEATRICE, Neb., Oct. 3.—(Special.)—The potato crop is short in Gage county this fall and many merchants are now engaged in shipping potatoes from Colorado for home consumption.

Sun Is Still Ripening Corn.

PLATTSBOUTH, Neb., Oct. 3.—(Special.)—The past few weeks of dry, hot weather has been all that could have been desired to ripen the corn in Cass county, which it is now estimated will be an average crop.
